

A Weekly Record Of Social Events

Archie McCoy was responsible for a delightful social dance given at Ryan's hall Friday evening. A large number of young people were present.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Harry Pence entertained at a Kensington at her cosy home at Sunnyside. About twenty ladies were present and shared in the pleasures of what proved to be a most delightful social function. Mrs. Pence served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. John Nulk was hostess at a Kensington on Tuesday afternoon. The many enjoyable features of this occasion were shared by Mrs. M. Sweeney, Mrs. W. A. Stuart, Mrs. J. F. Whetstine, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. J. R. Pickett, Mrs. Allan May and Mrs. Frank Uhlig.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the concert to be given by the Tyroleans under the auspices of Sorosis. The promise of something unique in the way of music, as well as a guarantee of the excellence of the company assures a big attendance. The concert will take place at the Jenne opera house, Monday evening, February 8th.

The Presbyterian Ladies Kensington club met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Leekins Thursday afternoon, about forty being present. A feature of the entertainment was the giving of prizes for free hand drawing. In this contest Mrs. G. W. Reneker won the first prize, Mrs. Harvey second and Mrs. Bohrer the consolation. After refreshments were served the ladies departed with expressions of having enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

The Knights of Pythias entertained their friends at their hall on Wednesday, a large number of invited guests being present. When all had assembled, Dr. J. C. Yutzy called the gathering to order and on behalf of the knights extended to all a hearty welcome. Dr. Yutzy's address was followed by a selection rendered by a male quartette composed of Peter Kaiser, Simon Davies, George Hall and Ned Towle. So much was the singing of the quartet appreciated that they were compelled to respond to an enthusiastic encore. Miss Miner recited in her usual pleasing manner. Her selection was very timely dealing with the adventures of a woman who desired to become a K. of P. The nature of the selection and the pleasing manner in which it was rendered, drew forth hearty applause. A vocal solo by Sherman Godfrey followed. Although a very young singer his voice impressed all by its volume and purity. With his talents properly cultivated he has a future before him as a singer. Miss Anna Dorrington sang a very pretty solo, charmingly sung in the style that has won for her more than a local reputation. W. S. Leyda delivered an address, taking for his subject the history of the Knights of Pythias. His reference to the history of the local order was very interesting. It is not generally known that the Falls City lodge of Knights of Pythias is the only one in the state that has two charters. The lodge was originally instituted on May 10, 1874. It was later dissolved, but some member took the charter and hid it away. In September, 1884 the lodge was reorganized and a new charter granted. The old charter was again produced and hung on the walls. A special dispensation from the grand lodge allows it to remain side by side with the later charter. Mr. Leyda closed his remarks with some timely remarks for the good of the order. After another selection by the quartet the meeting resolved itself into a social gathering. Supper was served and the guests divided their time between playing various games and dancing.

Saturday morning the committees appointed by Sorosis and Friends in Council to select material to be sent with the educational exhibit of Nebraska to the Worlds Fair at St. Louis met at the library and arranged for the shipping of the collection to Prof. E. H. Barbur of the State University.

The committee reports the following list of articles from Sorosis: Mrs. Alice West Cole sent a type written paper on "Character Building." This paper contains a most eloquent plea for club women to devote their time and energies to this work, character building being the highest aim of women. Mrs. A. E. Hill who has written several poems which have been printed in leading papers, which have received flattering press notices, contributed an original poem and song. One of our leading musicians, Mrs. Anna R. Gist contributed a piece of music entitled "My Nebraska Home," and both music and words are original. Mr. Oswald generously donated a picture of Sorosis members and three pictures of the interior of the library.

From Friends in Council Mrs. Nettie Wills Stanbro sent a beautiful medallion in pyrogravure. Mrs. Stanbro is a teacher of art and possesses that true artistic taste which can fully appreciate the beauties of art. Miss Miner, one of our popular kindergarten teachers, sent a collection of type written "Play Time Stories." These stories are soon to be printed in book form for primary work in schools. A picture of the "Cast Room" of the Art Institute of Chicago was sent by Miss Alice Cleaver, who was chosen from the entire school to paint this picture. This painting of high art reveals the ability as well as the artistic spirit of the painter. Miss Cleaver received all possible honors from the Art Institute including several scholarships and the first prize for an original composition, called "The Greenhouse." In this contest, pupils and under teachers competed. Miss Cleaver has also received a scholarship from the Philadelphia Art Academy where she is pursuing her art studies, having entered this academy last autumn.
