Seed Laboratory Discontinued.

During the past three years there has been maintained thru the cooperation of the United States Department of Agriculture and the Nebraska Experiment Station a Branch Seed Laboratory. This laboratory was connected with the department of agricultural botany the head of this department being collaborator in charge of the seed laboratory.

Over 3300 tests of seeds have been made during this period and by this means and thru extensive correspondence there has been aroused among Nebraska farmers great interest in "pure seeds."

The interest in and demand for pure seeds of known quality developed by the work of the Nebraska Seed Laboratory was sufficient to induce the last legislature to enact a law governing the sale of seeds. The enforcement of this law was placed in the hands of the state food, drug and dairy commissioner.

The state having made provision for the continuation of this work it has been deemed best to discontinue the Nebraska Seed Laboratory. Accordingly correspondence and samples of seeds for test with reference to the new seed law should be sent to the state house. The department of agriculture botany will continue its own investigation of certain seed problems and of Nebraska weeds.

Surprise.

A surprise farewell party was given Mrs. J. W. Wimer by her Sunday school class of nine girls on October 10, at the home of Mrs. Max Anton. Refreshments were served and games played by the children between 3:30 and 7:30. To Mrs. Wimer, in remembrance, was given a handsome gray lade engraved on the back of the handle with her initials and on the front "S. S. Class, 1911."

LADIES' AID CELEBRATES.

Entertain Ladies of the Church and the Gentlemen.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church recently made the final payment of the $500 carpet enterprise they carried thru to success, and it seemed appropriate to them to celebrate the event with a social affair which they styled a "butterfly" social, at which the ladies of the church and the husbands were honored guests. About a hundred members of the church and friends participated in the social with the most enjoyable results of any similar affair of many moons.

The ladies and guests met in the church auditorium first and the formal ceremony of burning the $500 not was disposed of the president of the society Mrs. Hiram Brown, and the treasurer Mrs. A. R. Mehaffey officiated at this incident.

This happy consummation closed, the dining room in the basement was sought, and a banquet of attractive particulars was disposed of. A "surprise" in this connection was one of the happy thoughts of the evening. After assembling around the banquet board and a few remarks by Rev. Lewis, the chivalrous emotions of Alex. Mehaffey and a number of his compatriots asserted themselves, and donning the aprons of the lady waiters they quite took away the ladies' breath. (It may be added, further, that afterwards, the "boys" washed the dishes.)

Adjourning to the auditorium a few remarks by H. E. Culbertson, several recitations by Miss Stella Faus, and music by Rogers orchestra concluded an evening with nought but happy memories.

The Ladies' Aid is to be congratulated and felicitated upon their unselfish work and devotion.

Shaw, the general secretary of the Endeavor movement will be the convention's guest. Mr. Shaw is the man who fought the presentation of the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight by moving pictures in the United States, and who succeeded in getting a great majority of the governors to prohibit them.

Fifty speakers make up the program, consisting of the National Superintendents of Young People's work in all denominations, men of political prominence, etc.

TYPHOID'S QUICK WORK.

Marshall Trammell a Victim After Brief Illness.

Marshall Trammell succumbed, Saturday morning about four o'clock, to an attack of typhoid fever of but a few days' duration. Services were conducted at the home at 806 East 3rd street, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, by Alfric J. R. Goldsmith, rector of St. Alban's Episcopal church, with music by a quartette composed of Mrs. P. F. McKenna, Mrs. F. L. Wolff, F. M. Kimmell and F. M. Colfer. Interment followed in Calvary cemetery of St. Patrick's church.

There were a number of lovely floral offerings, designs, etc., from orders, clubs and individuals—the B. of L. E., "Old Comrades," the Research Club.

"Mart" Trammell at the time of his death was night round house foreman, but for several years served the company as an engineer. He was widely known among railroad men and was one of the popular men of the McCook division for his big hearted, jovial social ways.

A large attendance of railroad men at his funeral attested his popularity among them, while many others outside railroad circles indicated their deep sympathy for the bereaved wife and the little son by their presence.

No Fees at Church Doors.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 13.—The practice of asking a contribution at the door of almost all Roman Catholic churches, or of charging a fee for a seat in the church, is ordered discontinued in a circular letter addressed to all archbishops and bishops of the church in the United States that Monsignor De Falconi, apostolic delegate at Washington, has sent out. It is praised in the most sweeping of terms and condemns present day practices in the strongest manner. Monsignor Falconi speaks of the practices as "bringing scandal to both Catholics and non-Catholics."

The circular warns that any clergyman who disobeys the order will be "condignly punished."

Civil Service commission announces a competitive examination to be held Saturday, October 28, 1911 for the position of clerk (male or female) and carrier for service in the McCook postoffice. OLD FIREMEN BANQUET.

Have a Feed and Post-Prandials at the Palmer.

Last Thursday evening, the members of McCook's old fire department met about the board at the Palmer hotel and indulged in a parting farewell banquet among themselves, with ex-Mayor Joe Stephens and ex-Mayor Ed Huber and a few others as special guests of honor.

The "spread" at the Palmer was one of "Joe's best" and was not without appeal to the boys where it would do the most good. After the banquet Earl O. Vahue assumed the role of toast master and there were several responses, the ex-mayors and others among them and by members of the old department.

After the banquet, the boys, headed by the ex-mayors marched to the city hall, and thence to the Pastime, where they enjoyed the courtesy of the proprietor W. H. Harmon, which concluded an enjoyable evening and the informal disbandment of the old department, which recently offered the resignation of its members upon the reduction of the rate per hour for services by the city council.
