Market Letter.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Monday, Nov. 21, 1904.—The market last week was good on everything except corn fed steers. They started very well Monday, but lost 15 to 25 cents by the end of the week. The quality was only medium, with the exception of a single load, which sold at $6.10 Tuesday. Outside of this nearly all the corn fed steers sold at $4.50 to $5.50. Grass steers held up steady, selling at $3.50 to $4.75. The high price of cows and heifers at the close of previous week was nearly maintained all of last week except just at the end, when packers showed great indifference. Most sales of she stuff were at $2.50 to $3.75. Veals held steady, stock calves a little lower. Stockers and feeders met a good demand, and suffered no loss. Prices ranged from $2.75 to $3.75 largely, and the yards were well cleaned up at the end of the week. The supply this morning is 17,000 cattle here, with liberal runs elsewhere and the market is steady to 10 cents lower on killing cattle, in view of the Thanksgiving holiday this week, but stockers and feeders are nearly steady today.

The hog market is being beat down gradually, but slower here than at other markets. The week closed with a top of $4.80 here and market is 5 cents lower today. Packers drove are costing 5 to 15 cents more here than at the other markets.

Prices for sheep and lambs were strong all last week. The market is ten cents higher today. Western fed yearlings 98 lbs sold at $5.00 today. Good to choice lambs brought $5.85 last week, ewes $4.40, wethers $4.60. Thin stuff for the county is being taken at strong prices, $3.60 to $4.00 for wethers and yearlings, $4.00 to $4.66 for lambs. Not many stock ewes are coming.

George Dawson of Dawson, Nebraska had in a car of cattle Tuesday of last week.

Echoes From the Campaign

"Those republicans in Richardson County who fought the legislative ticket in order to spite Burkett, have incurred the enmity of loyal republicans and all to no purpose. Mr. Burkett will be United States senator just the same. It takes a whole lot of little 2 x 4 political renegades to hurt any 10 x 12 man."—Humboldt Enterprise.

"If Frank Reavis stays in politics long enough there will be no fortune for the heirs of Joe Miles to quarrel about."—Humboldt Enterprise.

May the Good Lord Deliver Us.

"Richardson County has a 'democratic ring' much like Gage County. Its members were once democrats, they became republicans to get office, they 'bolt' the republican ticket each year unless some of the 'ring' members are on the ticket, and they can put up a dirtier campaign than any other set of men in Nebraska except their brothers in Gage County."—Beatrice Express.

Died.

Charles E. Williamson of Humboldt received word Saturday of the death of his father, William Williamson sr., which occurred at Ritzville, Washington a few days ago. The deceased was among the pioneers of southeastern Nebraska but left a couple of years ago with his wife for the Pacific coast, where it was thought conditions would improve his health. The move was in vain, however as he failed steadily until the end came. He was well along in the seventies at the time of his death, and leaves 8 living children, all grown. Two F. M. and C. E. are residents of Humboldt, one daughter, Mrs. James Robertson lives at Elwood, and the five remaining are residents of Washington and Oregon.

Arrested for Selling Liquor

Last Saturday afternoon City Marshall Todd of Humboldt, arrested Wm. Hicks of that place for selling liquor without license. He entered a plea of not guilty and was placed under $200 bonds to appear for hearing today. About three gallons of whisky was found in Hick's residence but he claims it was for his own use and says he has not violated the law.

Dingle-Rexroth.

Relations in Humboldt have just received news of the couple which disappeared that section about a month since. The parties were Corry W. Dingle and Miss Emma R. Rexroth, members of well known families of that vicinity. It has been learned that they last week obtained a license at Hiawatha, Kas., and were united in marriage by Justice Donly of Horton. It is understood that the couple contemplate making their home in that section.
