

Correspondence

News of the County as Told by Our Special Correspondents

Preston.

Mrs. Rose Shelly is on the sick list.

L. A. Kinsey of Verdon was in town Friday.

A. E. Heacock is having his elevator shingled.

Fred Eatough of St. Joe is visiting friends here.

John Benschoter and family were in town Thursday.

Mrs. John Hossack came down from Falls City Tuesday.

Mrs. J. C. Schneider of Pawnee is visiting relatives here.

Ed. Douwty went to Verdon Thursday, returning Friday.

Jennie Wattyne and Grace Cronin of Rulo were in town Thursday.

Prof. Larabee of Rulo will teach the Preston school next term.

The central telephone office has been moved into Reigers store.

Mrs. Jane Sinclair of Kidderville, Kan., is visiting relatives here.

A. E. Heacock and W. A. Margrave shipped stock to St. Joe Thursday.

Mrs. Kate Deuchler left Tuesday for Sterling to visit her daughter.

Frank Schneider left Friday for Pawnee where he went to help his brother with his crop.

A number from here attended the band concert and ice cream social at Reserve Saturday night.

The ice cream social given by the Union Sunday school was a success and they realized $12 for the school.

A number of colored people pitched a tent in town Wednesday and gave a minstrel show at night, which was good.

Mrs. Margery Grant moved her household goods to Falls City Saturday where she will make her home in the future.

F. W. Schroeder left Friday for Lincoln where he went to buy a stock of harness goods. He will locate at Padonia, Kas.

Humboldt.

Fred Riechers of Falls City has been here this week visiting relatives.

E. W. Elwell of Sterling was in the city on business a portion of the week.

Lela Patterson has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Oklahoma.

Ella Slade of Tecumseh has been in the city this week visiting the Rice family.

Mrs. Emma Segrist and Josephine Bruun went to St. Joseph Monday to do some shopping.

Quite a number from this city went to Falls City Tuesday to attend the county Sunday School convention.

Mrs. Wm. Bean has returned from an extended visit with friends in Kansas City and St. Joseph.

Quite a number of the children were recently christened into the Presbyterian church by Rev. W. Smith.

Mrs. Guy Reid came down from Havelock Sunday and is spending the week with friends and relatives here.

Nettie and Myrtle Steinmeyer of Clatonia are visiting their relatives, the Upland and Davis family in this city.

Lida Crawford came down from Lincoln to attend the marriage of her cousin Bertha Cope to Roy Bain. She returned Friday.

Mrs. Ed. Huston and family were over from Brock a day or two recently, guests of the family of their former neighbor, C. H. Wilson.

Capt. Bridgeford of Aledo, Ill., arrived here to attend the funeral of his granddaughter, Grace Harding last Friday. He will remain a few weeks for a visit with the family.

J. W. Barley with his wife and son were guests of Rev. Calvert and family over last Sabbath. They were old neighbors from Brock.

Ed. Hughes was sufficiently recovered from the effects of his broken limb that he was removed last Sunday to the home of his parents, north of town.

Will Bobst, who works for the Gage Bros.' millinery house of Chicago arrived here Sunday for a two weeks visit with his parents. He was accompanied by two gentlemen friends and all are spending their summer vacation.

Mrs. V. A. Boaz, whose home is in Dunning, stopped off here this week for a visit with her parents, Tom Brown and wife. She was just returning from an extended sojourn in Arkansas.

Friends in this city have received announcement of the coming marriage of Willie Speiser, a former Humboldt young man, to a lady in Lincoln. The couple will reside in Fremont.

Bertha Frank will leave in the near future for Detroit where she goes as a delegate from this district to the international Baptist Young People's Union. She will be absent about three weeks, visiting the World's Fair on the way home.

Roy Bain a young business man

COAL AND WOOD	FLOUR FEED AND SALT	CASH FOR EGGS
	I have just received a car of salt which I can furnish you in lump rock, crushed fine rock salt 100 lb. in sack, No. 1 rock salt for ice cream, No. 1 Michigan barrel salt, No. 1 Michigan sack salt 70 lb. in sack just the thing for house use.
	Also received a car of Illinois washed nut coal, just the thing for cook stove or range, $6.00 a ton delivered, satisfaction guaranteed. I can deliver you flour, feed, grain, hay and straw, wood for heating and cook stove, on short notice. I pay cash for butter eggs and poultry, rubber, copper, brass, zinc and old iron.
O. P. HECK

of Table Rock, was united in marriage on last Wednesday to Bertha Cope of this city, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Smith in the company of about fifty relatives and immediate friends. The couple left the same evening for a few days stay in Lincoln, after which they will go to house keeping in Table Rock.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Stella Watts and Walter Bruun, popular young people of this city, which event will occur at the home of the bride on Wednesday evening June 29.

A fine of $10 and costs was imposed upon young Joe Carsh on the charge of torturing an animal which complaint was made by J. F. Walsh. This is the last of the case begun a week or two since when Mr. Walsh slapped young Carsh for the deed and was assessed a small fine.

The Odd Fellow's lodge observed their annual memorial day last Sunday afternoon by gathering at the Presbyterian church and listening to some special music and an address by J. A. Hudelson of Lincoln. They then marched to the cemetery in a body and decorated the graves of their departed brothers.

It was with general regret that the news of Grace Hardings death was received last Thursday. The young lady had been in ill health for two or three years and much of that time had been spent in traveling in the mountains and and on the coast but with only the result perhaps of prolonging life a short time. Miss Harding was born on a farm near town and has grown to young womanhood among our people, being most highly respected by all her acquaintances. She leaves to mourn beside innumerable friends her parents, Col. Harding and wife, one sister and one brother. Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Calvert and was attended by a large crowd.

Lizzie Nutzman of Avoca is visiting her uncle and aunt, Wm. Tjaden and wife, north of town. She has recently graduated from the musical conservatory at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and will perhaps remain here to teach.

Mrs. Edna Cooper left Thursday for a month's visit in Fort Morgan and Denver, Colo.

Cheap Rates to St. Louis.

Tickets to St. Louis and return via Burlington Route, Good fifteen days, $12.20. Good sixty days, $13.55. Good all summer, $16.25.

For full information about train service and other details see the ticket agent.

The St. Louis exposition—the greatest show the world has ever seen—is now complete and in harmonious operation, and it will be a lifetime's regret if you fail to see it. 22-6

Rates to Rosebud.

The Missouri Pacific will make rates to Rosebud as follows: Bonsteel and Fairfax, round trip, $13.40.

Yankton, round trip, $10.20. Chamberlain, round trip, $15.95.

Tickets on sale July 1 to 22 inclusive, with final return limit August 31st.

Ice Cream.

We believe that the people demand a better grade of machine made ice cream and a wider variety of kinds and flavor. We have equipped our establishment to meet this demand.—D.W. Sowles.

THE BEST IS NONE TOO GOOD

A PRETTY RESIDENCE

LOSES HALF ITS ATTRACTIVENESS IF IT IS NOT PROPERLY PAINTED. IT IS NOT PROPERLY PAINTED UNLESS GOOD PAINT IS APPLIED BY SKILLED WORKMEN. THAT'S OUR WAY OF DOING BUSINESS. FOR PARTICULARS JUST

DROP US A CARD

BAXTER & COMPANY

THE DECORATORS