RED WILLOW.

It is a great relief now that the weather has moderated, not to have to bring in such wood piles at night.

The ground hog could see his shadow for a while on the 2nd.

Louis Longnecker and wife spent Tuesday at Charley Allen's. William Randel's arm is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Clark visited at Horace Taylor's Sunday.

Seth Weddell is staying at Roscoe Korn's and attends school in Indianola.

A picture peddler is around trading through the slop and slush on foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Maley are visiting her mother Mrs. E. A. Sexson.

Mrs. Roscoe Korn's and children spent several days with Mrs. Louis Longnecker, while Roscoe was helping Louis.

Herbert Critchfield is at home for awhile.

John Longnecker and wife were married on Friday, February 2, 1872, and it is a matter of interest to them to find that their 40th anniversary is the last of the only three times in 200 years that February 2 falls on Friday.

The sudden change of weather with a fierce north wind, is harder to endure than the continuous dry, but colder, of the past week.

MARION.

Alva Andrus is now located at Pasadena California.

C. W. Reed was a business visitor at Cedar Bluffs between trains one day last week.

The roads are in a very bad shape, being rough and icy.
