

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

King's for Hammocks.

Mr. Kleckner of Rulo was a business visitor here Monday.

Wm Boyd of Salem was transacting business in town Monday.

John Oswald and wife spent Monday and Tuesday at the Missouri Lakes.

Dr. Selinger's topics at the Baptist church: 10:45 a. m., "The Lord's City." Eight p. m., "The Place of Christ in the United States." All are invited.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will give a ten cent tea at the residence of Dr. Reneker on Thursday, July 7, from 5:30 to 8 o'clock p. m. All are invited.

On last Thursday afternoon the Junior C. E. and the Cradle Roll of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Ben Poteet. A large attendance was reported and enjoyed a good time.

Mrs. Chas. Shaffer, daughter of George Peck and wife is lying dangerously ill at her home in Morrill, Kansas. The many friends of Mrs. Shaffer and family earnestly hope that she will ultimately recover.

What is prettier than a pretty little girl? When we saw the little girls of Geo. Dietsch and Fred Brecht walking down the street the other day, we thought the only thing prettier than a pretty little girl was two pretty little girls.

Jess Shrimpton of Salem, upon whom Dr. Houston performed an operation for appendicitis last week, is reported as convalescing. He has been very sick and had the operation been postponed a few hours longer he would undoubtedly have died.

Richardson county is certainly to be congratulated upon its efficient office holders. A gentleman remarked to a reporter a few days ago, that he had never seen a more systematic and accommodating office than that of Wm. Rieger's, the register of deeds.

The Presbyterian fishing party returned Friday from a two days outing at the Missouri Lakes. Thursday was an ideal day and all enjoyed the sport. Several snap shots were taken but we wont vouch for the subjects since they were across the line. An unusual thing happened Friday—it rained and as a result some of the party returned on the train, while the rest came home via the hack route. All report a good time. Those of the party were Nora Poteet, Florence Boose, Lillian Oswald, Beulah Greenwald, Clara Boose, Elizabeth Miller, Mabel Greenwald and Thomas Davies, Fred Wylie, Guy Wahl, Carl Miller and Frank Boose.

King's for croquet sets.

Al Carraway and wife are visiting with Marion Varner and incidentally with Joseph Varner and wife.

On next Sunday morning and evening there will be preaching in the Presbyterian church, and there will be regular services each succeeding Sabbath thereafter. You are invited to all these services.—S. W. Griffin, pastor.

At the early services St. Agnes Guild will make their corporate communion. At the evening service the Modern Woodmen will attend in a body. Strangers welcome to all services.—Henry B. Smith Rector.

The Rev. Pugeon delivered a very interesting discourse last Sunday evening, at the Christian church, using for his subject—"What Think Ye Of Christ?" His word pictures of the life, sufferings, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, were very masterful. The audience was a very large one, every seat in the large auditorium being taken long before the hour appointed for service. That the efforts of the young man had the desired effect on the people, was evinced at the close of the service by the many words of praise extended to him by the people. He will hold services next Sunday at the usual hours and you are cordially invited to attend. Subject next Sunday night will be—"What Is Religion?"

Modern Woodmen.

Sunday, July 3rd, being Modern Woodmen of America memorial day, you are requested to meet at the hall at 10 o'clock and go Steele cemetery and decorate the graves of departed neighbors. Meet again at 7:30 and march to the Episcopal church where Neighbor Henry B. Smith will conduct appropriate memorial services. Bring the ladies and flowers. All those having friends sleeping on the hill are invited to join with us.

Notice.

After July 3rd, office hours at the post office on Sundays will be from 9 to 10 a. m. instead of 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Auburn Chautauqua.

The Auburn Chautauqua will be held this year from August 13 to 21 inclusive. This year the Chautauqua association is organized as an incorporated stock company, composed of the leading and professional business men of the city. This gives the association a financial backing equal to any, and it enables them to engage the best entertainers in the country. The program gives a long list of noted entertainers that will be present during the week.

Send to the secretary, W. B. Harman, Auburn, Nebraska, for catalogue and other information.

Missouri Pacific.

The Missouri Pacific will run a special train to Hiawatha and return July 4th on account of big celebration and ball game. Train leaves here at 9 a. m., returning at p. m., or 1:50 a. m. 60 cents for the round trip.—J. B. Varner, Agent.

Fourth of July Rates.

Round trip tickets at very low rates, via Burlington Route, on sale July 2, 3 and 4. Return limit July 5. Minimum rate 25 cts. Ask the agent.

Safeguard the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by A. G. Wanner.

Problem in Millinery.

"Why, oh, why," remarked the observer of events and things, "will a woman smile with delight when she sees a hat in a milliner's window and frown when she sees the same hat on her neighbor's head?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Makes Eye Quick.

There is no athletic game that has so increased in popularity in so short a space of time as hand ball. Handball is a particularly healthful and exhilarating sport. It gets into play all the big muscles of the body and imparts quickness to the eye.
