The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials, Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Easily Explained.

"Why, Mary, how did you break that pretty plate?" exclaimed the mother of a pretty four-year-old to her daughter. "Why, I'll show you, mamma, it was just like this," and taking up another bit of china from the table she gave a practical demonstration by letting it dash into a thousand pieces on the hardwood floor of the dining room.

Child's Appeal to Satan.

Dean Pigon tells in his new book of anecdotes the story of the little girl who was much upset by a maiden aunt, and posted in a hole in the garden a letter in these terms: "Dear Mr. Satan—Will you kindly come and take away Aunt Jane? She is a very fussy person and does worry me so. Yours affectionately, Alice."

Fines a Dead Man.

A man arrested in Singapore, Bengal, died before his case could be heard, but the local magistrate nevertheless tried and convicted and fined the dead man, and then ordered the heirs, his nephews, to pay the fine. The High Court has reversed the judgment.

The Ideal Maid.

Oh, do not paint her charms to me, I know that she is fair; I know her lips might tempt the bee, and her form's beyond compare. Such natural gifts I do not prize, my heart they cannot win; the girl I love has squinty eyes—but her father's got the tin.

THE SIMPLE LIFE.

Ways That Are Pleasant and Paths That Are Peace.

It is the simple life that gives length of days, serenity of mind and body and tranquillity of soul.

Simple hopes and ambitions, bounded by the desire to do good to one's neighbors, simple pleasures, habits, food and drink.

Men die long before their time because they try to crowd too much into their experiences—they climb too high and fall too hard. A wise woman writes of the good that a simple diet has done her:

"I have been using Grape-Nuts for about six months. I began rather sparingly, until I acquired such a liking for it that for the last three months I have depended upon it almost entirely for my diet, eating nothing else whatever, but Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper, and I believe I could eat it for dinner with fruit and be satisfied without other food, and feel much better and have more strength to do my housework.

"When I began the use of Grape-Nuts I was thin and weak, my muscles were so soft that I was not able to do any work. I weighed only 108 pounds. Nothing that I ate did me any good. I was going down hill rapidly, was nervous and miserable, with no ambition for anything. My condition improved rapidly after I began to eat Grape-Nuts food. It made me feel like a new woman; my muscles got solid, my figure rounded out, my weight increased to 126 pounds in a few weeks, my nerves grew steady and my mind better and clearer. My friends tell me they haven't seen me look so well for years.

"I consider Grape-Nuts the best food on the market, and shall never go back to meats and white bread again." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Humour of the Day.
Twenty Years from To-Day.
"Say, Smith, you are pretty well posted on things in general. I want to ask you a question."
"All right. Fire away."
"What was the year in which the supreme court put the beef trust out of business?"
"That happened early in 1905."
"Well, I expect meat will be coming down in price before long."
"Shouldn't wonder. Seasonable weather we're having."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Mere Novice.

"I bet I get into more trouble than any man in this state," volunteered the young fellow who had come in and ordered a Scotch highball. "Nothing in the trouble line overlooks me. Why, I'd be afraid to marry—"
"What, ain't you married?" ejaculated the red-nosed elderly party who was hovering over the gratis lunch. "Boy, you don't know what trouble is."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

All-Important Part.

She—What do you think of the legal profession for women?
He—O, it's all right, I suppose; but I hope they will never get on the judicial bench.
She—Why do you say that?
He—Because they would be continually adding postscripts to their opinions, and we, poor men, would never know where we were at.—Chicago News.

A Year and a Day.

He—To-morrow is my birthday.
She—I suppose you will take a day off.
"I shall."
"And how do you think I celebrate when I have a birthday?"
"Oh, I presume you take a year off."—Life.

His Attention Divided.

Mrs. John—Jack, you didn't keep your eyes on the preacher all the time.
Mr. John—How could I? I had my umbrella with me.

"Say," queried the book agent, as he paused at the front gate, "are you the boss of this establishment?"
"I think I may safely say that I am, temporarily," answered the meek and lowly man with the side whiskers. "You see," he added, by way of explanation, "this is the cook's afternoon off and my wife is shopping downtown."

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.
There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women.
Is it any wonder, then, that women continue to suffer and that doctors fail to cure female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on?

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients, through her correspondence with them than the physician who personally questions them.
If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.
The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.

Mrs. Ella Lee, Frankford, Ind., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I want to thank you for what your medicine has done for me. "Three years ago I had inflammation of the ovaries and ulcers on my womb. I was under the doctor's care for about three months, and the only time I was not in pain was when under the influence of morphine. The doctor finally said I never would be better, and would be an invalid the rest of my life. I had given up in despair, but one evening I came across one of your advertisements and decided to write you for advice. I did so and commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began to improve at once, and to-day I am a well woman, and I know it is all due to your advice and medicine.
Mrs. J. H. Farmer of 2809 Elliott Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I cannot thank you enough for what your advice and medicines have done for me. They have done me more good than all the doctors I ever had. "For the last eight years I have suffered with female troubles; was very weak; had nervous prostration, and could not do my work; but I am happy to say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made a different woman of me. I am in perfect health and have gained in weight from 98 pounds to 122 pounds."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record for actual cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
