Hope and Christmas Shopping

By Katherine Pope

PERHAPS, first of all, hope is needed at Christmas time and in Christmas shopping. For this season which tradition has builded up as the gladdest, merriest time of all the year, in reality for the majority is an anxious, overburdened, dreaded period. In modern life the gift load has increased along with other complexities, has become in the majority of cases almost too weighty to be borne, hanging heavy on the consciousness from midsummer to December 25th. Desperation drives us to seek solution of the painful riddle, and at least a glimmering of light seems to come our way. In desperation we resolve, seeing no other help in this so urgent need, to use a little new thought, mental healing, or whatever you call it that is supposed to make hard things easy.

And this glimmering of light we would have penetrate the darkness of others. Hence these lines.

Suppose you have a list of half a hundred "expecting" from you. In which case, we make bold to advise, don't knit your brows over the disjointed combination of your flat purse and their expectations and give it all up as hopeless or at least bungling; just put on a new thought, or mental healing expression and hope. Declare to yourself: "I am not going to worry, come what may; for the first time in these many distraught years I'm going to make a stagger at enjoying Christmas, every bit of it—the survey of that army of expectants, the survey of resources, the study of fifty diverse tastes and wants, the heroic endeavor to minister to these wants with purse lean as shrunk shanks of Shakespeare." Just force a smile—mental healing, or new thought—and drive ahead. Inwardly affirm, and outwardly express, "All's well, all's coming out right," then go on down town for the test.

But, so the smile will not rub off, the inward and outward serenity be not roughened, we beg you go early; it is most dangerous to put the strongest resolution, sturdiest effort, on trial in the maelstrom of after-luncheon Christmas shopping. The mad mob that at this time surges through aisles, jostles and tramples in elevators, bangs heavy doors on weak ones struggling in the rear, this mad mob might prove a successful serpent in that paradise of serenity enveloping you.

If you are calm and smiling in making your purchases, of course it may startle the girls behind the counters, cause no little agitation, but they'll recover and you'll have them fairly hypnotized, can get out of them almost anything you will. We tried it yesterday ourselves with marked success, got through a list of much length in miraculously short order. The shopping proved quite a social success, exchange of courtesies rather than mere exchange and barter; and, fooling aside, really not the deadly, deadening, nerve-racking, loathsome, unholy, un-Christian fight Christmas shopping has been with us this many a day. And, fooling aside, we really found quite a lot of feisty [illegible] to be had at moderate [illegible] the things came to [illegible] we were [illegible] about the matter, [illegible] way does not Bernard Shaw [illegible] her of us the only folk that have learners nowadays are the fo'k that [illegible] counters? To some [illegible] were servile [illegible] on the part of [illegible] but there are [illegible] left a few people in this age of [illegible] down of every good old stand-ard that cling sacredly to a liking for courtesy and graciousness, are able to recognize it as the real thing though apparently presenting itself as something offered for sale, to be had for money. And there is no finer thing in this season of strike and ill-will than the infinite patience and heroic calm of the girl behind the counter.

After you have hopefully and smilingly made those hopeful purchases and the purchases have arrived at your domicile, without delay, set to work at doing them up; we beg of you for the success of the experiment don't wait till the eleventh hour for the sticking of the Christmas stickers, the tying of the everlasting Christmas ribbon, the endless addressing and weighing and stamping. There is nothing so calculated to make you hate this maddest, merriest season of Dickens' fancy as having to hunt around at the last moment for wrapping paper and string and appropriate boxes and tissue paper and cards and all the rest of the lumber essential to "getting things off." In gift-packing at glad Christmas time numberless brittle tempers are broken, numberless resisting tempers cracked.

Facts about Indigestion and Its Relief That Should Interest You

Although Indigestion and Dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why most people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-tasting, good-looking and good-smelling food, because it does not agree with them.

The best thing to do is to fit yourself to digest any food.

We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it, who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. Then, if not satisfied, come to us and get your money back. They are very pleasant to take; they aid to soothe the irritable stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, and to promote a healthy and natural bowel action, thus leading to perfect and healthful digestion and assimilation.

A 25c. package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days treatment. In ordinary cases this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment is of course necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases, we have two larger sizes which sell for 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. L. W. McConnell.

Gloves, in cotton and in leather, you will find a good assortment at the right prices at Huber's.
