Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

First Daguerreotype in America.

It is perhaps not generally known that the earliest practical information as to Daguerre's process of catching and holding the figure of his camera obscure came to America through Prof. S. F. B. Morse. In a letter to a friend in America, to be quoted in Abraham Ogardus' "The Lost Art of Daguerreotype" in the May Century, Prof. Morse tells of constructing the first daguerreotype apparatus made in the United States from drawings furnished by Daguerre. "My first effort," Prof. Morse writes, "was on a small plate of silvered copper procured at a hardware store, and, defective as the plate was, I obtained a good representation of the Church of the Messiah, then on Broadway, from a back window of the New York City university. This I believe to have been the first daguerreotype made in America."

A Society Leader's Snake.

Lady Eleanor Wickham, the London society leader, has a craze for wearing little grass snakes for bracelets. She entices the reptiles to twine themselves around her wrist, then she plunges her hands and arms into icy cold water for a few moments, with the result that the serpents become torpid and remain in a more or less comatose state for some hours. Thus she is able to preside at afternoon tea with her arms covered with living snake bracelets. She is possessed of a collection of Indian and other toads.

TWO STEPS

The Last One Helps the First.

A sick coffee drinker must take two steps to be rid of his troubles and get strong and well again.

The first step is to cut off coffee absolutely.

That removes the destroying element. The next step is to take liquid food (and that is Postum Food Coffee) that has in it the elements nature requires to change the blood corpuscles from pale pink or white to rich red, and good red blood builds good strong and healthy cells in place of the broken down cells destroyed by coffee. With well boiled Postum Food Coffee to shift to, both these steps are easy and pleasant. The experience of a Georgian proves how important both are.

"From 1872 to the year 1900 my wife and I had both been afflicted with sick or nervous headache and at times we suffered untold agony. We were coffee drinkers and did not know how to get away from it for the habit is hard to quit.

"But in 1900 I read of a case similar to ours where Postum Coffee was used in place of the old coffee and a complete cure resulted, so I concluded to get some and try it.

"The result was, after three days' use of Postum in place of the coffee I never had a symptom of the old trouble and in five months I had gained from 145 pounds to 163 pounds.

"My friends asked me almost daily what wrought the change. My answer always is, leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place.

"We have many friends who have been benefited by Postum.

"As to whether or not I have stated the facts truthfully I refer you to the Bank of Carrollton or any business firm in that city where I have lived for many years and am well known." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason."

The newspaper correspondents in the field with the Japanese army have submitted a round-robin protest to the staff, and in all probability the staff knows precisely what to do with it.

Two New York amusement managers have just signed a contract with Edouard de Reszke for a tour of sixty concerts in this country next season, just as if they had never heard of Patti.

According to the pure food authorities, much of the raspberry jam of commerce is composed of syrup of apple cores, aniline dye and hayseed. It is almost as base a deceiver as maple syrup.

The directors of the Yale library announce that they have a fragment of a lost tragedy by Aeschylus or Sophocles in a package of papyrus fragments lately found in Egypt. More trouble for the students.

An esteemed contemporary raises the question of how to distinguish between poison ivy and Virginia creeper. One sure way is to rub the face and hands thoroughly with the suspect and note results.

Perhaps in the scientific assertion that a man's beard is the home and haunt of countless harmful microbes there is some comfort for the youth who is trying desperately to raise a small mustache and can't.

According to a London newspaper "nothing remains for Kuropatkin but to stake his all upon one last wild fling of the iron dice." Previous to writing this the author must have taken one last wild fling at a dope bottle.

When the liberty bell was in Minneapolis the public schools were dismissed and the Rapid Transit company gave each of the 35,000 children a free ride to view the bell and return. That was better than any lesson in history that the children may have missed.

We read with delight that Alfred Austin anonymously sent a one-act play to a London theater-manager a while ago which the manager thought was capital and which he has accepted. It's such a pleasure to learn that Alfred can write something.

"Hereafter," says a contemporary, "the average man will examine the life rafts and life preservers before he trusts himself on an excursion steamer." Probably not. The careful man may do so, but the average man will continue to take things for granted.

