OUR EXPERIENCE AT YOUR SERVICE

Watch repairing is a trade more than that it is a science which takes years of steady training to master. This is just what we offer to our customers, more than twenty years of practice in the Swiss watch factories and in this country, and it costs you no more in our store than in any other store. Bring your work to us with the confidence that it will be returned to you in a first class running order and remember our prices are reasonably low.

Our large stock of jewelry has been completed this spring with many of the novelties so much in demand now—here again we guarantee our goods, having all the standard makes in the jewelry line. Call and inspect our goods which are all we claim them to be.
