

Verdon.

E. A. Brittain of St. Joseph arrived in town Tuesday to assist in starting the Farmers and Merchants bank of Verdon which opened its doors for business Monday.

J. A. Heinzelman and his cousin, Wm. Kelly left Wednesday for Omaha where they will attend a meeting of the millers of the state.

Mrs. Everett Scott and Grace Saylor came up from Falls City and attended the dance at the Hall opera house Tuesday evening. Nellie Weaver came up from St. Joe Tuesday.

Arthur Salloway came up from Texas to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Gibson.

Geo. Abbott and wife of Falls City and F. Abbott and wife of Omaha visited the Vedette family.

Mrs. Margaret Fouch is still very low.

J. B. Simpson received a check for $12 from the National Benevolent society of Kansas City, which is in full payment for his recent sickness.

Congregational people have been holding prayer meeting at the homes instead of the church during cold weather and on Wednesday evening it was held at the home of Mr. Henderson. Meetings will begin at the church on Sunday Currens and G. o e the Chicago evangelists will be in charge of the revival.

Wm. Stach and Lcola Sheffer were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corn on Sunday, Feb. 12 at 5 o'clock p. m. In the presence of a few intimate friends, Rev. Aton of the Christian church pronounced the words which made them life partners. Leona Sheffer is the accomplished daughter of J. A. Sheffer of Salem and having lived here for some time has a host of friends in this vicinity. Wm. Stach is a partner in

Gehling Theatre

ONE NIGHT

Saturday, Feb. 18th

The Gorgeous Gaiety

The ISLE of SPICE

60 People

The Hits

- Goo Goo Man
- Star of Fate
- You and I
- Peggy Brady
- Coax Me
- The Witches

2 Cars of Scenery

The Original

Boston & New York

Production

PRICES:

- First 6 rows Parquet... $1.50
- Balance Parquet and Dress Circle..... 1.00
- Balcony 75c & 50c

the general merchandise store of Ocamb and Stach. They have rented one of C. A. Jorn's residence property and will soon be at home to their many friends. We extend congratulations.

The high school will go to Dawson Friday night in a debate having made arrangements some time ago.

Rulo.

The recent cold weather has given the rabbits a respite as the hunter cannot do more than sit by the warm stoves and recount their daring stories in the past.

The death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Darveat occurred Monday morning under distressing circumstances. The parents on arising supposed the child to be in its normal health but soon found that it was suffering from membranous croup. All efforts for its relief were fruitless and death ensued in a short time. The funeral occurred Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

James Hatfield moved to the Roubadion farm south of town this week.

C. Merrian who was time keeper on the works here last winter has returned to Rulo.

Tony Futscher has been fighting the grip for several days.

Louis Jones, living 3 miles north of town has had a touch of pneumonia but is improving.

The fireman on the Atchison freight was injured last week and the watchman is working in his place.

A suit of cloths and sundry articles were stolen from the B. & M. wiper of the Atchison engine last week from his room in the hotel. The job was done by a fellow that represented himself as a contractor on the prospective work and he even went so far as to hire several parties before he decamped.

Ohio Precinct.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morgan spent Wednesday with their son near Strausville.

The meetings at Maple Grove are being well attended.

Mrs. John Strauss has been having the gripe the past week.

Fred Bahr visited at John Schultz Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harkendorff spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Otto.

Fred Kruger who has been quite sick the past week is improving.

Mrs. Fred Whitrock spent Wednesday at her brother's, Chas. Harkendorff.

Mr. W. K. Knight and wife of Falls City visited with Mrs. Knight's mother, Thursday.

Wm. Huettner's family are improving after a seige with gripe the past week.

August Zorn visited over Sunday with his mother.

Frances Knisely who has been sick the past week is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Peck and daughter Ethel visited in Falls City one day last week at John Yocan's.

Wm. Horstman visited at John Pappenhagen Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Keeling is spending a few days this week with her daughter Mrs. Ed Morgan.

Mrs. Harry Knisely spent Sat-

OUR BARGAIN TABLES

OUR Bargain Tables are very attractive to shrewd Shoe Buyers. Keep an eye on them. When our Shoes get on the Bargain Table they are snapped up quick. Today we will put out probably of Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes in all sizes and Styles at $1.00 Per Pair. If the weather is right they'll be gone in about two hours time. They will not linger long in any event, and if you want a real, good, genuine Shoe Bargain, come early and

100 PAIRS

SAVE MONEY

It will pay you well always to keep an eye on our Bargain Tables. You can save lots of Shoe Money by doing so.

GEORGE B. HOLT
THE SHOEMAN

urday in Salem with Mrs. Clay Wagner.

Local and Personal.

Next Sunday's court house meeting for men has been withdrawn so there will be no conflict with other special meetings.

Maud Van Dueson returned Tuesday to St. Joseph via the B. & M.

Mr. Schmelzel went to Tacumseh last Wednesday.

Bessie Heacock returned to Lincoln Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bentley of St. Joseph are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albright in this city.

W. P. Fergus went to Humboldt Sunday where he attended the funeral of his cousin.

Milo Hoppe has been on the sick list this week.

Mrs. F. Werner was called to Gallatin, Mo., last Monday to attend the funeral of her brother.

Nelle McMahon has been very ill for a week but is rapidly improving.

J. W. Hanson returned from Lincoln Wednesday where he has been caring for his son Fred, who has been seriously ill.

Pearl Prater of the Central school was ill the latter part of last week. Miss Gehling taught in her place.

Mrs. P. S. Heacock was in Lin-Friday.

Mrs. H. R. Miner was a Lincoln visitor the first of the week.

Messrs Weaver and Falloon were in Lincoln Saturday.

Miss Pearson of St. Joe is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Keller.

The Misses Greenwald entertained the Presbyterian C. E. on Tuesday evening.

263 acre farm 2 1/2 miles of Falls City, want to sell at once to divide the money. Good terms. Might possibly divide land. Possession given.—Henry C. Smith.

Mr. ad Mrs. Johnston are visiting with friends in Talmage.

Born on Monday to J. M. Warren and wife, a girl.

McNall's GROCERY

- Fancy and Staple Groceries
- Fruit in Season
- Satisfaction Guaranteed
- Free City Delivey
- Phone 40

Storage for Household And Other Goods

Merchants and Business Men

With hard accounts to collect, should place them with

John L. Cleaver

JUSTICE of the PEACE
FALLS CITY, NEB

For Collection or for Suit

Small Com's on Collections
No Attorney Fees on Suits.
Defendant pays all Costs.

W. H. MADDUX

REAL ESTATE AGENCY

Hartford Fire Insurance

Lands bought and sold

Houses in city for sale

Money to loan

Telephone 178