

Married.

On Wednesday Jan. 25, 1905 at 11 a. m. at the M. E. Parsonage in Falls City Mr. John A. Ritchie and Miss Laura Grimm both of Turney, Mo., were united in marriage by Rev. W. T. Cline, Ph. D.

The contracting parties are well and favorably known in Turney where they have many friends. The groom is a prominent business man.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie will leave Wednesday afternoon for Mo. Mrs. J. T. Ritchie a relative accompanied the bridal party.

Married at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Meyers near Morrill, Kas., at 9 o'clock in the evening January 25, 1905, Edith May Meyers to Elmer C. Peck.

As May Brim played the wedding march the bride and groom marched to the bay window which had been decorated with flowers and ferns when Rev. T. A. Eisenbise spoke the solemn words which made them man and wife. After congratulations elegant refreshments were served.

Miss Meyers is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myers.

The bride is a young lady of sterling qualities well known and respected by a large circle of friends. The groom is the oldest son of Noah Peck was born and raised to manhood near Falls City but of late years has been working near Morrill, and has a host of friends at both places.

The bride was dressed in drab broadcloth trimmed in white satin and cream overlace and the groom wore the conventional black. Minnie Myers, a sister of the bride acted as bridesmaid and was dressed in navy blue trimmed with white. Chas. E. Peck, a brother of the groom acted as best man. About forty guests were present to witness the ceremony and a number of beautiful and costly presents were received.

Club Meeting.

An interesting session of the Sorosis club was held at the home of Mrs. A. G. Wanner on Wednesday afternoon. Roll call was responded to by each member with a short sketch of a famous artist and his masterpiece. An invitation was extended to the federated clubs of the First Nebraska district to hold their annual meeting in Falls City Mrs. William Wilson, vice president of this district accepted the invitation and thirty clubs will send representatives here on March 21. The afternoon program was musical. Mrs. D. D. Reavis read an excellent paper upon the Composers of the victorean era. Mrs. H. B. Smith, Mrs. T. J. Gist and Miss Anita Wilson illustrated Mrs. Reavis' sketches with musical selections which were enjoyed by the club members. Mrs.

Brigham of Kansas City and Miss Lucile Robbins of this city also furnished instrumental and vocal numbers of merit. Mrs. Wanner served delicious refreshments.
