

Twice Told Tales

Postmaster Crook of Falls City was in town Saturday. He had heard of the fine new postoffice here to have and came up to see about the chances for having Falls City annexed as a suburb of Humboldt.—Humboldt Enterprise.

Ed Furrow, son of Mr. Frank Furrow northwest of town met with an unfortunate accident Tuesday. He was standing on a horse power driving the horses while some men were sawing wood at his home and while thus engaged his left foot was caught in some cog wheels and badly crushed.—Humboldt Standard.

M. E. Cowan has resigned his position with the Ward Bridge company of this city and has entered the employ of the Gillifian Bridge company of Falls City. His work will be in Oklahoma, but he will probably not move his family from the city.—Tecumseh Chieftain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McDowell arrived from Pawnee City, Wednesday, and this city will be their future home. Mr. McDowell has associated himself with C. W. Ramsey in the drug business in this city. During the time that Mr. and Mrs. McDowell resided in Tecumseh they made many friends who will welcome them back.—Tecumseh Chieftain.

Mrs. J. J. Brown tripped and fell while about her household duties Monday morning and sustained a fracture of the right arm just above the wrist. Dr. Waggener set the injured member and the patient is now getting along nicely. This is the third time for Mrs. Brown to sustain broken bones by falling in about as many years.—Dawson Newsboy.

Rudolph Vertiska managed to cut off the end of one of his fingers while working about the tin shop the first of the week and is not enjoying the experience as much as some might.—Humboldt Leader.

Mrs. W. H. Stringfield went to Falls City Tuesday to visit until the following day with E. P. Stringfield and family, where she and her husband left for Geneva. They will reside on one of their farms near there, and Rollie Stringfield and wife will live with them.—Stella Press.

Mrs. S. L. Knox and Miss Viola Crofford of this city and Wm. Crofford and wife and Albert Mayer and wife of near Howe attended the marriage of Will Wamsley and Miss Maud Heck at Falls City Wednesday evening. Miss Crofford will visit at Falls City until next week. She and Mr. Wamsley are cousins.—Stella Press.

Friends of S. B. Rice section foreman at this place will be pleased to know that the Burlington has recognized his efficient service of the past, with a promotion to the place of road master with headquarters at Tecumseh. This place has been vacant for several months, the duties being looked after by Trainmaster Bracken of Table Rock. The new position brings quite an increase in salary and less arduous duties, so is warmly welcomed by Mr. Rice. He left at once for Tecumseh but his family will not move until the present term of school is out.—Humboldt Leader.

BETTER OFF WITHOUT HIM.

A Reserve man is accused of deserting his wife and small children and going to Kansas City, where there is said to be another woman in the case. His wife has had to take in washing ever since she moved to Reserve and will probably be better off for not having to help support her husband.—Hiawatha World.

HE'S EASILY GULLED.

A farmer living near Horton does not take a paper. Hair grows on his teeth. He has not taken a bath for twelve years. He calls at the drug stores and pays a quarter for an almanac. Every swindler takes him in. He is a lunch for the snide lightening rod agent and cloth peddler. The butchers charge him 30 cents a pound for liver, and when in town he walks in the middle of the street because he thinks they charge toll for walking on the sidewalk.—Horton Commercial.

"A BUNCH OF KIDS."

Probate Judge Ham preformed his first double wedding February 21 when he married Miss Dora Estella Martin, aged 15, to Edger W. Sanders, and Daisy May Martin, aged 16, to John R. Carder. All the young people live at Hiawatha but Carder whose home is at Whiting. The same day Miss Minnie Dean, aged 17, was married by Judge Ham to Bert M. Poland. Both live at Fairview. Three marriages in one day, with the brides aged respectively 15, 16 and 17 is a good enough record for any probate judge and Judge Ham is quite proud of it.—Hiawatha World.

SALE ADS IN THE WORLD PAID.

During this season The World printed 47 sale bills. Two years ago an enterprising farmer decided it would be a good plan to print his entire sale bill on one page of The World. He did so and the sale paid him well. One or two others followed his lead. In 1904, twelve farmers used a whole page apiece in The World to advertise their sales and in every instance, unless there was exceptionally bad weather, the sales surpassed their expectations. Out of the 50 bills printed by The World this year, 27 of them were printed entire in The World. The advertising proved of such value that without doubt next year nearly every farmer who has a sale will have his complete bill put in The World, which reaches more Brown county people than he could possibly send his bills to. J. W. Walters had his sale bill printed in this paper and the total proceeds of the sale were $3005. A big crowd of buyers was present. Six head of mules sold for an average of $181 apiece. Intelligent advertising always pays.—Hiawatha World.

The farmers of Richardson County would do well to follow the example of those in Brown County, for if it pays them, it will pay you. Try it once.

Wanted.

I have a very liberal proposition for some good man who wants to break up about twelve acres of timber land.
