

Local and Personal.

Eat Sowles Candy.

Are we to have a lawn contest this summer.

For Sale—A brown mare.—O. P. Heck.

Mart Kelly was down from Verdon on Monday.

Fred B. Hoffman was down from Stella Saturday.

G. E. Hall spent Sunday with his mother in Verdon.

Coal, Wood and Rock Salt at Heck's feed store.

Mrs. W. E. Goolsby of Verdon was in this city Monday.

Dr. A. Gaiser, dentist over Richardson county bank.

Will Deckinger was a business visitor Saturday of last week.

Two Choice steam heated rooms for rent in State Bank Building.

The county attorney is being interviewed about the city coal contract.

Billy Boyd the popular liveryman from Salem was one of Monday's visitors.

Mrs. Joe Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Parsons were down from Verdon on Monday.

Steve Miles stopped in town a few days this week en route from California to Buffalo, N. Y.

Grandma Bickel of Arago precinct was reported as seriously ill the first of the week.

Coupe & Thornton is still making special low prices on lard, ham and bacon.

George Freidley, the thoroughbred Poland China hog man of Verdon was a business visitor here on Monday.

V. G. Lyford returned Monday from his spring visit to the New York markets. He is quite enthusiastic about his purchases, and many bargains await his numerous customers. After church on Sunday Mr. Lyford walked up fifth avenue for many blocks, passing a constant stream of ladies and their escorts on Sunday parade. He stated that the beautiful homes and residences of New York together with the elaborate gowns of the ladies made him wonder as to where all the money came from to make New York the great city that it is.

The writer was with Ed Falloon in the office of his older brother Jim Falloon in Hiawatha the other day. Notwithstanding Ed is about three times as big as Jim, the older brother "bosses" him just as we imagine he did some forty years ago.

A local citizen had but two dollars and needed three. He took his two dollar bill to a pawn shop and pawned it for one dollar and a half. He sold the pawn ticket for its face value ($1.50.) He then had three dollars. Who lost the dollar?

In one of the books of Charles Dickens, is a character named "Turvydrop" of whom the author says: "What he lacked in brains, he made up in deportment." Falls City has a Mr. Turveydrop, and you are all entitled to one guess.

For the next four weeks The Tribune goes to every rural route patron in the east end of the county. We want our farmer friends to become acquainted with the paper, believing that it will be of mutual benefit.

Lewis McPherson on Monday put lightening rods on Henry Meyer's large barn north of town. Lewis uses nothing but Moore Bros. Pure Soft Copper Cable, the best on earth. He says it is a little early for such work but his customers get in early to avoid the rush.

The Nemaha came out on its usual rampage Monday. If the present legislature does not pass the drainage bill, it ought to make an appropriation for air ships for the benefit of our friends to the south.

Ed Melton has returned from Missouri where he has spent the winter with his daughter resting and recuperating. We are glad to state that Mr. Melton is in better health than for some years past.

The indignant outburst of Kansas against standard oil, reminds one of the remark of the ant to the elephant as the animals went into the ark: "Say, look out there who you're shoving."

The Missouri Pacific was unable to use its Platte river bridge the first of the week and was compelled to run around by way of Weeping Water. The trains were late as a result.

The young widow lays aside her weeds and blossoms out in the girlish colors of other days with as much self consciousness as a boy with his first long pants.

The quack of the duck is again heard in the land. The lakes are full of water and the shooting this spring promises to be the best in years. Several large bags have been made.

There were thirty nine traveling men in Falls City one night last week. Who wouldn't be the hotel man?

The Journal is running locals from the Journal of the year 1829. The Journal is improving in its style and becoming quite up to date.

Julius Kleber tiring of city life, has removed to his farm a short distance north of town, which, in company with George Moore, he will farm the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings spent Sunday in Salem with Oliver Jennings the father of Mr. Jennings, who is reported as seriously ill.

The store windows are being filled with garden seeds and John Hossack has taken off his leggings. It may now be officially announced that spring is here.

Geo. Cleveland and daughter, Mrs. C. Fisher went to Kansas City Sunday. Mrs. Fisher will join her husband in Kansas where they will make their home in the future.

Humboldt is in the midst of an alley scrap. Save for a line fence law suit, the meanest thing on earth is an alley scrap.

The sign was in the heel last Sunday. Practically the entire population was out for a walk.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Roberts will move into the Smucker house on south Chase street in the near future.

Rev. Smith, conductor of the Business College is assisting in the revival meetings at the Methodist church.

Jack Reavis, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Reavis has been quite ill for several days.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

On account of the great merit and popularity of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR for Coughs, Colds, and Lung Trouble, several manufacturers are advertising imitations with similar sounding names with the view of profiting by the favorably known reputation of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR.

DO NOT BE IMPOSED UPON

We originated HONEY AND TAR as a Throat and Lung Remedy and unless you get FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR you do not get the original and genuine.

Remember the name and insist upon having FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. Do not risk your life or health by taking imitations, which cost you the same as the genuine.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is put up in three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00.

Prepared only by FOLEY & CO., 92-94-96 Ohio Street, Chicago, Illinois.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY

DR. McMILLAN, Proprietor City Pharmacy.