The world is seeking efficiency in its service, in every department of life. The great corporations, individual business men, even individuals themselves are after results—efficiency. Efficiency means less waste, and consequently more profit for the money invested. If this is of great importance in corporate and individual business, why not value it in public affairs, in the business of the people? It is worth just as much to the public to secure good service as it is to corporations and individual business men. Chas. Skalla has determined his value to Red Willow county by service which has never been exceeded for efficiency in the history of the county. He deserves to be reflected on that basis alone.

The growth and development of a new country with its expanding business and closer social relations bring the office of county sheriff gradually into more prominence. There is more litigation and the problems of life become more acute and keener in all lines. The demand naturally is for increasing competency in that office. Ernest F. Osborn, familiarly known as "Dick" Osborn, has had experience as an officer in both city and county, and stands well wherever known, especially so in McCook, his home for many years. He is a young man of vigor and fully equipped for the office he seeks. The voters of Red Willow county will do well to remember him with a large vote at the November election.

With the close of the present term Judge J. C. Moore will have held the office of county judge for three terms. This fact is in itself significant. It means that the judge has given a faithful account of his stewardship in that office. The generous majorities by which he has been returned to office give added color to the pleasing fact of his repeated election to the office of importance and trust. The judge does not attempt to occupy the center of the stage in a dazzling way any or all the time, he just honestly and conscientiously and continuously gives the people of the county good and careful service, dispensing the duties of the court with an even hand and irrespective of individuals, being mindful only all the while of being fair and just to all litigants and administering with economy and justice and according to the statutes the estates which come into his court for probate. And in passing let us state that these are certainly good and sufficient reasons for his asking for another term at the hands of the voters of Red Willow county.

Those having business in the district court know the value of system and thoroughness in keeping up to date the business and records of the office of clerk of the district court. As deputy clerk Elmer E. Kay has exhibited more than usual ability in that office, so much so that both lawyers and litigants remark upon the systematic filing and recording of papers and the facility and promptness with which necessary and proper information can be secured from that office. The election of Elmer Kay will make sure that the office of district court will be handled with accuracy and care and up to the highest business requirements. An X after his name will do the work.

The public especially commends and enjoys that quality of public service which goes about the work in hand quietly and thoroughly and yet gives a product of efficiency high and worthy. Brass bands are quite well in their place, but in the office of county superintendent of public instruction, under the administration of Miss Elizabeth Bettcher, there has been no place for such music, or indeed anything approaching that method. Her work has been essentially modest and unassuming, but the results and the record show the conduct of the office to have been highly satisfactory and successful. She brought to the office ripe experience as a teacher and well established and systematized business training, both qualifications being essential in the conduct of that office. Hence results have followed during her administration which will make certain her return to that office.

The public is becoming more and more discriminating and exacting year by year in its demand that those seeking to be chosen to public offices be honest and qualified. It is not now enough that a man wants a place at the public treasury, or even that he needs it. It is entirely right and proper that he shall offer better claims and that the people shall demand higher motives or reasons for office seeking. When the office deals with vast sums of money, the demand for honesty and efficiency is the keener and rightfully so. But the Republicans of Red Willow county in their nominee, Arthur B. Wood, meet that condition and in fact all conditions. He stands high in the community where he has spent his life as an honorable and honest man, and years of exacting clerical and business life have qualified him splendidly for the office of county treasurer. He deserves a large vote and we have no doubt that he will receive it.

To unquestionably prove to the people that indigestion and dyspepsia can be permanently relieved and Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will bring about this result, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give satisfaction to any one using it.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is due to the high degree of scientific skill used in devising their formula as well as to the care exercised in their manufacture, whereby the well-known properties of Bismuth Subnitrate and Pepsin have been combined with Carminatives and other agents.

Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin are constantly employed and recognized by the entire medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and dyspepsia.

The Pepsin used in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is carefully prepared so as to develop its greatest efficiency. Pepsin supplies to digestive apparatus one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid. Without it the digestion and assimilation of food are impossible.

The Carminatives possess properties which aid in relieving the disturbances and pain caused by undigested food. This combination of these ingredients makes a remedy invaluable for the complete relief of indigestion and dyspepsia.

We are so certain of this that we urge you to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets on our own personal guarantee. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store, L. W. McConnell.

SICK KIDNEYS BRING SLEEPLESS NIGHTS.

Many McCook People Deprived of Restful Sleep by Kidney Troubles.

There is little peace or rest for the kidney sufferer. Night brings no respite from the day's misery—the same old backache is ever present, the sharp twinges when turning or twisting, the annoying urinary troubles, the headaches and nervousness, and all tend to prevent rest or sleep. You arise more tired than when you went to bed. To get well you must get to the cause—the kidneys. Sick kidneys cannot get well alone. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that is so strongly endorsed by your friends and neighbors in McCook. Could you desire more convincing proof of merit?

Mrs. Thomas Croughan, 421 B Ave., McCook, Nebr., says: "A member of our family suffered from backache, caused by disordered kidneys. He also had headaches and got up in the morning feeling all tired out. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally used and they brought splendid results. I have observed the good work that Doan's Kidney Pills have done in many cases of kidney trouble and therefore do not hesitate to recommend them."

ARABIAN COURTSHIP.

Sworn Secrecy Envelops the Wooing and Winning of the Girl.

An Arab loves as none but an Arab can love, but he is also mightily excitable and easily won. An Arab sees a girl bearing water or brushwood and in a moment, almost at a glance, is as madly in love as if he had passed years of courtship. He thinks of nothing else, cares and dreams of nothing else but the girl he loves, and not infrequently, if he is disappointed in his affection, he pines and dies. In order to commence his suit he sends for a member of the girl's tribe and, first insuring his secrecy by a solemn oath, confesses his love and entreats his confidant to arrange an interview.

The confidant goes to the girl, gives her a flower or a blade of grass and says:

"Swear by him who made this flower and us also that you will not reveal to any one that which I am about to unfold to you."

If the girl will not accept the proposal she will not take the oath, but nevertheless keeps the matter perfectly secret from all. If she is favorably disposed to the match she answers:

"I swear by him who made the flower you hold and us," and the place and time of meeting are settled. These oaths are never broken, and it is not long before the ardent lover becomes the happy husband.

CONFIDENCE.

We Back up Our Statements with Our Personal Reputation and Money.

We are so positive that we can relieve constipation no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine free of all cost if we fail.

We think that it is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Cathartics may do much harm. They may cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels, and make constipation more chronic.

Constipation is often accompanied and may be caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or colon. To expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those parts and restore them to healthier activity.

The discovery of the active principle of our remedy involved the labor of skillful research chemists. This remedy produces results such as are expected from the best of the best known intestinal tonics, and it is particularly prompt in its results.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee. They are exceedingly pleasant to take and are ideal for children. They apparently act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels, having, it would seem, a neutral action on other organs or glands. They do not purge or cause inconvenience. If they do not positively cure chronic or habitual constipation and thus relieve the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, your money will be refunded. Try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Three sizes of packages 10c, 25c, and 50c. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—the
