The Shakespear club met with Mrs. T. J. Gist Friday afternoon. A full attendance was present and the several characters in Julius Caesar were allotted to the members for reading. The library board has ordered several reference books on Shakespear for the benefit of the club members, which will be used in connection with the pamphlets furnished by Prof. Sherman of the state university.

Do you know where your little daughter spends her evenings? The writer was going home one rainy night last week after eleven o'clock and saw three girls of less than sixteen standing in a stairway with three strange young men. This is dangerous business. Do you know whether one of the three was yours?

No deals go in the municipal election this spring. There are improvements to be made and money spent probably a large sum. The question is not, has Jones made peace with Smith, but rather which candidate is best fitted for the responsible position of mayor?

Hank Shaw is in receipt of an inquiry from Aaron Loucks concerning the state of the weather and the appetite of the fish. Aaron is getting restless, and the contemplative mood of the confirmed angler will doubtless soon start him home.

Ewing Herbert of the Hiawatha World recently purchased a three thousand dollar press and now owns a Kentucky saddle horse. Wonder if he ever had his troubles on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Abbott spent Sunday with their daughter Mrs. Chas. Humphrey of Verdon.

Frank Veach chaperoned a large crowd of Verdon shooters at the Clayton-Veach match Saturday.

Think it over as a purely business proposition; who do you want for mayor, Leyda or Dorrington?

Mrs. John Hossack spent a few days in Weeping Water the first of the week the guest of Harvey Sargent and family.

The Tribune is but a dollar a year. Look over this issue and see for yourself whether or not it is worth the money.

"King" Hall the magnificent 169 pound dog of George Hall's was a Missouri Pacific passenger for Verdon on Friday.

The Tribune printed wedding invitations this week for a double wedding which will occur in this city during the present month.

Just as a matter of curiosity, why are you not one of our subscribers? The price is but one dollar a year. Better give us your name.

Charley Davis is in Excelsior Springs this week dividing his time between Sulpho Saline and Regent water and the inevitable consequences.

The wife of a Baptist preacher living north of Atchison (both white) gave birth to a colored baby last week, according to the Atchison Globe.

Let everybody pray that the biennial election bill will become a law. In such case we will be relieved of the curse of factional politics for a whole year.

The citizens committee has filled the vacancy for councilman for the second ward, created by the resignation of Ferd Harlow, by appointing Ed Burris of the firm of Burris Bros., druggist.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale at Kerrs Drug Store.

Farm for Sale.

A farm of one hundred sixty acres, six miles from Falls City, four and a half from Preston, five from Rulo, fenced with Osage orange hedges.

There are forest timber, a good orchard, two houses and cellars, and outbuildings, two wells, two corners, two stables, a bank barn, fifteen acres of grass land and pasture. Terms of payment will be made easy.

Price $12,000. Apply to John Wiltse, Falls City, Neb., to purchase or to rent the farm.—Jerome Wiltse, sr.

Wanted.

I have a very liberal proposition for some good man who wants to break up about twelve acres of timber land.

COLDS THAT HANG ON

So frequently settle on the lungs and result in Pneumonia or Consumption. Do not take chances on a cold wearing away or take something that only half cures it, leaving the seeds of serious throat and lung trouble.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

Stops the Cough and heals the lungs and prevents

Pneumonia and Consumption

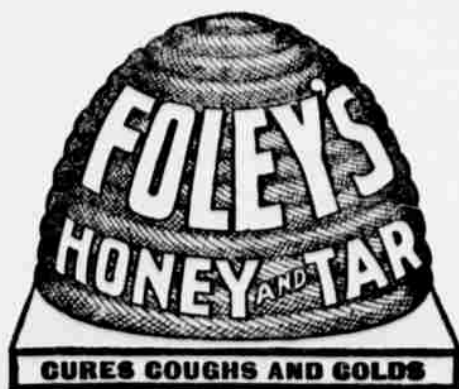

Consumption Threatened

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since."

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs

A. M. Ake, Wood, Ind., writes: "Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages. I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble."

Three Sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50-cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much. REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.
