A Date Arranged.
Managers McConnell & Pennell say they have at last received a contract for "The Lion and the Mouse." The date will be announced a little later; it will be a month or so at least before the company's appearance. This is one of Chas. Klein's best plays and doubtless will attract a record-breaking house.

Keep Your Eye on that Can

When Buying Baking Powder
For this is the baking powder that makes the baking better. It leavens the food evenly throughout; puffs it up to airy lightness, makes it delightfully appetizing and wholesome. Remember, Calumet is moderate in price—highest in quality. Ask your grocer for Calumet. Don't take a substitute.

(Continued from page 1.) Higgins, the son of said Lowell M. Higgins, a claim for fees as jailer of said county in the sum of $301.50 for 201 days from January 11th, 1910, to July 31, 1910, inclusive, and that said last mentioned claim was assigned to said Lowell M. Higgins under the name of L. M. Higgins, that said Lowell M. Higgins at the time of the presentation of said last mentioned claim and at all times thereafter claimed to be the owner of said claim and to be personally entitled to all the monies mentioned therein; and that said claim filed on said 11th day of August 1910 was duly considered by this board on the 6th day of September, 1910, and duly disallowed and no appeal has been taken from said action; that said claim filed on said 11th day of August, 1910, is for the same service as said Lowell M. Higgins in his claim filed on the 28th day of August, 1911, described as fees "From January 11th, 1910, to January 31st, 1910, inclusive, 21 days at $1.50 per day, $31.50; from February 1st, 1910, to February 28th, 1910, inclusive, 28 days at $1.50 per day, $42.00; from March 1st, 1910, to March 31st, 1910, inclusive, 31 days at $1.50 per day, $46.50; from April 1st, 1910, to April 30th, 1910, inclusive, 30 days at $1.50 per day, $45.00; from May 1st, 1910, to May 31st, 1910, inclusive, 31 days at $1.50 per day, $46.50; from June 1st, 1910, to June 30th, 1910, inclusive, 30 days at $1.50 per day, $45.00; from July 1st, 1910, to July 28th, 1910, inclusive, 28 days at $1.50 per day, $42.00."

"We further find and adjudge that on the 4th day of January, 1911, said Lowell M. Higgins caused to be filed with said clerk in the name of said H. C. Higgins, the son of said Lowell M. Higgins, a claim for jailer fee of said county in the sum of $397.50 for 265 days during the year 1910, from January 11th, 1910, to and including the 31st day of December, 1910, and that said last mentioned claim was assigned to said Lowell M. Higgins, under the name of L. M. Higgins, that said Lowell M. Higgins at the time of the presentation of said last mentioned claim and at all times thereafter claimed to be the owner of said claim and to be personally entitled to all the monies mentioned in said last claim; and that said claim filed on said 4th day of January, 1911, was duly considered by this board on the 4th day of January, 1911, and duly disallowed and no appeal has been taken from said action; that said claim filed on said 4th day of January, 1911, is for the same and identical service as described in the said claim filed on the 28th day of August, 1911.

"It is therefore resolved and considered by us that said claim of Lowell M. Higgins filed as aforesaid on the 28th day of August, 1911, should be and the same hereby is disallowed. The roll call was ordered and resulted as follows:
Yea: Lofton, Rogers, 2. Nay: Sughroue, 1. The resolution was declared adopted and the claim disallowed.
Sughroue wants record to show that he votes nay for the following reason: "In justice to Sheriff L. M. Higgins, insisting on the payment of this claim, and to myself, for favoring the payment of the claim, I will give the circumstances in connection with this affair. When Sheriff L. M. Higgins in January, 1910, asked for a deputy sheriff and proposed to the county board a man who lived in Indianola and the board had every reason to believe he would continue his residence at Indianola for his deputy there was no question and he was duly appointed. About the 16th day of January, 1910, Sheriff L. M. Higgins had several prisoners to take care of. He finds he had to secure some one for jailer and he employed his oldest son, Homer C. Higgins. He thereupon brings the matter to the attention of the commissioners, who refused to appoint a jailer for him. He again, after some time, brings the question up and proposes to the commissioners that if they appoint his son as jailer, that he would do the janitor work in connection with the jailer work without extra charge, and the commissioners refused to appoint and have refused to pay the claims as set forth in this resolution and they are still unpaid. And as our former county attorney advised me they would have to be paid and as I believe they will, as I stated in my reasons for voting for the allowance of the claim on January 4th, 1911, I shall vote against the resolution."

THE NEW AUTUMN BLOUSE

With the tailored suit, a blouse of matching chiffon, crepe meteor, satin or messaline, is absolutely essential, simple of line for morning and general wear, more elaborate for afternoons. For the young girls, the practical sailor blouse is always in style, and this season, it is developed in fine cashmeres, corduroy, satin or wash silk, in the fashionable peasant style. The collar may be of self-material, or of some contrasting fabric in self color white cashmere, and corduroy, with satin collar are decidedly smart. The other blouse displays the much talked of Citoyenne effect, which is being feaured by Paul Poiret. The yoke, cut in one with the sleeve, is generally of contrasting color or material, and this affords an excellent opportunity for remodeling a last season's waist. The shaped bodice belt is a new style feature, adding quite a little to the general ensemble, when made of the same material as the yoke. It is laced in front, and can be adjusted to normal or slightly raised waist-line. A separate gump of net or point d'esprit, may be worn.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." For sale by all druggists.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them, H. W. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.
