John Kloepfel of Rulo, who recently purchased the Wm. Hoppe place on Evergreen Heights, is moving into his property this week. Mr. Kloepfel informs us that he has been a resident of this county over fifty years and has resided on his farm near Rulo forty-four years, and hence is moving to town to take a well earned rest. We welcome him as a citizen among us.

The standing joke among the members of the young married ladies Kensington club is that their organization has been made over into a baby show. A large number of members have little ones, and the youngsters always attend club meetings.

It is reported that another womans club is being formed in town. We believe that makes six. When the men get the Elk's lodge organized what will become of this great American institution named the home.

The case of the Kingman Implement company against Will Deckinger and others on a guarantee contract, was disposed of in Omaha last week. Mr. Deckinger was discharged of all liability.

On Monday morning at 6:30 our citizens were awakened by the ringing of the fire bell. Fortunately it was only the burning out of a chimney at the Whitrock residence, just east of the fire house.

Twin girls came to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cameron Sunday. All concerned are doing well and the proud parents are receiving the congratulations of their friends.

Lee J. Varvel and U. T. Duncan were up from Rulo Monday night, to appear before the city council in the interest of the Farmers Mutual Telephone Co., of Preston of which they are stockholders.

Most of Falls City's grand opera friends are now intending to go to Omaha instead of Kansas City to hear the Conreid company.

About the proudest thing a reporter ever saw was little John Whetstine with his bank book containing the record of his first deposit.

We insist that if the slot machines are to be removed that our esteemed contemporary, The News shall suffer along with the rest.

Werner and Mosiman are out after the implement business. Read their advertisement in this issue.

Dr. Houston reports Elmer Hanna as greatly improved from his serious attack of typhoid.

J. F. Shubert and wife of Shubert were in the city Monday.

If you see the blue mark—pay up.

To the Merchant.

For the next two weeks The Tribune will go into the home of every rural route patron of Falls City. Every family who trades in this city will read this paper. Have you anything to say to them? Is there a matter of business that you would submit to them? You can do so at small expense through the columns of this paper. Advertising should not go by favor, it is a business proposition. We would like to talk it over with you.

Revival Meetings.

The revival meetings are a great success, the church at times being inadequate to contain the crowds. Several open air meetings have been held on Stone street which have been the source of much interest. It is really a very pretty sight to see a throng of little children each singing his lusty best "There is a fountain filled with blood." If God ever made anything prettier than the fresh and shining eyes of a little child, it has never been called to our attention.

A New Club.

About twenty-five of our prominent ladies have organized a new club to be called "The woman's club." Mrs. Wm Wilson was elected President and Mrs. John Crook auditor. We have not learned the names of the members.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale at Kerr's Drug Store.
