Baby's Troubles.

By REV. POUGEON.

Just a little brown haired darling,
With two laughing light blue eyes;
And with rippling ringing laughter,
Like sweet music from the skies.
On my knee she soon is seated,
Holding tight her doll in hand
Hugging me, she gently whispered—
"Bestest papa in the land."

Down she climbs, away she scampers,
For she sees her pussy cat;
Shows her doll and asks the question—
"Pussy, what you fink of zat?"
Pussy purrs, and passes by her,
Tears start coursing down her cheek;
Then she said, "I'm mad at Pussy
Tause she didn't even speak."

Once again she hastens to me,
In my lap does quickly climb;
But she's not the laughing darling
That she was the other time.
For her heart is nearly broken,
"Pussy is n't very kind."
Then I kiss her and I whisper—
"Go to sleep love, never mind."

"Does you love my 'tittle dolly?"
And I tell her that I do.
Now she nestles closer to me,
Whispers softly—"I loves you."
Then she hands to me her dolly;
Everything is now all right;
And she whispers—"Ise so seepy,
Tiss your baby dirl dood night."

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by A. G. Wanner.
