KAREL KUDRNA CUT TO PIECES.

A Young Chicago Bohemian Meets a Terrible Death.

Thursday night or Friday morning, near Perry station, a man was run over by the cars, and his body cut to pieces and scattered along the track between the rails and on the right of way. Section men gathered the remains and brought them to McCook, Friday morning, they being at once taken to Pade's undertaking rooms on West B street. From letters on his person it was ascertained that his home was Chicago, and the authorities and railroad officials got in communication with his relatives in that city.

A brother and brother-in-law arrived from Chicago, Saturday night, and on Sunday morning identified the remains, which were shipped to Chicago on train No. 10, Sunday night, for burial.

It will doubtless never be known just how the young man came to his death, but presumably he attempted to board a moving train, or fell from a moving train on which he was bumping his way. A number of trains possibly passed over his body before the remains were discovered—and they were physically unrecognizable.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Will Be Held Tuesday Evening by Commercial Club.

Tomorrow evening will occur the regular annual election of officers for the McCook Commercial club. This is an important meeting and should bring out a large attendance of the members who are interested in the matter of the club's board of directors, who select the officers. Take time from your business and other affairs, Tuesday evening, to be at this session.

If not already a member, citizen, join the club.

High School Picnic.

About a hundred members of the high school participated in a picnic on Red Willow creek Saturday. Some used a hay rack as a transportation facility—others the steam cars of the Burlington. All had a great time in the usual way: A picnic dinner, games, athletic stunts and etcetera galore. Sup't Davis and some members of the teacher corps accompanied the jolly bunch.

Russian Symphony Orchestra

McCook and Southwestern Nebraska enjoyed greatest musical opportunity in our history, last night, in the temple theatre, when famous Russian Symphony Orchestra gave its superb classical program. This orchestra numbers over fifty members and has been organized for about ten years, to give emphasis to the compositions of that great Russian, Tchaikowsky, whom they feature.

Under direction of Modest Altschuler they have reached a high position among the orchestras of New York city. Mlle. Lopoukows' dancing is quite charming. Mademoiselle is as dainty as a butterfly and as graceful as a fairy. Her dancing was poetry in motion, and captivated without the suggestion of offense. She was on program for three brief appearances and no enthusiasm of encore could secure a return.

Miss Vera Curtis sang an aria from Verdi's "Aida" to orchestral accompaniment to the delight of the audience. Her honors were quite equally shared with Miss Eva Mylott, contralto, in Saint Saens' "Samson and Delilah."

While Henri La Bonte, tenor, in Puccini's "Girl from the Golden West" was warmly applauded.

The only other solo number of the program was Gregor Skolnik's violin offering, the meditation from "Thais" by Massenet. A delightful solo.

Such delicate and effective shadings from the heaviest fortissimos to the finest musical tracery were the marvel and enrapturing of the audience; while the barbaric splendor of the Russian was resplendent in other more national movements.

The program concluded with a medley of our national hymns and airs, which brought the large audience to feet.

Commencement Week

The Baccalaureate Sermon.

The class of 1912 heard their baccalaureate sermon from Lips of Rev. D. L. McBride of the Baptist church, Sunday evening, delivered in the Methodist church, before an overflowing audience. Rev. McBride chose his sermon subject from the 99th Psalm, "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." In practical, thoughtful ways he urged upon the members of the class the seeking and exercise of wisdom and concluded with the highest thought that no prudent person approached any great undertaking in life without a preparation involving God in the account. The speaker suggested the addition of purpose to prudence and to purpose preparedness, and climaxed all with sincerity.

The church quartette offering an appropriate anthem. It was an inspiring occasion in a religious atmosphere, apropos to commencement week and its functions.
