A BEAUTIFUL END OF A BEAUTIFUL LIFE

Mrs. Catherine Osborn, who recently made her home with her daughter, Mrs. B. L. Webber, at 411 Fifth street east, in this city, passed peacefully away Tuesday night, at the ripe age of 84 years.

Born in Germany in 1827, she came to this country 6 years later. Her nature was active, incessantly busy in labors of love. Since her house work ended she did many sorts of fancy and useful needlework. These beautiful products of her hands, after so many years of hard work, compel the wonder and admiration of all. Her mental gifts and endurance were no less remarkable. With little schooling herself, she lived 40 years in a college town, enjoying the atmosphere of culture, and delighting in the education and usefulness of her children and grand children. She was, to the last, a wide reader, especially of that touching the deep and eternal themes. Her christian experience was deep and her life consistently expressed her faith and love.

Near the end, after she had ceased trying to speak, her daughter repeated for her Psalm 23, at the fourth verse, "Yea tho I walk thru the valley . . ." the mother's voice joined in, clear and strong, and held its power to the triumphant end, "I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

"Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." Numbers 23:10.

Mrs. Osborn's husband preceded her seven years ago, and her only son died last spring. Four daughters survive, but only two could be present, Mrs. Webber and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong of Florence, Neb.

Brief services will be held at the Webber home, this evening at 8 o'clock, and the body will be taken tonight on 6 to Tabor, Ia., for burial. Rev. and Mrs. Webber and Mrs. Armstrong will accompany the remains.

"I do not attribute the absence of church members in many cases to disaffection. In most cases I believe it is simply lack of interest. For some reason they have formed the habit of church neglect. Some of them devote their Sundays to pleasure—the ways of Sunday diversion have been multiplying of late. All this means that the interests of recreation have taken precedence in the minds of many church members of the interests of the higher life. The fact that this is taking place everywhere does not comfort me; this is the alarming thing."

THE TRUE TEST.

Tried in McCook, It Has Stood the Test.

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in McCook. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

Mrs. D. A. Jordan, of McCook, Neb., says: "About a year and a half ago, I suffered from kidney complaint. There was a dull bearing - down sensation through the small of my back and I became so weak across my loins that I could hardly stoop. I did not sleep well and this resulted in a tired feeling when I got up. Headaches bothered me and I was very nervous. Doan's Kidney Pills improved my condition as soon as I began taking them and the contents of six boxes effected a complete cure." (Statement given June 26, 1907.)

The Cure Lasted.

Mrs. Jordan was interviewed on June 21, 1910, and she said: "I gladly confirm the public statement I gave in 1907, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. They effected a permanent cure in my case and I am now enjoying good health."
