

Local and Personal.

Mrs. Ross Jackson of Rulo was in this city Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Cade is suffering with the grip this week.

Mrs. Hayden Prater left Saturday for St. Joseph.

G. E. Hall was in Omaha the first of the week buying shoes.

Ephraim Withee of Stella spent Sunday with Falls City friends.

Fred Bahr of route four is one of the Tribune's new subscribers.

Don't forget the Revival at the M. E. church every afternoon and evening.

Quite a delegation from Salem attend the revival at the M. E. church.

Clarence Peabody of St. Joseph was the guest of Pearl Prater last Sunday.

Vie Mettz came down from Pawnee City the latter part of last week.

Katie Mulligan has just recovered from a two weeks siege of the grip.

John Martin was a B. & M. passenger for Pawnee City Monday afternoon.

Ingram Cain of Stella witnessed the Isles of Spice in this city Saturday evening.

P. S. Heacock returned Monday from a ten days visit in eastern parts.

Hiram Elshire of Table Rock was a business visitor the first of the week.

Burt Reavis has been under the weather with lump jaw for a few days.

Falls City's contingent of stage door "Johnies" was much in evidence Saturday night.

Mrs. Earl Martz of Wymore spent the first part of the week with relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Towle of Omaha visited with their parents a few days this week.

Zula McCool returned to Salem Monday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rule.

A bunch of eight shooters spent a few hours at the traps Tuesday. Will Veach lead with fifty five straight kills.

Illness compelled C. F. Reavis to cancel his engagement to speak at the Omaha club dinner Wednesday evening.

The Tribune does the best job work of any office in the city. If you are from Missouri, we would like to show you.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bentley returned to St. Joseph on Sunday after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albright.

Billy Moran is interesting himself in The Tribunes Educational department. Billy is interested in schools; if you doubt this, ask the school board.

One of the best attractions coming to the Gehling is "An American Gentleman" with that superb romantic actor, Mr. William Bonelli, as the star. He is said to be handsomer than ever and his wonderful strength is in no way impaired. Mr. Bonelli stands alone in his line and combines art with muscular development in most pleasing style. "An American Gentleman" is from his own pen and naturally gives him opportunities for the display of his physical powers. At the Gehling, Friday Feb. 24.

D. Hellyer formerly of Falls City and will be remembered as a sewing machine agent, is suing his wife in the district court of Des Moines, Iowa for certain real estate, which he alleges she defrauded him of. Depositions are being taken by Des Moines lawyers before Judge Cleaver today.

R. E. Grinstead of Salem was interviewing a number of local citizens Wednesday about the new drainage bill. There is a disposition on the part of a few legislators to destroy the bill, and Mr. Grinstead was trying to devise ways and means to circumvent such an attempt.

Should anyone ask you the reason for John Wiltse's expansive smile, just tell him that a bouncing baby boy took up his permanent abode with Mr. and Mrs. Wiltse on Tuesday evening. Both mother and little one are doing well.

Dr. E. A. Walker, formerly of Union, Neb., has opened up an office in the Jussen block over Cleveland's store, for the practice of his profession. He has just returned from New York where he took a post graduate course in medicine.

Henry Zoeller of Preston told a reporter last week that five acres of alfalfa had furnished the winters roughness for twenty head of stock, besides making good fall pasture. Every farmer should have a few acres of this wonderful plant.

Mr. Macomber, proprietor of the farmers hotel left Wednesday for Indian Territory where he expects to make his home and farm during the coming summer. He is making his trip overland.

J. R. Cain jr., was down from Stella Wednesday looking after business matters. Rob reports Stella as booming notwithstanding the fact that most of its people are down with grip.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Holland a girl, Monday morning. Mother and child doing well.

Bert Whitaker is reported as greatly improved from the very serious illness with which he has suffered for the past three weeks.

T. Whitney was one of Humboldt's citizens transacting business in town Tuesday afternoon.

We Are In Business to Stay!

We will meet any and all competition in the

Implement Business

We sell and guarantee the finest line of Implements made.

If there is any defect in goods bought of us, bring them back and we will make it good.

We will be here for that purpose.

WE ARE NOT SELLING OUT

We Are In Business to Stay

WERNER & MOSIMAN

(Permanently in the Implement Business)

WALL PAPER

Our new line of Wall Paper is ready for your inspection, and if you have just one room or more to paper it will pay you to see us. Ask to see the novelties in

Burlaps

Moires

and

Grass Cloth Effects

Our Kitchen

Granites

at one double roll cannot be duplicated in the city. We sell and guarantee Patton's Sun Proof Paint to wear well for five years.

KING PHARMACY

The chorus girl in the "Isle of Spice Co.," who led the witches chorus, sprained her ankle very severely by falling on one of Kansas City's icy pavements Tuesday night.

Mrs. W. H. Kerr and daughter Blanche left Wednesday for a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kerr in Kansas City.

The St. Agnes guild will serve chicken and waffles at the home of Mrs. F. W. Cleveland on Wednesday evening, March 1.

Mrs. Chas Hargrave has been suffering very severely for several days with a gathering in her head. She is reported some better at this writing.

Geo. Bick of Verdon was in the city yesterday on his way home from a business trip in Arkon, Colorado.

Riley Wilson of Humboldt was transacting business at the court house Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Valentine is very sick at his home in this city.

John Branum is seriously ill with pneumonia fever.

