Excessive indulgence in pop and cigarettes is always harmful even if the pop is omitted.

Some men might not be opposed to progressive euchre parties if their wives could always win.

The summer girl and the sweet graduate are beginning to worry at the slowness of the dressmaker.

At all events, Alfred Austin's "Jeanne D'Arc" poem shows that the poet laureate is capable of hard work.

If the Japanese progress as rapidly for another half century, they will be giving lessons in civilization themselves.

New York has a remarkable epidemic of measles. Here is something they can't keep the lid on. It will break out.

We trust that the late Herbert Spencer's hitherto unpublished letter on war will be translated into Russian and Japanese.

Probably the last thing eaten in besieged Port Arthur will be the time-honored sandwiches at the railway station restaurant.

Experts test a man's sanity by watching him at a game of baseball—on the theory, probably, that a man is crazy then, if ever.

The historians are beginning to write about Napoleon again. They never find it possible to let up for more than a few months at a time.

The emperor of Korea has a hundred wives, but never mind. There probably isn't one in the whole lot that any brisk American would have.

An ungrateful employe has been embezzling Sir Thomas Lipton's belongings. One thing nobody can steal from Sir Thomas is the America's cup.

St. Louis letter carriers complain that they are overworked. Did you write to your cousin that you were coming to visit him during the exposition?

There will be a scientific exhibition of thirty-three different kinds of mosquitos at the St. Louis fair, but that won't attract people from Jersey or Cape Cod.

Now that we know what Rev. George W. Brownback thinks of his new wife, it might be highly entertaining to be told after a time what she thinks of him.

It's queer how much more afraid a woman is that her dress may trail in the dust when she has on low shoes and gay stockings than when she has on regulation boots.

The republican state convention in Lincoln on the 18th put the foregoing ticket in nomination. Four of the candidates were nominated by acclamation and the remainder on the first ballot.

When the convention was called to order McXesson of Lancaster moved that Judge W. H. Robertson be elected permanent chairman. The motion was carried.

When preliminaries had been arranged and nominations begun, on request of Harrison of Hall the motion to nominate Governor Mickey by acclamation was expanded to include the nomination of E. G. McGilton for lieutenant governor, Peter Mortensen for state treasurer, and Norris Brown for attorney general. They were all so nominated.

A. Galusha was nominated for secretary of state, after which the ticket was completed as above indicated.

The platform, in part, follows:

"We, Nebraska republican delegates in-convention assembled, declare anew our faith in the principles enunciated in the last national platform. We congratulate the party upon its harmonious condition, that is a guaranty of its continued control in state and nation. Its record of great achievement is its pledge of future service.

"We have abiding confidence in our great president. His virile Americanism appeals to our admiration. His ideals of civic duty are an inspiration. His exaction from public officials of strict compliance with law and honor commands our highest respect. His punishment of public delinquents has our unqualified approval. His fearless enforcement of the statutes against legal combinations in restraint of trade and commerce without unnecessary alarm to capital has demonstrated the efficiency of republican law and the honest purpose of the republican party.

"We declare our belief in a protective tariff, a fundamental party doctrine that has largely contributed to the nation's growth and greatness. We adhere to the principle, and we refuse to become frightened at the schedules of a law the practical application of which, during the past seven years, has brought to the country such marvelous development and phenomenal prosperity.

"The efficacy of a gold standard established by the party is proved by the unquestioned soundness of all our currency and its sufficient abundance to meet all the demands of a vastly increased trade.

"We commend congress, and especially the Nebraska members who rendered such valuable service, for the passage of laws for a great system of irrigation for the reclamation of a large area in this state of fertile but unwatered soil, and for the better settlement of a vast section by means of more liberal homestead privileges.

"In the language of President Roosevelt, we believe that the door of hope and of opportunity should be open to every worthy and deserving American citizen without distinction of race, color or religion.

"In response to a public necessity and the party's pledge, the legislature has enacted a new revenue law. It was framed to distribute the public burden with exact and even justice. We pledge the party to a correction of such inequalities as may be disclosed and to the assessment of all property, corporate and private, at its full value according to law, so that all property shall have its equal share of taxation. We favor the raising only of such revenue as is needed to meet current expenses of the state government under the most rigid economy and for a gradual extinguishment of the public debt.

"Upon this record and these principles we invite the support of persons of all parties in the coming campaign."

RISK ASSUMED BY EMPLOYE.

Federal Supreme Court Broadly Interprets the Fellow Servant Law.

WASHINGTON. — The supreme court of the United States laid down the principle that a telegraph operator for a railroad company and a fireman on a railroad engine are "fellow servants," and that the negligence of the former, causing the death of the latter in the operation of trains, was a risk the fireman assumed and was not a ground for damages against the railroad company.

The case was that of Alline A. Dixon against the Northern Pacific Railroad company for damages for the death of her husband, C. A. Dixon, a fireman on the road, killed in a collision caused by the negligence of a telegraph operator.

Great Britain Will Fight It Out.

LONDON.—Lord Hardwicke, under secretary for war, replying to Lord Spencer (the liberal leader) in the House of Lords said Great Britain was now at war with Thibet and until it had by force of arms vindicated its position, he did not think the government ought to be called on to give a definite pledge as to what form of settlement would follow the conclusion of hostilities. Lord Tweedmouth (liberal) charged the government with willfully sending out a mission and knowing the consequences.

Krupp Works Busy.

BERLIN.—A special dispatch from Essen says the Japanese-Russian war causes great activity in the Krupp works in the construction of both cannon and shipbuilding materials. Large orders for field guns have been received.

Senator Quay Recovering.

MORGANZA, Pa.—For the first time this week Senator M. S. Quay left his room at his brother's home at Morganza and went down stairs. His condition was believed to be greatly improved. The senator spent an unusually restful night and told his physician that he wanted to get out of his room. He was assisted down stairs and remained in the lower portion of the house an hour or more.

TIRED, SUFFERING WOMEN.

Women run down and endure daily tortures through neglecting the kidneys. Kidney backache makes housework a burden; rest is impossible; sleep fitful; appetite gives out and you are tired all the time. Can't be well until the kidneys are well.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills, which have restored thousands of suffering women to health and vigor.

Mrs. William Wallace, of 18 Capitol St., Concord, N. H., says: "I was in the early stages of Bright's Disease, and were it not for Doan's Kidney Pills, I would not be living to-day. Pain in the back was so intense that at night I had to get out of bed until the paroxysm of pain passed away. I was languid and tired and hadn't the strength to lift a kettle of water. I could not work, but a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me, and two boxes absolutely cured me."
