It is not often that residents of Falls City have an opportunity to enjoy good boating, but the flood made such a thing possible the first of the week. The bottom land adjoining the Nemaha was transformed into a placid lake nearly a mile wide and boating therein in the moonlight proved a pleasant diversion. On Tuesday night Phil Hermes manned his private transport and took his family and some friends out for a cruise. They visited the principal seaports of this latitude and returned safely without encountering any Russian fleet or floating mines.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron of Wilton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlains Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by A. G. Wanner.
