United Doctors, Specialists Will Be At The

NATIONAL HOTEL

Saturday, April 27th, and Will Remain

ONE DAY ONLY

Remarkable Success of These Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases.

Offer Their Services Free of Charge.

The United Doctors, licensed by the state of Nebraska, for the treatment of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this trip, consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of medicine. All that is asked in return for these valuable services is that every person treated will state the result obtained to their friends and thus prove to the sick and afflicted in every city and locality, that at last treatments have been discovered that are reasonably sure and certain in their effect.

These doctors are considered by many former patients among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists and are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their results that in many cases it is hard indeed to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nervous system, spleen, kidneys, or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, bed-wetting, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long-standing, deep-seated chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physician, should not fail to call.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter or certain forms of cancer. They were among the first in America to earn the name of the "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with knife, with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a two-ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination. Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit this time may help you.

Remember, this free offer is for one day only.

Looking to County Library

In addition to the disposition of the regular routine business of the city library, at their regular meeting, Monday evening, the matter of the establishment of a county library was discussed at some length by the local board. This is an ideal matter, and it is the opinion of the board that should more favorable crops be our portion this year that the project might, another year, be carried out successfully. The matter, of course, being a subject for taxation, would have to be submitted to the vote of the people for their approval. Where the plan has been intelligently and actively carried into execution it has been a success, and no doubt could be made a success in Red Willow county. Let us talk up the plan in the meantime, and be prepared to act intelligently and favorably when the financial times seem to be more propitious.

FRANKLIN C. HAMER

FOR

STATE TREASURER

FRANKLIN C. HAMER

To have made a success of one's business, and to have builded that business through tireless effort, backed by fair dealing and a desire to be of service, is a record of which any man may be proud. Such is the record of Franklin C. Hamer, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for state treasurer. Mr. Hamer is a Nebraska born product, and the son of the late Dr. E. P. Hamer, one of Nebraska's early pioneers. He was born in Lancaster county, and all of his life his energies have been devoted to building up in his native state a record for business integrity and ability. After finishing the public schools of Lancaster county Mr. Hamer entered business for himself, selecting the field of investment banking as the field of his efforts. In the meantime, however, he continued to devote a goodly portion of his time to practical farming. He has land interests in Lancaster, Holt and Lincoln counties, and to the cultivation of these lands he gives direct personal attention in the way of supervision and advice. Mr. Hamer is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and because of his connection with agriculture he is unusually well posted as to the needs and requirements of the farmers of Nebraska.

For several years Mr. Hamer has been prominently identified with the American Safe Deposit Co. of Omaha. This company is trustee to the amount of millions of dollars yearly, and it numbers among its patrons hundreds of Omaha's wage earners who know that their earnings are safe in the charge of this concern, and who have learned by experience that its advice upon the matter of their small investments is always sound. Many a workman in Omaha has been advised by this concern, and following the advice has so invested his weekly savings as to enable him to purchase his own comfortable home, or buy securities that bring a welcome addition to the pay envelope every coupon clipping day.

Because of his long application to the investment banking business Mr. Hamer is in close touch with all the reliable and secure investment offerings, a fact that particularly well fits him for the position of fiscal agent of the state.

Nebraska has now upwards of $9,000,000 invested in interest bearing securities and is constantly purchasing more. Mr. Hamer believes these securities should be purchased direct from the municipalities and school districts and avoid paying large commissions and premiums to brokers.

Few people realize the immense amount of responsibility devolving upon the state treasurer of Nebraska. He is the custodian of the funds of the state. Every biennium the state treasurer receives and pays out approximately $5,000,000. In addition to the mere handling of this money he is charged with keeping an accurate account of scores of different funds. He is the fiscal agent of the state in all of its investment transactions, and these mount up to millions of dollars every year. As fast as securities held by the state mature, they must be reinvested, and it requires a thorough knowledge of law, of the financial standing of states and counties and municipalities, of the condition of the money market—in short, it requires financial ability of a unusually high order. This ability Mr. Hamer possesses to an admittedly high degree, as his success in his business amply testifies.

Nebraska is a comparatively young state. It is only forty-five years old, hence it is just beginning to have opportunities to elect native born sons to important offices. Mr. Hamer is one of these "native sons," and of such as he Nebraska has a right to be proud. When one of Nebraska's sons makes good, Nebraska should recognize the fact.

Mr. Hamer is not asking for the nomination for state treasurer on the ground of party service, although he has been a consistent republican all his life. He is asking for the nomination on the ground that he is able and willing to give the taxpayers a safe, profitable and conservative management of their financial affairs as citizens of this commonwealth.

He is making an active though dignified campaign for the nomination, meeting as many people as possible, and telling them frankly and openly just what he knows about business affairs and just what he will endeavor to do if honored by his party with the nomination and by a majority of the voters with an election.

Socially he is a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet. As a business man he inspires confidence in those who have dealings with him. As a citizen he is enterprising and progressive. Measured by any standard of ethics, Mr. Hamer is a credit to the state that reared him.

Melvin Sparks, who went to the Mrs. George home after his washing, discovered Mrs. George lying on the floor and he called Dr. Farquhar. It was found that she had died from an attack of heart trouble but a few moments before. She had been around and working every day but had not complained of being ill, but a day or two before her death remarked that she had pains in the region of her heart.

Mrs. George had prepared her supper and it is thought was just in the act of partaking of her meal when death overtook her—as a cup of hot tea had spilled over her hands.

Mary A. Sherman was born in Clarion county, Pennsylvania, on March 7, 1843, and at the time of her death was 69 years and 22 days old.

At the age of 20 Miss Sherman was united in marriage to John George and to this union were born three children, one son and two daughters. The son died in infancy and the youngest daughter died at the age of 18. The only remaining daughter whose home is in Missouri, was unable to be present at the funeral on account of washouts.

Mrs. George joined the M. E. church here by letter December 8, 1909, and has lived in Bassett since, where she has made many friends, and was loved and respected by all who knew her.

Her death was a shock to her many friends and neighbors. She leaves four brothers, three sisters and one daughter to mourn her loss.
