

Correspondence

News of the County as Told by
Our Special Correspondents

Preston.

Julia Cronin went to Rulo Friday.

Anna Bush went to Rulo Sunday.

Mrs. Croff Weddle is on the sick list.

Peter Bolz lost a valuable horse Sunday.

H. P. Riegers children have the measles.

Grace Cronin of Rulo was in town Tuesday.

Harry Tucker was down from Wymore Sunday.

Bill Williams came over from Fortescue Sunday.

Tod Hoppe and wife drove to Falls City Sunday.

Will Anderson is quite sick at the Margrave ranch.

Bert Harpster was in Falls City Tuesday night.

John Casey and Emma Grant were in town Sunday.

Ida Pribbeno is working in her fathers store at Preston.

Mrs. Joe Rise and Grandma Bush are on the sick list.

Mrs. Wilson returned to Preston Sunday from Wymore.

C. C. Shelly and Gus Kaiser went to Falls City Saturday.

Leonard Simon was visiting at the home of E. Pyle Sunday.

Mrs. Moore and daughter returned to Wymore Wednesday.

A number from here saw Weary Willie Walker at the Gehling.

Mrs. Levi Thacker visited at the home of Levi Thacker Sunday.

Henry Roubidoux killed twenty ducks in two hours time Saturday.

Anna Neitzel who has been in the millinery house in St. Joe is home for a two weeks vacation.

Will Zoeller, who has been clerking for C. F. Pribbeno all winter, returned to the farm Monday.

Mrs. Oliver Bush was quite seriously burned about the face while lighting a fire with coal oil Saturday evening.

The city "dads" granted a franchise to the farmers to run a telephone line in this place where they will have a switch board.

Humboldt.

Mrs. Helen Sterns was in Tecumseh last week.

Art Smith and wife have again gone to housekeeping.

Henry Kleckner of Auburn was town on business this week.

Josephine Brunn left Monday for a short visit in St. Louis.

H. A. Scott and wife spent last week in St. Joe.

Mrs. Mary Hlavaty was a Dawson visitor Sunday.

Sheriff Hossack was in the city the latter part of last week.

Zoe Nims taught school for Agnes Moran a few days last week.

Mrs. Will Lonneke represented the maccabees at a convention in Omaha.

The firemen put on "Uncle Rube" at the Dawson opera house Saturday night.

Anna Colhapp and Master Segrist were guests of Tecumseh relatives last week.

Ena Cooper, who has been attending school at Lincoln, is home for this term.

L. C. Edwards was a Kansas City visitor Sunday morning, returning on the night train.

John Bash represented the local lodge at the state meeting of the Maccabees in Omaha this week.

Jennie Fellers is home from St. Joseph where she has been under treatment of a specialist for some time.

J. D. Shrauger and son Orin, left last week for an extended visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Shook and baby of Shubert were in the city part of the week, visiting her sister, Mrs. R. S. Unland.

J. Ford, the furniture man cut one of his hands quite seriously by falling with a lantern globe in his clutches.

Frank and Fred Butterfield were looking after business interests in the western part of the state last week.

W. H. Lonneke has returned from the Sycamore springs and has resumed his work at the Cooper & Linn mills.

Lizzie Bailey sustained a severe cut on her hand by tripping and falling upon an axe, the blade of which was upturned.

A barn and granary belonging to Mrs. Lester Wilson a short distance from town were destroyed by fire Sunday morning.

Mrs. Joy Bullis-McKie arrived Sunday from Mexico to visit her folks in this city. She will visit the St. Louis exposition before her return.

Rev. L. R. Smith of the local church, and Mrs. John Power were attending a meeting of the district presbytery at Fairbury last week.

Anna Schmelzel was married last week to Julius Brock a ranchman at Silver City, New Mexico and they will make that their future home. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Schmelzel of this city.

DOES YOUR HOUSE NEED PAINTING?

No matter where you have been buying, come to us this time and let us figure on the job. Let us show you our latest designs and newest combinations. We will gladly be of service to you in the selection of your Wall Paper if you desire. We can furnish you the Plate Chair or Photo Rail Room Moulding and Beading to match our Papers

We also carry a full line of Mixed Paints, Lead and Oils, Glass, Varnishes and Brushes.

White's Wall Paper Store

Falls City, Nebraska

The firemen at their regular meeting Tuesday evening recommended the reappointment of H. V. Dorland as chief and re-elected all of their old officers for another year.

Mesdames, R. L. Hoff, L. E. Shirley, E. M. Harding, Miss Ruby Idle and Charlton Hall were delegates from the local church in attendance upon the Christian church convention in Falls City the first of the week

Frank Horalek, a middled aged farmer living several miles southwest of the city, died on Sunday morning and was buried Tuesday, the funeral being held at the family home at 10 o'clock a. m. He leaves no family except a wife.

Two prominent business men became engaged in an argument Monday morning which required a physical test of powers to settle, and both paid small sums into the school treasury after they cooled off. No particular damage resulted.

Prof. Rudolph Barg, who has been for the past three years in the government service as chief musician of the Fourteenth regiment, now located in one of the Philippine provinces, writes that he will be home in June, his term of enlistment having expired.

D. W. Neill, who recently disposed of his drug store in this city, has arranged to enter into a partnership with C. W. Simon and embark in the real estate business in Pawnee City, where the latter has been engaged in the hardware business until quite recently.

The home and foreign missionary societies of the Methodist church had interesting conventions at the church in this city last week and the attendance was good in spite of the foul weather which prevailed. Delegates were present from all parts of the Nebraska City district, and Thursday and Friday nights good sized audiences listened to talks on Japan and China by Dr. Fulkerson, who for sixteen years has been engaged in missionary work in the orient.

Quite a number from this city drove over into Pawnee county Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Nemechek, who died from an attack of the measles. The family had but recently returned from Kansas and were intending to make their hame on the Fritz farm north of Table Rock.

Word has been received of the death in Ventura, California, of Mrs. Ellen Linn, an aunt of Messrs. C. M. and R. L. Linn and Mrs. George Unkefer of this city, the event occuring on Tuesday last. The deceased was at one time a resident of Nebraska, but has lived on the coast for over twenty-five years. For some time she has been an invalid.

The Tribune—only $1 a year

Staple and Fancy Groceries

FRUIT IN SEASON

Try Our 1775 Coffee

Highest Market Price Paid for Butter and Eggs.

First Door North of Post Office...

PHONE 14

A. G. HOPPOCK