

Prices All Shot to Pieces on Flour

FOR FIFTEEN DAYS ONLY

The coupon below will be redeemable on one or more sacks of "91" or Anchor Brand of Flour at any store in McCook at 20c on each and every sack

Beginning Sept. 1 and Ending Sept. 15

This flour is milled in McCook and we are making this offer to get it before the people. The flour will stand the test, and all we ask is to give it an honest and fair trial. This offer will give you a chance to stock up for a year with A-1 Flour at a low price before the higher prices set in which we feel the crop shortage is apt to bring about.

Every Sack is Fully Guaranteed

And if not satisfactory your money will be cheerfully refunded. You cannot afford to let this offer pass, as you will probably never again get a chance to purchase flour at these figures this season. This offer will last FOR FIFTEEN DAYS ONLY. Remember this coupon is good at any store in this city at 20 cents off on each sack for as many sacks as you wish. Be sure and get your orders in early.

McCook Milling Co.

P. S.—Get our prices on all kinds of feed. We deliver to any place in McCook free of charge. All orders given prompt attention.

THIS COUPON

If taken to any store in McCook will be redeemable at 20c a sack on as many sacks as you may wish to buy.

McCOOK MILLING CO.

R. F. D. No. 3.

It is getting dry. The fodder needs rain. Don Thompson sold some cattle the other day, at a good price. Grandma Sigwing has been very sick. W. N. Cratty is quite feeble at his writing. John Burtless has been out in the Moffat road country. He was many miles from railroad facilities, and saw some of the finest coal beds in his life.

R. F. D. No. 4.

Still rain is needed. Some moving on the route: Mrs. P. B. Hoyt and Mrs. George Wallen both moved to town, on Monday. Schools on the route started Monday. Geo. Wallen says bashing isn't to his taste. Farmers are sowing wheat. Some of the wheat is up. Henry J. Cozad announces a big sale for September 15th.

MARION.

O. L. Overstake of Lebanon, was a business visitor in town one day recently. After spending the summer with her sisters Mrs. Wicks and Mrs. Graham, Vanche Plumb returned to her home at Greeley, Colo. Dr. Strain of Oberlin was in town a short time one day recently. A. C. Pew traded his alfalfa prospects to Alfred Ashton of Cedar Bluffs for his auto. Many of the citizens attended the band carnival at Lebanon on Friday and our basket ball team won the game of basket ball from the Lebanon team. J. W. Pepper returned from his Missouri visit one day last week. Mrs. J. Pew of Hebron arrived recently for a short visit with her son A. C. and family. A large crowd attended the 4th annual Sunday school picnic. Rev. Clark of Oberlin was president of the day. The program was fine and all seemed to enjoy it. A ball game after the picnic between Bethel and Marion resulted in a victory for Bethel by a score of 9 to 7. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Powell and daughter Effie left on last Thursday for their home at Lincoln.

spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Campbell. Mrs. J. K. Gordon and daughters returned to McCook Tuesday for the school year. Mrs. A. T. Wilson and daughters Minnie and Fern and son Frank, and father A. W. Campbell are visiting J. L. Campbell and family at Osborn, Neb. Frank Wilson and Robt. Larrington came down from Laird, Colorado, last Saturday. Robert brought his little daughter Fay down to stay with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Doyle, Sr., to attend school. Walter Modrell is at home from Laird, and Glenn has gone to take his place. Walter Modrell and Bessie and Dorothy Doyle visited Mrs. Mollie Simmerman Sunday. School commenced on Monday morning in this district, 63, with Miss Margaret Doyle as teacher, in district 57 Miss Burbridge is teacher. The thought for our Epworth League lessons for the month of September is Progress in Christian Character. The subject last Sunday evening was The Supreme Motive Power, which is love. Next Sunday evening the subject is Christian Athletics. I Tim. 4:7; I Cor. 9:24-27. Miss Leah Doyle is leader.
