BIG DAY IN DANBURY NEXT

Sunday, November 12, at M. E. Church—Traveler from Palestine, Italy and Turkey—Deaconess from Omaha Hospital.

Next Sunday morning at Sunday school and at the regular preaching service Miss Holmes of Omaha will deliver an address to the people of Danbury on "Deaconess Work."

This lady will hold your attention and inspire you to greater efforts to do the right. If there is any person who does not know the work of the Deaconess and would be pleased to hear from a regular ordained deaconess, we are quite sure that this talk to the Sunday school and visitors will be a most delightful opportunity to hear and see one of those, who knows and feels the heart throb of the suffering and broken hearted. It is a rare chance to have this remarkable christian lady in our midst for the Sunday morning service. We give a most cordial welcome to the people of Danbury and the surrounding territory to pay our Sunday school a visit next Sunday morning.

At the eleven o'clock service Miss Holmes will deliver an address on the Deaconess work in the hospital, how through the long, lonesome hours of winter nights she sits and watches the pained and the halt, how she sings and comforts the dying and the suffering by song and prayer. This address will be the most entertaining address of all your life. We can not recommend too highly for the way in which she tells the simple story of the Deaconess' life in spending the sunshine and song of the "Old, Old Story," will make your heart happy and the rest of your life a sweeter benediction to humanity.

Next Sunday evening at 7:30 we offer you and yours, without money and without price, a lecture, by Miss Yater, a noted traveler and lecturer, on Palestine, Italy and Turkey. Miss Yater has traveled over the territory mentioned and much more. This is the only possible opportunity that we have in treating the people of Danbury to this lecture by one who has been there and seen with her own eyes and heard with her own ears. We give you our hand and heart with our invitation, that this, too, is a most welcome opportunity in offering you the highest talent as a courtesy of the church.

This lecture comes at a very opportune time. We are just closing the "Life of Christ" in the Epworth League; illustrated each Sunday night. It also comes as Turkey and Italy are engaging the thoughts of the world. What an opportunity.

We bid you welcome and assure you a day of inspiring thought. People outside of Danbury come and visit your friends on next Sunday.
