A Familiar Figure Gone.

Chris Larson, one of these generally known characters of the town, died on Sunday morning, presumably from drinking wood alcohol. Christ has been a resident of McCook for many years—serving the Burlington as janitor and carrying the mail from and to the depot. At one time he was possessed of some property, but this went in the misfortune of drink. His wife died in February of 1908, and the children have been scattered about. Arrangements have not been completed for his burial—which will likely be in charge of the county.

Two Visiting Cards.

Visiting cards differ in style according to latitude, and as an example a Paris contemporary recalls an incident in 1844 when M. de Lagrene was sent under Louis Philippe as minister extraordinary to China. The courtesy of the ambassador greatly impressed the Chinese statesmen, particularly their "doyen." When the negotiations had been completed and M. de Lagrene was ready to embark a delegation brought him a great roll of paper. The ambassador seeing this parcel at once thought this was a present, knowing Chinese methods, but to his surprise they started to unroll the cylinder, which extended to about fifty meters of paper, over 162 feet. Then he learned that it was the visiting card of the "doyen." In returning his modest little Bristol board the humiliated ambassador added a few words, which read, "The ambassador of France regrets that he is able to offer only these simple words to your excellency."

The Building of Homes.

Dwelling houses may be constructed of anything from paper to concrete. When built of paper they consist of ground plans, front elevations and mortgages. When they progress to something more substantial they do not resemble in any way the front elevation or the ground plan of the paper stage and are therefore disappointing in these particulars. The mortgage, however, always comes up to expectations. The houses of the elect may be distinguished by the butler's pantry, the middle classes by the reception hall and those of the hot pool by the parlor. Houses are useful to eat in, sleep in, bathe in, dress in, hide in, be seen in, die in, store junk in, insure and burn down. Dignity in houses is typified by a parking inclosed English country place, romance by a southern planter's mansion, poetry by a rose embowered cottage and humor by a modern flat.—Life.

Serpents and Music.

Barnard concludes from his personal observation of cobras in Ceylon, says the Scientific American, that the serpent's traditional love for music is a pure fable and that the only effect of music is to arouse the reptile's curiosity, which is excited by any loud and acute sound. The cobra protrudes its head from its burrow alike on hearing the snake charmer's flute, the rattling of a chain and the sounds made by beating the ground with a switch. It appears to perceive only sounds of high pitch, for it pays no attention to the low notes of the flute or the beating of the drum. Barnard also confirmed, in Ceylon, the results of observations made in the London zoological garden on the supposed power of fascination exerted by serpents upon birds, and he concludes that this power of fascination is also purely imaginary.

Blow the Steam Aside.

The wise woman sent a sudden vigorous puff of breath at the jet of steam rising from the copper teakettle she was tilting, repeated it hastily as she filled the blue teapot and set the kettle back on the stove with a nod of triumph. "That trick has saved me many a scalded hand," she asserted. "Whether I read it or was told it I am not sure, but until I tried it I was always getting most painful little burns. Steam is so easily blown aside if you have the presence of mind to remember it that you can easily keep it from reaching your hand until you can set down the kettle or pot. Don't forget it next time the lid slips or the steam comes unexpectedly from the kettle spout. You will bless me for the hint."—New York Tribune.

Public Baths Abroad.

London probably possesses more private baths than any other city, but in the matter of public baths it cannot claim first or even second place, says the London Chronicle. Tokyo, Japan, has over 800 public baths, where 300,000 persons bathe daily at a cost of about one halfpenny each. Constantinople probably ranks second; then comes St. Petersburg, famous for the vast vapor baths to which the Russians flock in thousands every Saturday evening. The finest public bath in the world is at Vienna. It has a basin 578 feet long by 156 feet wide and can accommodate 1,500 persons. The water is changed thrice daily.

Germany's Telephone "Girls."

Telephone "girls" in Germany cannot work after the age of seventy, though they can retire on pension prior to that advanced day. Positions are obtained by civil service examination. The average on entering the business must be near thirty, and, as many remain for life, it would be ungalant to speak intimately of ages. Discharges cannot be effected without considerable red tape. When an operator has worked up to $450 a year and $150 extra for house rent, she stays at that pay until retired on pension.

On Her Birthday.

"Congratulations," said Younghusband. "My daughter is just one year old today."
 "This is her birthday, eh? What did you give her?"
 "I don't know whether it was soothing sirap or paregoric, but it was one of the two."

They Were Picked.

"Do you call this a band of picked musicians?" said the hotel manager to the leader of a band.
 "Ach! Dot vos so. I bick 'em mine-sellef," replied the bandmaster.
 "Well, then, you picked them before they were ripe."

What should you not wish done to yourself do not unto others.—Chinese.

Order to Show Cause.

In the district court of Red Willow county, State of Nebraska. In the matter of the application of Nina Harris Wade, administratrix of the estate of James B. Wade, deceased, for license to sell real estate.

Now on this 23rd day of August, 1911, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Nina Harris Wade, administratrix of the estate of James B. Wade, deceased, praying for license to sell the following described real estate of the said James B. Wade, to-wit: lot numbered six in block numbered six in the original town now city, of McCook, Redwillow county, Nebraska, for the payment of debts against said estate and allowance and costs of administration, for the reason there is not sufficient personal property belonging to said estate to pay said debts, allowance and costs.

It is ordered, on consideration by me, that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at chambers in the court house in the city of McCook, in said county, on the 7th day of October, 1911, at one o'clock P. M., to show cause, if any there be, why license should not be granted to said Nina Harris Wade, administratrix, to sell so much of the above described real estate of said decedent as shall be necessary to pay said debts, allowance and costs.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in said estate by causing the same to be published once a week for four successive weeks in the McCook Tribune, a weekly newspaper printed and published in said Redwillow county, Nebraska.

R. C. ORR,
 Judge of the District Court.
 First publication Aug. 24-4 ts.

To Ida Lewis and to Whom it May Concern:

You will take notice that on the 17th day of December, 1909, I purchased at private tax sale from the treasurer of Red Willow county, Nebraska, lots 11 and 12, in block 4, North McCook, Red Willow county, Neb., for the delinquent taxes assessed thereon for the years 1891 to 1908, inclusive, and have since paid the taxes thereon for the years 1909 and 1910; said lots were assessed for taxes for the years 1891 to 1911, inclusive, in the name of Ida Lewis.

That after the expiration of three months from the date of the completed service of this notice by publication and after the 17th day of December, 1911, I shall apply to the County Treasurer of said county for a deed to said premises.

September Travel Bulletin

The excursion rates to Eastern localities will continue. It is your last low rate chance of the summer to visit your old home or make a tour of the East.

The Dry Farming Congress will be held at Colorado Springs, on October 16-20. Special rates will be made.

The colonist one way rates to Pacific Coast are in effect September 15th to October 15th, only, this year.

The Burlington has through standard and tourist sleepers every day to California—on No. 3 via Rio Grande, Scenic Colorado and the Southern Pacific and Salt Lake Route; on No. 9 via the Rio Grande, Scenic Colorado and the Western Pacific.

"On Time" operation. Western people living in the territory served by the Burlington will be interested in knowing something about the punctuality with which the management tries to operate its trains. Fast mail No. 7, from Chicago to Omaha, during the months from April to July inclusive, a period of 122 days, arrived at the Missouri River "On Time" every day. The other exclusive fast mail and express train No. 15, from Chicago to Omaha, during June and July, 1911, arrived "On Time" at the Missouri River every day. These are the exclusive mail and express trains that daily bring into the West the great volume of traffic so necessary to the social and commercial life of that region.
