

LASTING RELIEF.

J. W. Walls, Superintendent of Streets of Lebanon, Ky., says:

"My nightly rest was broken, owing to irregularities of the kidneys. I suffered intensely from severe pains in the small of my back and through the kidneys and was annoyed by painful passages of abnormal secretions. Doctors failed to relieve me. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and I experienced quick and lasting relief. Doan's Kidney Pills will prove a blessing to all sufferers from kidney disorders who will give them a fair trial."

CAUSE AND CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

Shown by numerous cures made by Dodd's Kidney Pills. They cure the Kidneys and the Rheumatism cures itself—Remarkable case of Maggie E. Deckert.

Eagle River, Wis., Jan. 16.—(Special)—That rheumatism is caused by disordered kidneys is proved by the cures Dodd's Kidney Pills are making in every state in the Union. They cure the Kidneys and the Rheumatism cures itself. A cure that has caused deep interest in this neighborhood is that of Maggie E. Deckert. In speaking of it she says:

"I had kidney trouble and rheumatism and was so lame I could not walk. I could not sleep for I ached all over. I was in a terrible state and firmly believe that if I had not used Dodd's Kidney Pills I would be dead. I took nine boxes of them and they have done me more good than all the other medicines I ever took. Now my aches are all gone, I can eat and sleep and I am feeling good. I want all the world to know that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me."

Litter for the Pig Pen.

How much litter is needed for the pig pen depends largely on the condition of the weather. In the summer time very little is required. The pigs evidently do not want the straw packed closely around their bodies when the weather is warm. They want a chance to lie down where the air can get into contact with their thick skins. As cold weather comes on the amount of bedding can be increased to advantage. For this, cut straw and chaff are best, especially for the brood sow that is about to farrow. Long straw should not be used, as the little pigs are often tangled up in it and tramped on by the sows. One of the great faults to be met with in the country, so far as the keeping of pigs is concerned, is the neglect of the bedding of the swine. This must be often renewed in winter if the animals are to be kept warm and comfortable. In the winter time the pens do not dry out as quickly as they do in the summer and hence more attention must be given them.

Healthy Hog.

If the hog is in good, healthy growing condition his voidings are a sure index to that fact. When the droppings become hard and black it is a danger signal that trouble is at hand unless averted. Hogs need at all times plenty of range for exercise to strengthen the muscles and bones to develop growth.

The more a hog will eat and properly digest the greater will be the gain. Only feed to them what they will eat up clean, as overfeeding is not only wasteful, but injurious. Observe strict cleanliness in the troughs, especially where slop is fed, or they will become sour and foul-smelling and offensive, creating disorders of the stomach and system. Overfeeding leads to indigestion, in which condition hogs eat without the food doing them any apparent good, neither growing or gaining.—American Swineherd.

Catching Sheep by the Wool.

We are almost out of patience when we see men who have kept sheep for years catch them by seizing hold of their wool. It is cruel, shamefully cruel, and a man with any heart in him would never do it a second time if he could see the red, blood-settled looking flesh always found under such a spot if the poor sheep is killed shortly after the abuse. It is almost as easy to catch sheep by the neck or leg, and if it were not it would be no excuse, tearing, as it frequently does, the skin from the flesh just beneath it. The sheep is so delicately made and the skin is made so tender by the close protecting fleece that it is a much more serious thing to pull the wool of a sheep than the hair on one's head.

An Automatic Lice Killer.

An ingenious method of applying kerosene or other liquid lice destroyer to hogs has been discovered by an Indiana hog raiser. A good solid oak post a foot or a foot and a half in height is placed in position in the hog lot. One hole is bored in the top to the depth of about eight inches and two at right angles from the sides at the bottom of the vertical hole. Soft pine pins are driven into the side holes. The upright hole is filled with kerosene, and stoppered. Next a burlap strip eight or ten inches wide is wrapped around the post over the side plugs. This after a time becomes soaked with kerosene and the pigs will rub against it at the place where it will do the most good.

To prevent the accumulation of grease in drains from bathroom sinks, flush them once or twice a week the year around with one or two buckets of boiling hot water containing common soda or potash.

Speed of the Camel.

The speed of the camel is greatly exaggerated by writers, both of history and fiction. The most accurate information shows the speed of the camel to be about three miles an hour. The swiftest dromedaries do not exceed ten miles an hour, but the pace can be kept up for twenty hours without rest.
