Now And Then.

"This old world we're a livin' in Is mighty hard to beat.
There is thorns a'tween the roses, But aint the roses sweet."
* * *

It is the doings of men that prove their undoing.
* * *

A Falls City lady has darned stockings over the same door knob for thirty years.
* * *

The Auburn Herald boasts of a type setting machine. That's nothing, we have several and they are all good lookers at that.
* * *

Many a preacher has lost sleep in the preparation of a sermon that his congregation has made up for him when he delivered it.
* * *

A traveling man said on the train the other day; "I wish that I could take as much interest in life as Eph. Sandusky does in a game of whist."
* * *

Has misfortune overtaken you?
Never mind; Hitch your wagon to a star and keep a smiling. Consider Frank Edgecombe, blind during the best years of his life, yet one of the most successful newspaper men in the state.

A microbe which, for the want of a better name, the physicians call the grip, is making its headquarters at this office. It is a cross between hog cholera and anti-imperialism, and is guaranteed to put the most sober citizen several sheets to the bad.

The love of health is the most successful advocate of the simple life. Health is the greatest temperance lecture extant. Richard Harding Davis tells of a young man who was not making out of life what he should. One day he saw a statue of a Greek diety that displayed muscles the young man could not find on his own body. He stopped drinking and went into training with the determination to make those muscles show. By the time he had succeeded in this purpose his physical condition was so perfect and he was so in love with life that he continued his rational mode of living, and is today one of the most influential and useful citizens of his city.

"A wise man's advise to a friend;" Drink three quarts of water daily; walk two miles between dawn and dark; spend as much time in the open air as possible; make every third breath a deep one; bathe regularly and frequently; have the windows of your sleeping room open every night; go to church once every Sunday and subscribe for The Tribune.

Youth said, "I will crown a youth of labor with an age of ease," at forty-five I shall retire from business. And then, as the waned, the age was placed at fifty; and then, so swiftly the hours ran, it was increased to sixty. And then it became the saddest thing in all existence to see a man grown gray in the service lay down his labors and step aside, while the busy, work-a-day world rushed on without him. Necessity is a hard task master; hard when it impells a man to toil; harder still when it compells him to cease from his labors. Rest for the weary,—yes but the helpless and impotent pain of growing weary and having to rest.

What Others Say.

Opportunity.

Master of human destinies am I!
Fame, love and fortune on my footsteps wait.
Cities and fields I walk; I penetrate Deserts and seas remote, and passing by Hovel and mart and palace, soon or late I knock unbidden once at every gate!
If sleeping, wake; if feasting, rise before I turn away. It is the hour of fate, And they who follow me reach every state Mortals desire, and conquer every foe Save death; but those who doubt or hesitate, Condemned to failure, penury and woe, Seek me in vain and uselessly implore, I answer not, and I return no more.—J. J. Ingalls.

County Attorney James came up from Falls City and spent Sunday in Humboldt.—Humboldt Enterprise.

Joy Andrews, Wm. Leyda, George Fallstead and Jess Whetstine were among the Falls City Knights who came up to attend the dedication.—Humboldt Leader.

Speaker Rouse showed proper appreciation of the eternal fitness of things when he made Mr.
Hand chairman of the house committee on labor.—Humboldt Enterprise.

Tom Hall of Verdon, Robt.
Cain jr., of Stella and Judge Wilhite of Falls City, were part of the political crowd from Richardson county who were hurrying to Lincoln Tuesday.—Auburn Republican.

Sheriff Hossack of Falls City was here during the week to subpoena witnesses for the petit and jury, about forty men in all. On account of the bad roads, he did not find it a very inviting task.— Dawson Newsboy.

Should the new redistricting bill become a law, Nemaha county will be tied up with Richardson county, the two forming one senatorial district, we will lose one representative, and the float representative which we have in common with Johnson county.
The bill is designed to give the western part of the state a larger representation.—Auburn Herald.

A Contemptible Act.

Saturday night T.C. Bronson's barn at Powhatan was entered and with some sort of a knife one of his fine driving horses was stabbed just back of a front leg.
The wound narrowly missed the heart and it is doubtful if the horse will recover. Tar and feathers are too good to waste on any man who would maliciously do an act of this kind. He ought to be horse whipped.—Hiawatha World.

R. A. Clark and Guy Harris were in Falls City Monday on business connected with the Stella telephone company and later in the week attended a meeting of the Telephone Association at Lincoln.—Stella Press.

C. A. Larimore, S. W. Hodges, Will Helmick, Will Pearson, J. W.
Vaught, C. H. Thomas, Frank Helmick and M. H. Vandeventer attended a meeting of the I.O.
O. F. lodge at Falls City last Friday evening.—Stella Press.

Supervisor Atwood returned from Falls City Saturday where he had been attending the meeting of the board. Although a new man on the board, Mr. Atwood was made a member of the bridge committee, something that was never before done.—

Advertising Pays Farmers.

A Highland man who does not sign his name has an article in the Highland Vidette which shows how advertising pays a farmer. This man had 35 bushels of seed potatoes last spring.
He advertised them for sale and disposed of his entire supply within five days after the paper was issued. This same man invested four or five dollars in advertising fruit and produce and sold over $200 worth.—Hiawatha World.

Dr. Montgomery, J. C. Reimers and M. H. Vandeventer were appointed by the town board last Friday evening as a board of health to take the necessary precautions to keep the diphtheria from spreading. The children of Wm. Duncan and Mrs. Bessie Thomas was quarantined, and no other children have been exposed.
Mrs. Thomas' house has been fumigated twice, as soon as the death occurred and immediately after the funeral, and there is very little danger that the disease will spread. Little Marguerite Thomas had diphtheria as the result of cold and not from contagion.—Stella Press

Have Deepened the Ditches.

J. C. Grable, living near Nema-ha, was in town Monday and we learned from him that the owners of the land along the Nema-ha where the big bends are situated have lost no time but have been hard at work up to a couple of weeks ago cutting the ditches, laid out by the Missouri oxen team, deeper. All except the cut across the Lockwood bend, have been dug down until a rise of a foot would cause water to run through them. It was impossible to finish the Lockwood bend since the storms as the earth there is of peculiar formation and would freeze to the shovels while being thrown out.—Auburn Republican
