D. P. Smith, president of the Falls City Business college attended the Old Settlers picnic between Dawson and Humboldt yesterday. He went up in the interest of the college which by the way is one of the best business colleges in the state, and now that it has moved into its new home in the Wahl building it also has as nice a home as any of them. The president, Mr. Smith is a thorough instructor and any one expecting to go to college will find it to their advantage to attend this school, as the rates are much lower than other colleges ask for the same courses of study.

The Falls City Tribune is preaching some mighty good doctrine concerning the telephone question, and the people of that county evidently appreciate it, "Equality before the law" is Nebraska's motto, and it should not be forgotten.—Beatrice Express.

Married.

At the home of Joseph Culp, corner of Ninth and Lane streets, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock Miss Martha W. Culp was united by the ties of matrimony to Mr. Charles Dockhorn.

Miss Culp is one of the charming daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Culp and a young lady well known to the people of this town; Mr. Dockhorn is one of the promising young business men of Oskaloosa, Iowa, and we speak for them the hopes of a long and prosperous voyage on the sea up on which they have launched their crafts.

The wedding was a simple home wedding, only the immediate relatives being present.

The young couple left Monday morning for Oskaloosa, where Mr. Dockhorn is in the jewelry business, which place will be their home.

They carry with them the best wishes of a host of relatives and friends.

The ceremony was preformed by Rev. Pugeon, pastor of the Christian church.

Died.

Morris Dale Lemmon, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lemmon, died August 29th of cholera infantum, age two years, one month and fourteen days. The funeral services were held at the home Tuesday, August 30th and were conducted by Rev. Elmer Ward Cole.

There is nothing in all of God's great world so beautiful as a little child. There is nothing more sad than to see a little face grow strange with death.

Little Morris was a promising boy. Great hopes were in him.

His father and mother had day dreams of his future such as fathers and mothers have had from the beginning. But in the "beautiful island of somewhere" there was need of him and God's finger touched him and he slept.

We have no words of sufficient potency to reach the bereaved ones. The vast crowd of friends that congregated at the home on Tuesday was silent. But in their grief the parents and brothers and sisters of the little boy who was are not entirely alone. This community sympathizes with them and adds its tears to theirs at the separation believing that some day we shall understand.

Harnack's Band.

The people who attended the Fraternal Picnic could not help being impressed by the music of the Military Band, under the direction of Prof. Harnack.

Professor and his men was a success, and deserved the highest possible display of appreciation.

Prof. Harnack is a man untiring in his efforts to make everything he undertakes a success, and there is no reason in the world why he should not be a success. He is very affable and to sum him up in a nutshell we have but to say that he is a royal, chivalrous fellow.

Let the people and business men especially, of Falls City, rally around the band boys and their director, tender them every manner of support possible and see what a wonderful success the Falls City Military Band, under the directorship of Prof. Harnack will be.

No aggregation in Falls City is as deserving of support, praise and hearty good will, as the band.

Sabbath School Picnic.

The Sabbath School of the Christian church spent Tuesday at Hinton's park.

It was an ideal day and all enjoyed an ideal outing. Foot-racing was the principal feature.

Dr. Rush and Rev. Pugeon were the contestants in the first race, the Reverend reaching the goal first.

Mmes. Nicholson, Norris and Paxton entered the second race, the former coming off the grounds victor.

Base-ball, rope-jumping and various other games took up the greater part of the day, while the eatables received a goodly portion of interest.

W. A. Cottrell of Concordia, Kansas was a Falls City visitor the first of the week.
