

Neighborhood News

Ohio

Special to The Tribune.

Bessie Keller is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Nolte was visiting at Wm. Hunter's Sunday.

S. P. Maust from Pennsylvania was visiting relatives here last week.

Some of the young folks of this precinct were out sleigh riding Sunday.

Mrs. C. Agee is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harbaugh this week.

Cal Peck from Waterloo, Iowa is visiting in this neighborhood this week.

John Fields shelled about 4,500 bushels of corn and delivered it to Heacock.

Ethel Peck, who has been quite ill is now improving under the care of Dr. Reneker.

E. C. Peck left for Kansas Saturday where he will work for A. R. Peck during the summer.

Barada

Special to The Tribune.

Lud Moorehead finished putting up ice last week.

Wm. Cox and Lou Bowers are serving as jurors this week.

Claude Whitney and wife of Dawson have been visiting east of town.

School began Monday morning after a weeks vacation on account of bad weather.

Manford Allen and best girl attended a dance at Shubert last Thursday evening.

Joseph Watton and wife of Shubert attended the Kuhlman-Faller wedding Thursday.

Herman Kelly left last week for Falls City where he has accepted a position at the Prater blacksmith shop.

August Steinbrink and family and Mrs. John Bowers and daughter were visiting at the home of Henry Siemering over Sunday.

The remains of Mrs. Tom Cox were shipped to this place from Salt Lake City, Utah for burial and the funeral was held Sunday afternoon from the residence of Wm. Cox.

A surprise dance was held at the home of Henry Siemering Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Emma. The time was pleasantly spent by dancing. Elegant refreshments were served.

Henry Faller and Edith Kuhlman were married Thursday at the Luthern church at Falls City Rev. Lohr officiating. The bride is a young lady highly respected by all while the groom is an industrious young farmer. The young people will begin their wedded life on the Faller farm three miles east of here.

Stella.

Special to The Tribune.

Gussie Henderson of Shubert was in town Tuesday.

Francis E. Smith of Verdon was in town Monday.

Miss Edna Martin of Salem is visiting O. C. Wilson this week.

A jolly sleighing crowd came up from Verdon Monday evening.

B. Handler of St. Joseph was in town Monday transacting business.

Norman Shrauger and Nellie Swihart visited in the country Sunday.

Harry Wooding of Auburn is working on the telephone line this week.

F. G. Marts and family have returned from Colorado and will locate here.

Mrs. C. H. Thomas and daughter, Fairy spent Sunday with F. C. Moore's.

Edna Byrd of Riverton, Iowa arrived Sunday to visit her sister Mrs. Marvin Davis.

C. W. Bryant and family moved to Auburn this week where Mr. Bryant is engaged in business.

Peter Kesler, who has been seriously ill at the home of his daughter, is slowly improving.

Minnie Pugh, who has been seriously ill at her home in the east part of town is slowly improving.

Norris Reasoner returned to Oregon last week after several weeks visit with his sister, Mrs. Nellie Shrader.

Mrs. A. W. Sanders of Effingham, Kans., arrived Monday to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Scott Hinkle.

Mrs. Bessie Thomas and children left Sunday for Odell, Neb., where they will visit with Mrs. Thomas' mother.

Word was received here this week that Mrs. Anna Cox, formerly of Stella has died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Stains of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Humboldt.

Special to The Tribune.

H. P. Marble and wife visited in St. Joseph Tuesday.

Jas. K. Liggett spent several days at Falls City the past week.

Mrs. John H. Smith and son, Arthur, returned home Sunday from a visit at Leavenworth, Kan.

Myrtle Kenner returned to her home at Plattsmouth Wednesday after a short visit to her aunt, Mrs. O. A. Cooper.

Joseph Holechek and wife south of town, are the parents of a bright little son who arrived at their home Tuesday morning.

HOLT'S Shoe Store Falls City, Neb.

SHOES for Men, Women and Children

I would be pleased to have you call to see our Shoe Styles

Would also like add your name to our list of customers.

Children's Shoes a Specialty.

Warm Lined Shoes for Old Folks.

Rubbers and Overshoes of all Kinds.

Want to Phone?

Call 23.

Champion Wright arrived home Tuesday after an absence of more than two years spent in Flathead county, Montana, near Kalespel. He has several brothers here.

Mrs. Joseph Church, residing north of the city, is reported very ill at her home with pneumonia. Slight chance is held out for her recovery owing to her age.

Rev. Winnett, a German Lutheran pastor who has made his home in this city for a couple of months past leaves this week to accept a pastorate at Bern, Kan. His family will accompany him.

The Spring Lake Ice Co. this week completed the work of filling their large house east of the city with ice from the lake. The ice is of the best quality and always in great demand by consumers in the summer season as it is known that the lake is fed from a spring and the water is pure.

Thos. Feasel, a prominent farmer living north of the city, left Thursday for Superior to investigate what seems to be the mysterious disappearance of his brother, Eli W. Feasel, formerly a resident of this city, who has been missing from his home out there since the first of November. Reports received from there indicate that the missing man has been murdered.

Shubert.

Special to The Tribune.

Guy Harper says it is too cold for him here.

Art Bright and wife entertained relatives Sunday.

Ralph Summers is "hello boy" at the central office.

Quite a nice time is expected at the Friday night club.

John Sawers is working for J. L. Dalby at the Citizen office.

M. H. Taylor and wife entertained friends on day evening.

Angie Leslie was the guest of her friend, Jessie Kenton, Sunday.

Mrs. M. H. Taylor and children spent Sunday with friends near Howe.

Art Doman and wife spent Sunday in the country with Mc. Weddle and family.

Minnie Jones spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Sherm Colglazier west of town.

Mrs. Art Doman has been entertaining a brother from Broken Bow for the past week.

Mrs. S. A. McGeachie, who has been very sick at her home east of town is improving slowly.

Walt Shubert and family and Steve Poland and wife will soon leave for Broken Arrow, I. T.

Messrs. E. C. Rigs, H. E. Williams, J. Evans and W. H. Morrow made a business trip to Falls City, Wednesday.

Quite a crowd of young folks from Prairie Union attended the Madrigal ladies quartette and were well paid for coming.

Gertie Weddle started to school Monday after being absent for the past three weeks on account of the sickness of her mother.

Mrs. L. Walker will leave in a short time for Wichita, Kansas, where she will make her future home. Mr. Walker has been in Kansas most of the winter and likes the place fine.

Coupe & Thornton cure all their own meats.

WM. J. MORAN

LAWYER

Practice in all courts. Collections a specialty.

Falls City - - Nebraska