Here are some of the most interesting statistics of the Princeton graduating class: The average age of graduates is 22 years and six months, the weight is 143 pounds and the height 5 feet 10 inches. The preferable style of beauty is the brunette and the favorite name is Helen. Helen must have brown hair and blue eyes. In the entire class 185 smoke, and only fifty-three began smoking in college. The seniors boast of kissing 151 girls and retaining 614 girl correspondents. Evidently most of them have obeyed the injunction: "Never tell."

A Pennsylvania Enoch Arden who returned a few days ago proceeded to punch the head of the gentleman who had married into his family in the meantime, while the lady in the case lent valuable assistance with the rolling pin. We can account for her part in the wind-up only on the theory that she wished to avoid the appearance of adding insult to injury.

Reindeer teams now carry the mails from Kotzebue to Point Barrow, in Alaska. It must seem like Christmas every day to the little Alaskans.

SPIDER KILLED A FISH.

Event Shows Amazing Strength of Small Insect.

"The amazing strength of spiders is shown in a number of well authenticated instances," said a biologist of the University of Pennsylvania. "Thus we have an instance of a half-inch spider catching a two-inch fish.

"The spider weighed 14 grains. It was of the ground, or wolf, family. A British scientist came upon it struggling with the fish on the edge of a little pool. Its claws were buried in the fish's tail—it had the tail out of the water—but the head still remained underneath. Like a fiend the spider struggled to pull the fish up on the bank, and the fish struggled desperately to draw the spider into the pool.

"For ten minutes the scientist watched this silent and deadly fight. Then he hurried away, scientist like, for a bottle to catch the fighters in. He was gone about half an hour, and on his return the end had come. The fish was dead and the spider was slowly dragging it away."

Martin Luther Bible.

This is the title page of perhaps the oldest Martin Luther bible in America, as it bears the date of the first edition, 1532. Though the leaves are discolored at the edges and the binding is broken, the printing is still clear and strong.

A Castle with an Inducement.

Very curious is a bargain connected with the purchase of a chateau, which is advertised for sale. The property is situated about three-quarters of an hour's journey by rail from Paris and is known as the Maison de l'Amiral.

The place, which includes gardens and a park, is described as being of historical interest, and the price asked is 40,000 francs. But now comes the particularly interesting feature. It is added that there will be a special agreement in case of "the discovery of the treasure of James II of Scotland." So, as would appear, besides the acquisition of the "petit castel historique," the buyer has a chance of finding something decidedly to his advantage one of these days. But the seller's experience would not seem to have been quite so happy, at least with regard to the treasure.—Paris Correspondence London News.

Deepest Hole in the Earth.

The deepest hole in the earth ever dug is in the coal fields of Paruschowitz, Upper Silesia. It extends to a depth of 6,570 feet, or almost a mile and a quarter.

Hats in Elevators.

Men in New York are not called "cads," "bad-mannered" nor "horrid things," if they do not remove their hats when riding in elevator cars with women. The question of removing the hat has been settled there for good. In office buildings stores and other public places men do not remove their hats as a rule. Once awhile a man does, but he has all the earmarks of being from some other city than the metropolis. In elevator cars or hotels, if a man removes his hat when women are present he doesn't do it because it is the custom. Women of New York do not expect men to remove their hats because of their presence any more than it would be expected of them in street cars.

Depew's Parting of the Ways.

Senator Depew states that when he was 20 years old he was elected secretary of state, after he had served in the assembly, and that he was offered the position of minister to Japan with a salary of $9,000 a year and an equal amount to fit him out, but he realized that it was the parting of the ways for him, and he accepted a salary of $2,000 a year from Mr. Vanderbilt as attorney for the Harlem railroad.

It Pays to Read Newspapers.

Cox, Wis., July 4.—Frank M. Russell of this place, had Kidney Disease so bad that he could not walk. He tried Doctors' treatment and many different remedies, but was getting worse. He was very low.

He read in a newspaper how Dodd's Kidney Pills were curing cases of Kidney Trouble, Bright's Disease, and Rheumatism, and thought he would try them. He took two boxes, and now he is quite well. He says:

"I can now work all day, and not feel tired. Before using Dodd's Kidney Pills, I couldn't walk across the floor."

Mr. Russell's is the most wonderful case ever known in Chippewa County. This new remedy—Dodd's Kidney Pills—is making some miraculous cures in Wisconsin.
