Revival Closes.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church closed Saturday evening. The meetings have been very successful and were brought to a close because of the physical exhaustion of Rev. Campbell.

Auburn Paper in Trouble.

The Auburn Republican has been denied admission to the mails on the ground that its subscription list is not bonafide. The order has been set aside at the instance of Senator Burkett in order that the paper may have time to make the required changes in its subscription list.

W. E. Haner Closed.

W. E. Haner turned his stock over to C. F. Reavis Monday as assignee for the benefit of creditors. The store is closed and a meeting of creditors will be held within a few days to determine the manner in which the same will be disposed of.

Kensington.

Stella Farmer was hostess to the Kensington Club on Saturday afternoon. Those present, Lela Powell, Wilma Meyers, Naomi Fallstead, Florence Neitzel and Clara Stockton spent the afternoon most pleasantly with needle work while the toothsome refreshments served by Miss Stella were thoroughly appreciated.

We are Knocking

We are knocking at your door, asking that you admit us once a week for the next year. We take but little room, and will occupy your attention only when you desire it. We have been running around the town and county all week and have learned many newsy items about your friends and acquaintances. We will tell you all about it whenever you ask. We are not begging anything you know. We just want a friendly, companionable acquaintance with you, that's all. We are knocking at your door; may we come in? The Tribune.

L. B. T. Club Meets.

The ladies of the L. B. T. club met with Mrs. E. E. Metz last Friday afternoon with a full attendance, members consisting of Mesdames Resterer, Sandusky, Bell, Taylor, Musselman, Metz, Sargent, Neal Wanner and Slocum. Being St. Patrick's day decorations in green predominated. Each lady was presented with a harp souvenir awfully Irish sent by Lucile Metz of St. Joseph. Delicious delicacies in snakes in dough were served and presided over by St. Patrick in bisk. Beautiful flowers decorated the tables and high hilarity reigned supreme. It was the most delightful session of the season.

The Tribune Sued.

Lawrence Sherbin has filed a libel suit for one thousand dollars against The Tribune. The basis for the suit is a recent article published herein where Sherbin's fight at the National hotel, and his subsequent arrest and conviction in police court were detailed. Judge Cleaver is a party defendant as it is alleged he was the author of the article. We understand Sherbin endeavored to get several reputable lawyers to take his case; failing in this he finally employed Billy Moran. We feel somewhat elated about the matter and feel that we are progressing along the ways of the righteous. If you have nothing else to do when this case is tried, come up to the court house and hear it, it will be worth while.

Veach Defeated.

The long expected shoot between Will Veach of this city and Clayton of Kansas City was pulled off at the local shooting grounds Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was dark and rainy and not conducive to a large score. Consequently neither gentleman did himself full justice, the final score being 88 to 89 in favor of Clayton. By winning the contest the Schmelz cup goes back to Kansas City. The shoot was witnessed by a large crowd, practically all of which were Veach partisans, in sentiment as well as in the betting. Veach looked a sure winner at the ninetieth bird, but fell down badly missing three out of the last six shots, thereby putting Clayton one to the good. It is understood that the loser has again challenged and that the next contest will take place in Kansas City.

said." If it is you have found some more of the "he-said" girls, and they are not the nicest little girls in the world. The "he-said" girls are likely to loiter down town after school too late to help their mothers with the afternoon work. They are likely to wear a little better clothes than their fathers can afford, so that the neighbors wonder what their mothers can be thinking about. The "he-said" girls also too often think more of the boys than of their books, and frequently fail to get through school. They are in for a good time and have nothing in their heads but hair-pins and two-steps. Sometimes nature takes a girl out of the "he-said" family and makes a fine woman of her, but generally she gets to going out to parties and is developed before her time, and either marries and fades at twenty or hangs on after all the other girls are married off, and takes generation after generation of young boys to raise by hand and become known as "grandma" in the crowd. There is nothing so sweet as a simple, frank, open hearted girl. But the boy struck girl is an abomination. The whole matter rests with the girl's mother. She can either bring up one of the "he said" girls or she can have a daughter to be proud of.—W. A. White.
