

Verdon.

Wm. Kuker visited with W. H. Dragoo and family Sunday.

Mrs. Byerly and two children visited in Stella on Sunday.

E. E. Ewing was transacting business in Falls City on Monday.

D. A. Ramsey was looking after business in Falls City Saturday.

Rudolph Fisher dug a well for the new bank the latter part of last week.

Rev. Honstead of Hiawatha visited L. A. Kinsey and family part of the week.

On Thursday night the ladies aid society will give a strawberry and ice cream social.

Dr. Hall arrived the first of the week from Wood River, Neb., for a visit with his mother.

M. A. Veach was chosen delegate to grand lodge A. O. U. W. at Omaha. He left Monday.

W. S. Bowers and family were the guests of George and Fred Cleveland Sunday at Falls City.

John Weaver, Sherm Byerly and Clyde Lum left the first of the week for several days fishing at Langdon, Mo.

Miles Mayfield fell from a building fourteen feet into the cellar, last Saturday morning. At this writing he is able to be around.

The Christian endeavor social last Saturday night was enjoyed by those present and quite a sum of money taken in. Pine apple ice and cake were the refreshments.

Wm. Harnack of Falls City was granted a license for a saloon Friday night at a meeting of the town board at a cost of $1,000; also Eb Goolsby, making two saloons for Verdon this year.

The Primary Intermediate and Grammer Room pupils are preparing a program to be given at Hall's Theater next Saturday night. Baccalaureate Sermon on Sunday evening at the Evangelical church by Rev. Smith. Commencement, May, 19, twelve graduates, nine girls and three boys.

Ohio.

Noah Peck was a Verdon visitor Wednesday.

Rev. Stouder and family visited at N. Peck's Sunday.

Daisy Peck visited with her cousin Edith Peck, Sunday.

Hiram Findley of Stella was visiting friends in this vicinity the first of the week.

Mr. Newman was a guest of John Pappenhagen Tuesday night.

Adolph Brackhahn and wife were guests at Philip Blan's, Tuesday.

S. H. Knisely, wife and daughters were guests at Fred Scholl's Sunday.

LOOM END SALE

Saturday morning May 13, at 9 o'clock we will begin the greatest sale ever held in Falls City. Our buyer has succeeded in purchasing twenty-five large cases of Loom End which we will place on sale at 2 1-2 cents per yard. These goods are not trash, but are short lengths from 1-2 to ten yards with slight imperfections in the weaving.

During this sale we will make prices on goods, through our stock, but which our limited space here will not permit us to quote.

CLOTHING.

When the wagon gets in a rut and there is a big load on how do you get out? Proceed to at once to unload.

That is just the condition we are in and that is just what we are going to do. Come in and see the yellow price cards and read the story of our loss and your gain.

3,000 PIECES OF RIBBON.

AT LOOM END PRICES.

No. 5, 7 and 9 per yard..... .04

No. 12, 16, 22, 30 per yard..... .10

Fancy Ribbon 25c value .15

Fancy Ribbon 25c value .10

SHOES

Never before has our stock been so complete in this department as it is today and never before were such prices heard of in Falls City as will be found in this department. Here are but a few of the many good things we shall offer during this sale Ladies' Kid Shoes worth $1.75 $1.25
Men's Dress Shoe worth $1.75..... $1.00

See the large yellow bills. Sale begin Saturday, May 13, and closes May 27.

SAMUEL WAHL

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA.

Wm Hutchison returned home from Mo. Saturday he reports a good time and brought home some fine fish.

Mrs. Chester Stump and children visited at Perry Shaffer's Friday afternoon.

Geo. W. Peck drove down near Reserve, Kan., last week to see his son Lloyd.

I. L. Knisely and Elizabeth Brecht were guests at G. W. Peck's Sunday.

John Hutchison visited in Falls City last Thursday with his grandmother.

Ada Shouse spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents near Reserve, Kan.

Mollie and Merle Stouder were visiting at E. Peck's Tuesday.

Mrs. Rob't Schindler was a visitor at Rev. Stouder's Friday.

Williamsville.

Rev. Nieuhouse left Wednesday for Texas.

Mr. Gus Deurfeltdt and family visited Jacob Wanner Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Isabell was the guest of Miss Hazel Dunn Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Isabell and Hazel Dunn called on the Garwic girls Sunday evening.

I. A. Dnnn and Miss Myrtle

Mr. John Koso south of this place is reported dangerously ill.

Mr. Constanline is slowly recovering from his recent illness.

Isabell were among those who were shopping in Falls City Friday.

Mr. Henry Wicks and wife visited the latter's parents Sunday.

Grandpa Deurfeltdt, Edgie and B. C. Deurfeltdt visited Mr. Parchan Sunday.

Gus Deurfeltdt and family were pleasant callers at the home of Jacob Arnold.

Miss Ida Leecy returnen home Saturday from Andrew Lippolds where she has been sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Dunn were pleasant callers at the home of Jacob Arnold Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Herbster gave a dance for the young people of this vicinity Saturday evening. All report a good time.

Rulo.

Rev. Francis Deal lectured at Fort Hazel Monday night.

Prof. C. M. French visited in Missouri Saturday returning Sunday.

Jud Carpenter and Louis Burgess, a traveling man, had a run-away Friday while coming from the lake. They were both shaken up severely.

Rev. Aikman is carrying the mail on the new rural route out of Rulo until a man is appointed permanently.

J. A. Hinkle went to South Omaha Monday to attend the Grand Lodge of A. O. U. W. as delegate from Hart lodge No. 330.

Called the Turn.

The elderly maiden had recently inherited a 640-acre farm.

Later a man from an adjoining village appeared upon the scene. "Will you be my wife?" he asked. "I love you with my whole heart."

"For the land's sake!" exclaimed the giddy old girl.—Chicago Daily News.

An Oddity.

Wife—The woman who recently moved next door is certainly an oddity.

Husband—How's that?

"Why, she doesn't belong to a single society for the prevention of anything!" — Chicago Daily News.

First-Cousin English Marriages.

In every 1,000 marriages in Great Britain 21 are between first cousins. Among the nobility the rate is much higher, amounting to 45 in 1,000.