

Married.

Wednesday, January 4, 1905, at the home of the bride's parents in Sterling, at the hour of eleven o'clock, occurred a quiet home wedding, in which Miss Klara Radinsky, of Sterling, and Mr. Frank Thurber, of Tecumseh, were the happy couple; the ceremony being performed by the bride's father, who is a licensed minister, and has performed a like service for his daughters previously married.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Radinsky, and is a most excellent young lady and has for several years been one of the successful teachers of the county, resigning the place as teacher in the Elk Creek schools to take this more important step.

The groom is one of Tecumseh's best young men, and is at present the city electrician at that place, and there they will make their home, at least for the present. The Sun extends best wishes.—Sterling Sun.

The bride was formerly a resident of this city and is well known here, also being a sister of Mrs. J. R. Pickett. Her many friends extend congratulations.

IRRIGATED LANDS.

In the Big Horn Basin, North Platte Valley and eastern Colorado several big irrigation enterprises are practically completed and will be prepared to deliver water this year. They are offering special inducement in the way of low priced lands and water rights to early settlers. Buy land now—ahead of the water—and reap the big increase in value which will surely follow. It is the best investment in the world for your son if you want to start him out right. In a few years he will be independently wealthy.

Surprised.

Miss Stella Knickerbocker was the victim of a surprise party last Friday evening. It was planned and executed so well by her friends that she was taken completely unawares. The evening was most pleasantly spent in various games of cards.

A Prisoner in Her Own House.

Mrs. W. H. Layha, of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by A. G. Wanner.

Junior C. E.

The members of the Presbyterian Junior Society were entertained by Mabel and Robert Michell Friday evening at the home of their parents on 2nd and McLane streets. The evening was most pleasantly spent in charades, geographical contests and other games, while light refreshments were much enjoyed. A treat was given to each guest upon the departure and all were indebted to their little host and hostess for a most enjoyable evening.

Congratulation.

Mr. John H. Cullon, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufactureres of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. For sale by A. G. Wanner.

Masquerade Party.

A delightful masquerade party was given at the home of H. C. Davis Friday evening by Maud Davis and Hazel White. About twenty five of their friends assembled arrayed in robes of beautiful as well as hideous hues. After spending part of the evening in guessing as to each others identity, masks were removed and the remainder of the time until midnight was taken up in playing games and eating the delicious refreshments which the young hostesses had prepared.

Resignation Accepted.

The school board has accepted the resignation of Miss Elanora Miller teacher of mathematics, the same to become effective within three weeks.

Miss Miller has accepted a position in the state university. Her successor has not been chosen as yet.

Mrs. I. Lyons returned Friday from Rulo.
