

The Week's Happenings In the Realms of Society

The Ladies Kensington club of the Presbyterian church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jennings.

The Christian Endeavor of the Christian church were entertained by Misses Jennie and Pearl Prater Tuesday evening. Light refreshments added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Miss Minnie Neff entertained a small party of friends last Friday evening in honor of Jesse and Linn Long of Phoenix, Arizona. Music, games and dainty refreshments contributed to a delightful evening for the young people.

Mrs. Ella Nickelson entertained her Sunday school class at her home Friday evening. About thirty little girls were present and the evening was spent in playing games of various kinds. After lunch the little girls returned home reporting a lovely time.

Mrs. J. Lore was the victim of a surprise party Monday evening at her home on 7th and Fulton streets. About twenty of her friends were present and spent a most enjoyable evening. Toothsome refreshments were served and the guests departed at a late hour.

Miss Pearl Hanna entertained her scholars at the home of J. H. Pecht on Tuesday evening. The lawn was decorated with Chinese lanterns and received a good share of attention during the evening. Various games were indulged in but the center of attraction was a witch who interested the guests with ghost stories. Refreshments were served during the evening and all reported a pleasant time.

The ladies of the Episcopal church gave a Hallowe'en party at Ryan's Hall on Monday eve. The hall was elaborately decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemum. Supper was served during the evening, and dancing headed the program until the early morning. The ladies netted a neat little sum for their efforts.

Mrs. Henry King entertained the gentlemen who are responsible for the manufacture and sale of the Ki-Ho-Ma remedies at six o'clock dinner Friday evening. Those in attendance were Messrs. Maddox of Lincoln, Mewhor of Iowa, Houston, Gist and King of this city. It was a jolly little crowd and Mr. and Mrs. King's bounteous hospitality was enjoyed by all.

The young people of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a novel party at the home of Mr. Goheen south of town. A hay rack with gleaming jack o'lanterns on each corner, conveyed the guests to Mr. Goheen's residence and was also the means of their arrival at home "so early in the morning." The spacious lawn was lit up with lanterns of all sizes and shapes, the Chinese being the most prominent, while the house was profusely decorated with leaves, palms and cut flowers. Wierd and uncanny hallowe'en jokes were played to test the courage of those present. Appropriate refreshments were served and all spent a most delightful evening with Mr. and Mrs. Goheen.

Frank McClure Chaffee appeared at the Gehling theatre Saturday evening under the auspices of the Sphinx club. After a happy introduction by George Hall Mr. Chaffee preceded to entertain his large audience in a highly satisfactory manner. While he does not pretend to be a heavy philosopher nor a flowery orator, Mr. Chaffee deems it sufficient to make his audience indulge in honest thinking. His subject "The Goblins of our Grandfathers" furnished opportunity for many apt illustrations and well termed truths. This was the first of a series of lectures for the winter and The Tribune trusts the Sphinx boys will be accorded unqualified success in their undertaking.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Long, Oct. 30 there occurred a very pleasant reunion of the Long family. Those present were Mrs. E. B. Stephens of this city an aunt to the children, C. C. Long of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Shildneck and three sons of Salem, L. L. Long of Patagonia, Ariz., J. C. Long of Red Rock, Ariz., Howard and Fred of this city. A nice dinner was served and all departed hoping to meet soon again. They not having been all together before in ten years. X

The Heart and Hand club entertained about thirty young people at the home of Grace Hoppe on last Monday evening. In the early part of the evening they enjoyed a hay rack ride. The remainder of the evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. Dainty refreshments were served and all departed at a late hour thanking the club girls for their evenings entertainment.

Falls City, Nebraska

Prof. Tobie entertained the teachers of the Falls City schools Monday evening at his home in the western part of this city. Various hallowe'en pranks were indulged in after which a good old fashioned Hallowe'en luncheon was served. The guests departed in the wee small hours, all voting Mr. and Mrs. Tobie most delightful entertainers.
