FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 1904.

NUMBER 14

Entire Citizens Ticket Elected

The city election held on last Tuesday resulted in the election of the entire citizens ticket. On the surface, it was one of the quietest elections ever held in Falls City, but the vote shows that beneath the surface, very much and very effective work was done. The votes cast in the various wards was comparatively light. In the morning the weather was somewhat disagreeable but at noon the sun came out and with it came more voters. Carriages were used principally to convey to the polls, ladies who desired to vote for the school board. At each of the polling places a number of ladies exercised the franchise. The story of the result is best told by the table.

The election marked the close of a very quiet campaign and one in which but little enthusiasm was aroused. The vote on the referendum was somewhat of a surprise as the measure did not receive the vote that was expected from some quarters.

Married.

Dorothy Scott and Jacob Miller were married in this city last Friday. The marriage was very much of a surprise to the friends of these worthy young people. The bride, who is a daughter of Dr. A. N. Scott of this city is a most estimable young lady who through years of association with our people, has made many friends. The groom is the son of Ben Miller, the well known horse dealer, formerly of this city, but now of Tecumseh. He is a wide awake, hustling young man, well liked and popular. He has a bright business future before him. The many friends of both bride and groom unite in extending congratulations and the best of wishes.

The marriage of Kathleen Cary to Herbert Chapman occurred at St. Marys Episcopal church in Nebraska City Wednesday. The bride is quite well known in this city, being the daughter of Rev. Cary at one time rector of St. Thomas church. The groom is connected with the Kansas City railway in St. Joseph, Mo., where the newly married couple will be at home to their friends after May 1.

Completely Surprised.

L. J. Hitchcock, a prominent farmer and stock raiser living northwest of this city, was completely surprised by a number of his friends who called at his home Tuesday for the purpose of helping him to celebrate his sixty-sixth birthday. The surprise was planned by Mrs. Hitchcock and so cleverly was it arranged, the victim knew nothing thereof until the arrival of the guests. Mr. Hitchcock came to this county in 1860 and still owns the farm upon which he located at that time. It was a pleasure to his fellow pioneers to be present at this birthday anniversary and to thus testify to the esteem in which they hold their old friend and neighbor. For this occasion Mrs. Hitchcock had prepared a dinner that can hardly be described. After each had partaken thereof to the limit of his capacity, there still remained a feast fit for a king. Mrs. Hitchcock was assisted in serving by Mrs. Wm. Hoffnell and Mrs. Jacob Bloom. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock were taken in custody by Sheriff Hossack and D. C. Simmons who had been duly deputized, and were escorted to the parlor where each was presented with a fine rocking chair. The gathering listened to an address by John M. Holt of this city, who grew very eloquent in his references to the years of association and the ties that bound alike host and hostess and guest. The following is a list of those who were present and the year in which each came to this county: Wm. Kinsey, 1857; D. C. Simmons, 1870; A. D. Goolsby, 1855; John W. Holt, 1857; E. E. Ewing, 1860; W. H. Crook, 1855; Jesse Crook, 1855; S. B. Hoffnell, 1865; W. W. Abbey, 1866; W. R. Clark, 1858; W. E. Dorrington, 1857; John Hossack, 1859; Fred Harkendorf, 1854; Mrs. Fred Harkendorf, Wm. Hitchcock.

Missionary Convention.

The ninth annual convention of the First missionary district will be held in the Christian church in this city April 11, 12 and 13. The program is full of good things and will be participated in by prominent church workers from all over the district. Local committees have arranged for the entertainment of visitors and there will in all probability be a large attendance.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Lizzie Culp returned Monday from St. Joe.

Will Uhlig went to Humboldt on business Wednesday.

C. F. Reavis and wife went to Omaha Tuesday afternoon.

John Alunbaugh of Stella visited in this city over Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Wylie of Nebraska City has been visiting in this city during the week.

Mary Paxton is assisting with the work in the office of Charles Loree, clerk of the district court.

The firm of E. A. Maust & is no more, E. A. Maust having retired and turned the business over to his two sons, Irvir and Albert who will conduct the same under the firm name of Maust Bros.

The little daughter of Dennis McCarthy underwent a severe surgical operation Wednesday. The operation was successful and the patient is recovering.

The new turn-table has been installed in the Burlington yards and some new side track laid. It is rumored that a new time card is to go into effect about April 15th.

Wm. Maddox served on the election board in the second ward Tuesday. Not many men who are over eighty years of age would care to undertake this kind of work, but Maddox did it and did it well.

The work of rebuilding the German hall is progressing rapidly. The roof is nearly completed and in a short time the Arions and Deutsche Gessellschaft will have a finer hall than they had before the fire.

A man was coming down the street and paused to look at the window display at Alex Meyers hardware store. He took just one look, and then began to groan and drawing a flask of whiskey from his pocket, dashed it on the stone walk. He then called upon the bystanders to bear witness to the fact that he pledged himself never to take another drink of the stuff that would make a man see red, purple and green chickens walking around in the window of a hardware store. He was much relieved when he learned that the highly colored chickens formed a part of an incubator advertisement, which went to make up a very clever window display.
