AVOID HARSH DRUGS.

Many Cathartics Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels.

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called REXALL ORDERLIES. These are prompt, soothing, and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. Their principal ingredient is colorless, tasteless, and colorless. Combined with other well known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without inconvenience whatever. They do not gripe, purge, nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons, and aged people, as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in three size packages, 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain them only at our store — The Rexall Store, L. W. McConnell.

For a sprain you will find Chamberlain's Liniment excellent. It allays the pain, removes the soreness, and soon restores the parts to a healthy condition. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

Do you know that more dangerous larks in a common cold than in any other of the minor ailments? The safe way is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a thoroughly reliable preparation and rid yourself of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

A Fair Offer.
She was strong minded and meant to have her rights at any cost, and when she was hauled up before the justice of the peace for exceeding the speed limit she demanded to be represented by counsel.

"I just tell you one thing, judge," she said, whacking the table with her right hand, "I'd rather pay a lawyer $25 than give this court $10 for a fine."

"All right, madam," said the judge, "I'm the only lawyer hereabouts, and if you'll just hand over that $25, I'll guarantee to appear before myself and get you off."—Harper's Weekly.

Subtle Flattery.
"Dibbles is what I would call a diplomatic man."

"In what particular?"
"Mrs. Dibbles asked him to make out a list of ten of the world's greatest women, and whom do you think he put at the head of the list?"
"I can't imagine."
"Mrs. Dibbles!"

Praise or Condemnation.
Author (cheerfully)—"Couldn't I take my call now? They're shouting 'Author.'"
Manager (doubtfully)—"If you like. But I'm not quite sure whether it's 'author' they're shouting or 'awful.'—Bystander.

A DIFFERENCE.

The Preacher—Why don't you put more stock in honesty?
The Millionaire—Can't. All my money is tied up in railroad stocks.

Mystified.
A bulky mule is bad enough. When harnessed to a rig. But the hardest thing on earth to drive is a bottle-fed blind pig.

LIKE STROKE OF LIGHTNING

Veteran Soldier Tells How Wound Affects Fighter on the Field of Battle.

General Miles in his book, "Serving the Republic," says that, like every other soldier who has seen much active service, he is often asked how it feels to be wounded. He himself was wounded four times, and twice almost fatally, so he is able to speak from experience. He says: "One is often asked how it seems to be wounded in battle. The flight of a bullet is quicker than thought, and has passed through a flesh wound before one realizes that he has been struck. I have seen bodies of men dead on the field of battle where the brain had been pierced and death had been instantaneous. They would remain in every position of the manual of arms, with an anxious look, a frown or a smile on their cold and rigid faces. My wounds received at Fair Oaks, Fredericksburg and Petersburg were flesh wounds, and disabled me but a short time. While riding down the line at Chancellorsville one of the enemy's bullets struck my metallic belt plate with great force. This caused a slight deviation as it entered the body. The result was an instant deathly sickening sensation; my sword dropped from my right hand, my scabbard and belt dropped to the left; I was completely paralyzed below the waist. My horse seemed to realize what had occurred; he stopped, turned and walked slowly back—I holding to the pomel of the saddle with my hands. We soon reached a group of soldiers, who took me off and, placing me in a blanket, carried me to the Chancellorsville House, and pulled a dead man off a couch to make room for me."

MOSE NOT HARD TO SATISFY

As Far as Prisoner Was Concerned, He Was Willing to Let the Matter Drop.

Bozeman Bulger, a baseball writer, says that in his home town, down in Southern Alabama, a negro was brought into court to answer a charge of murder.

"Mose Tupper," said the judge, contemplating the prisoner over his spectacles, "you are accused here of one of the most serious crimes known to our laws—twit, the taking of a human life. Are you properly represented by counsel?"

"No, suh," said the darky cheerfully.

"Well, have you talked to any one about your defense since your arrest?"

"I told the sheriff about the shootin' when he come to my cabin to fetch me heah," said the prisoner—"but that's all."

"And have you taken no steps what ever to engage a lawyer?"

"No, suh," said Mose. "I ain't got no money to be wastin' on lawyers. Dey tell me lawyers is mighty costive."

"If you have no funds," insisted the judge, "it lies within the power of the court to appoint an attorney to defend you without charge."

"You needn't be botherin' yo'self," answered Mose.

"Well, what do you propose to do about this case?" demanded his honor.

"Jedge," said the negro, "ez fur ez Ise concerned you kin jes' let de matter drap!"—Saturday Evening Post.

Why He Was Not Guilty.

"Little X," says a writer in the Army and Navy Journal, "was one of the most popular of our young officers in the army maneuvers at — during 1910. He had served in the cavalry and had brought with him the cavalry swagger, wore his campaign hat turned up in front and rear, and is said to have slept in his spurs. Our lieutenant colonel, whose treatment of young officers had made him most unpopular, was then in command of the regiment.

"One day Little X passed the Colonel's tent while the old man was standing out in front looking for trouble. He spotted X and sent his orderly for him. 'Mister X,' said the colonel as Johnny saluted and brought his heels together with the approved click. 'Mister X, you appear to have a touch of the outie about you. Why, colonel,' said X, 'you must be mistaken; I haven't had a drink since I came to camp.'"

Laying Something by for Future.

The general prosperity can only be a reflection of the prosperity of the individual, and no individual is really prosperous who is not laying aside something for the future. The man who makes $10,000 per year and spends $10,000 is poorer than the man who makes $1,000 and spends but $900. It may be hard to walk while your neighbor whisks by in an automobile, but it is the man who has the courage and character to live well within his means who accumulates enough capital to do things in the world.—Indianapolis Star.

His Life Work.

Is this an artist? Yes, that is what he calls himself.
Is his studio beautiful? It is.
Where did he get the money with which to buy beautiful things? From a rich uncle who died.
Does the artist hold lovely afternoon receptions? He does.
What is he painting? A picture.
How long has he been painting the picture? About seven years.
Will he ever finish it? NO!—Puck

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

Certain Ingredients That Really Promote Hair Growth When Properly Combined.

Resorein is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its natural nourishment, and also creates a clean, healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin, although not a coloring matter or dye, is a well-known ingredient for restoring the hair to its natural color, when the loss of hair has been caused
