FALLS CITY - NEBRASKA

Count Jehan Marie Joseph Alain Dedous de Pierrefeu, who took a wife in Boston Wednesday, will live in Newark. Some of his names will probably be stored in a warehouse.

They say that in the flashing contest between Mrs. Potter Palmer's jewels and the searchlights of the Wilhelm der Grosse the diamonds were first and the searchlights were nowhere.

In the bright Russian lexicon there is no such word as mediation. We don't know what the Russian word for it is, and even if we could tell you you probably wouldn't be able to pronounce it.

A dispatch from Washington says money is plentiful. The great trouble, however, is that no matter how plentiful money may be it is always necessary to do something before one can get any of it.

A New Jersey man while trying to pay an election bet by riding a pig was thrown off and one of his arms was broken. For obvious reasons his brains were uninjured, although he landed on his head.

By the terms of her uncle's will an Indiana girl is to receive $15,000 if she marries and not a cent if she remains single. There are plenty of heroes who will be willing to help the poor girl get her money.

Most men are such gross, material creatures that they are satisfied if their wives can make good flapjacks and look pretty on a small amount of money, even if they cannot repeat a single page of the dictionary.

A man who has been exploring in Central Africa says it is much safer to travel alone in the jungle at night than in Chicago or New York. That being the case, why go to the jungle if you're looking for diversion?

Another Pittsburg heiress has found a titled foreigner who is willing to marry for a cash consideration. Pittsburg heiresses appear to be having little difficulty of late in making it possible for the world to see their smoke.

New York is mourning the death of a man who had the artistic faculty of painting blacked eyes so that they looked as innocent as an innocent little baby's sky-blue orbs. It is hard to see how the Tenderloin will manage to get along without him.

Lipton has about decided not to challenge for the America's cup next year. Perhaps, in view of the success of the governor-elect of Massachusetts, Sir Thomas has decided that it will be more profitable to do his advertising in the newspapers.

A young New Yorker who married four western girls inside of four weeks, gave as an excuse that they were so "fetching" he couldn't resist them. As he will fetch up in the penitentiary very soon he will have ample time to reconsider his opinion.

Prince Louis Philippe of Orleans, who has been touring the United States, complains that he found it hard to get along in Chicago because of his inability to understand the peculiar language in universal use in that city. If a foreigner can't get along in Chicago, who can?

The king of Servia wants to borrow $8,000,000 and is willing to give his kingdom as security. The trouble with the king's scheme is that no prudent person would wish to foreclose in case the interest were not paid.

Barber's Graded Prices.
A traveler from the south of France tells of a certain village there where he discovered a barber's shop bearing the following sign: "Ordinary shave, 4 cents; careful shave, 5 cents; shave in which every care is taken, 6 cents."

More Flexible and Lasting, won't shake out or blow out; by using Defiance Starch you obtain better results than possible with any other brand and one-third more for same money.

The moth always looks on the bright side of the flame.

Those Who Have Tried It will use no other. Defiance Cold Water Starch has no equal in Quantity or Quality—16 oz. for 10 cents. Other brands contain only 12 oz.

Never bet on a sure thing unless you can afford to lose.

No chromos or cheap premiums, but a better quality and one-third more of Defiance Starch for the same price of other starches.

Time softens all things—except boarding house biscuits.

Superior quality and extra quantity must win. This is why Defiance Starch is taking the place of all others.

You need not be a shadow because you are not a sun.
