The Salem Chautauqua, Ringling Brothers circus and minor amusements have been called off because of inclement weather. The lodge picnic will be pulled off if it has to be done in a boat. Everybody come prepared for the time of your life.

The failure of Ringling Brothers circus to show here was a cruel disappointment to many people, some of whom had driven a great distance to attend. However, it resulted in a large sum of money being left with our merchants, and none being taken out. It was estimated that about three thousand dollars in headaches were accumulated during the day.

If there be such a thing as laying up treasures in the hereafter there are a number of Falls City ladies who will be very wealthy in the dawning of the morning. We do not believe that there has been a case of sickness or distress in Falls City for years that Mrs. L. C. Mauger, Mrs. John Holt and many others that we can call to mind have not been present ministering to the wants of the afflicted.

There were a number of hold-ups at the trains the night of the circus. A Hebrew traveling man was relieved of about ninety dollars and the way the dead languages were hurled in that vicinity was a caution. The press agent of the circus had his pockets picked of all he had. It was thought advisable for the agent to ship out all of the currency on hand. Mr. Varner doubted the advisability of carrying a sack full of silver through the crowd to the express car, but after securing Joe Culp with a club to guard him, Joe made the trip safely and landed the money in the hands of the express messenger.

This hold up gang has been following the circus for a week. Ringling wired for some Pinkertons to meet the circus at Leavenworth and assist in rounding the light fingered gentry up and landing them in jail.

Jacob Johnston of Superior, father of the Messrs. Johnston who conduct the dry goods emporium, is visiting with his sons for a few days. Mr. Johnston is chairman of the finance committee of the A. O. U. W. and is one of the most prominent lodge men in the state. He is naturally very well pleased with Falls City and with the immense business his sons have built up.

The Sphinx club has not only worked up a lecture course but is now considering the advisability of organizing a chautauqua. This club is composed of the leading young men of Falls City. It is run along the right lines and if they undertake to organize a chautauqua it will be a success.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by A. G. Wanner.
