

Trap Shooting.

The shoot held in Falls City last week demonstrated that we have some of the best amateur shots in the state. Will Veach, Chas. Davis, Jake Norris, Clay Davis, Frank Crabill, Fred Oswald, George Holt and Linn Himmelrich would make a hard team to beat, to say nothing of the reserve guard composed of shooters like Peter Frederick, Tom Frank, George Dietsch and others. Last Saturday Chas. Davis broke 49 out of 55 and Will Veach got 53 out of 55. Such shooting as this is as good as the best. A club has been organized and the boys intend to practice regularly. Isn't there as much music in the voice of the umpire calling "dead bird" when the blue rock smashes in the air, as there is in the suffering cry of a wounded bird as it flutters in fear and pain after your shot?

"The Isle of Spice."

They grow other things than cloves and nutmeg in the "Isle of Spice." They have as fine a bunch of calls as you ever saw, and nearly every theatre going person in Falls City and vicinity saw them at the Gehling Saturday night. The attraction is one of the best of its kind on the road and the people showed Mr. Gehling that it is profitable to get the best. The play is not a comic opera nor can it be rightfully called a musical comedy. The plot is not noticeable, but there were tuneful melodies, a good chorus and an abundance of pretty girls. The scenery was adequate the setting of the second act being very handsome. Altogether the show was fully up to expectations and delighted one of the largest audiences in the history of the house.

Club Meeting.

The Shakespear club recently organized by a dozen ladies in the city held an enthusiastic meeting with Mrs. W. W. Abbey on last Friday afternoon. As a preface to the reading of Julius Caesar, a short schedule of Roman history has been adopted. During the business session, Mrs. John Gilligan was elected secretary and treasurer and the following ladies were appointed a committee on by laws, Mrs. T. J. Gist, Mrs. W. W. Abbey, Mrs. A. G. Wanner. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. J. R. Cain.

The Mills of the God's.

In the Falls City Journal's account of the late session of the district court it says:

"He also decided the case of Leshar against Reavis in favor of Reavis."

Time was when the Journal did not dispose of this case in three lines.

Time was when it was not hidden in an obscure place.

Time was when anger, malice and venom used it for a day to serve in a wicked cruel purpose.

The compensation of the years however, make the Martins content with a two line announcement of the death of an old time friend.

It was the last of its race, was Leshar against Reavis.

The black brood of evil birds found its end in this case.

All law actions which were made prominent in the late judicial campaign are now determined.

Some by one Judge, some by the other and some by juries.

In recording them the Falls City Journal has in each instance been compelled to say: "the case was decided in favor of Reavis."

The court records of this county contain a complete history to all the cruel charges made by this malicious family.

In every instance the courts and juries have written the last the last chapter.

The closing words in each are the same and read; "It was a lie." "The Mills of the God's grind slowly."

Afraid of Strong Medicines.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. Rev. Amos Parker of Magonolia, North Carolina, suffered for eight years with a lame hip, due to severe rheumatic pains. He has been permanently cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale at Kerrs Drug Store.

Wanted.

I have a very liberal proposition for some good man who wants to break up about twelve acres of timber land.

C. F. Reavis.

District Court.

Judge Babcock decided the case of Yoesel vs Rieger in favor of Mr. Rieger. This case was on the construction of a will and has been in the courts several years.

The case of Leshar vs Reavis was decided by the court in favor of Reavis. This case figured largely in the Martin circular during the late judicial campaign and is the last of such cases to be tried. The motion for a new trial in Brannin vs Wertz was taken under advisement by Judge Kelligar.

The hearing in the matter of Fred Hawxby against Sarah J. Orr on a lien for $50.00 was before the court Friday afternoon. Judge Kelligar found against the
