The members of Carley Post, G. A. R., of this city, are talking of holding a district reunion of the old soldiers here some time this summer. The matter is yet in the experimental stage and no definite plans have been made nor has any attempt been made at organization. It is understood that the old soldiers at Tecumseh, Falls City and Humboldt are favorable to the project of holding the reunion in this city and those at Nebraska City will probably fall in line when the matter is broached to them. If matters take a favorable turn those who are interested in the holding of the reunion will undoubtedly perfect an organization and make an effort to give the best reunion that has taken place in the history of the district. — Auburn Herald.

The Hiawatha World runs some very interesting pictures last week under the heading "Some Bits of Brown County Scenery." One of the pictures was of two little girls, one about twenty-five years of age and the other about twenty, sitting with their feet in a babbling brook and their skirts comfortably tucked above—considerably above their knees. There was some kind of a background of rocks, or woods, or prairie or something or other, but altogether it was quite a striking "bit of Brown county scenery."

Rev. Father Smith, of Falls City, conducted services at St. John's Episcopal church Sunday evening. These of his parishioners accompanied him here for the service: Mrs. H. B. Smith, Misses Lois and Alice Keeling, Oddie Lapp, Marguerite and Edna Horricks, Jessie and Mary Paxton, Hazel Jellison, and Harry Hughes, Bart Messler, Sidney Lapp, Jack Jellison, Jeff and Lynn Horricks, Reed Burchard, Tom Palmer and Geo. Culp. — Hiawatha World.

A great deal of trade from the south of Falls City could be secured, by the proper method, that now goes to other towns simply through our apparent indifference. There are very few men across the Kansas line who do their shopping here. If a good band was secured to give Saturday afternoon concerts it would help materially in drawing people here, and would more than pay the expense for such an enterprise.

The usual weekly club shoot was held Friday of last week. Dr. Fred Keller was the winner, he shot rings around the other boys and closed with the good score of 23 out of 25. Fred Oswald was second with 21 out of 25. Gus Falsken came down to shoot with the club and for a time looked like a sure winner but he fell down on the last ten.

Mrs. J. L. Slocum and Miss Carrie and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jenne of Falls City and E. Wheeler spent Sunday at G. L. Slocum's.—Stella Press.

Miss Bess Lear came up from White Cloud Friday and visited Helen Fowler until Saturday and from here went to Hiawatha to work in the telephone office.

Mrs. Bettie York, of Watson, Mo., is visiting in Auburn. Mrs. York is 93 years of age and has more than one hundred descendants, from children to great, great grandchildren.

An Auburn piano merchant got in a car load of instruments the other day and had a parade of wagons filled with the empty boxes. A band led the procession about town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph went to Atchison last Saturday in answer to a telegram stating the former's mother was seriously ill. They were accompanied by a niece who has been visiting them.

Mrs. Charles Henderson of Verdon accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Dodder, visited Francis Maddox Saturday. They left in the evening for Rulo to visit at the home of Dr. Robert Henderson.

An absent minded professor at the state university walked with one foot on the curb and the other in the gutter and thought he was suddenly lame. One of the girl students ran into his study frightened almost to death. "O, professor," she cried, "I'm so scared. I've swallowed a pin." "Never mind, my dear," said the professor soothingly without looking up, fumbling the lapel of his vest, "here's another one."

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A. Writes. "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over, from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by Kerr's Drug Store.

In the Richardson county district court, State of Nebraska.

Robert C. Glenn, Plaintiff,

Arville A. Glenn, Theresa G. Wortham, Simeon Wortham, The State Bank of Du Bois, Du Bois, Nebraska, M. W. Musselman, J. V. Ratiken, The unknown heirs of J. P. Lore, deceased and The International Harvester Company, Defendants.

To M. W. Musselman, The unknown heirs of J. P. Lore, deceased, and the International Harvester Company, non-resident defendants:

You and each of you will take notice that the plaintiff, Robert C. Glenn, did on the 14th day of April, 1905, file his petition in the district court of Richardson county, Nebraska, wherein he prays for the foreclosure of certain mortgages therein described, against Lots 3, 4, 5, 6, 19, 20, 21 and 22, in Block 89, and Lots 21, 22, 23 and 24, in Block 90, all in the city of Falls City, Richardson county, Nebraska, all of which mortgages had been theretofore executed by Addison N. Glenn and Arville A. Glenn to parties named therein and of which this plaintiff is present owner and holder. Which mortgages were given to secure various sums of money aggregating $7840.64, together with accumulations of interest, unpaid, amounting to about $3,000.00, and containing a prayer for the foreclosure of the several mortgages mentioned, and that an account be taken of the amount due and unpaid on the same, and a decree by the court requiring payment thereof within a short day, or in default, that the mortgaged premises above described be sold as on execution to satisfy the same and the costs of this litigation.

And you are further notified, that defendants, M. W. Musselman and J. V. Ratiken claim some kind of lien on said premises by a judgment in the District court, and you are hereby notified that the prayer in said petition is that said judgment be held subject to the mortgages owned by the plaintiff, and requires you to set up the nature and status of said claim, or the same will be declared null and void and held for naught. And the unknown heirs of J. P. Lore, deceased, whose names and residences are shown to the court to be unknown to the plaintiff by proper affidavit, and upon the order of his honor, Judge Babcock, being advised of said fact, this publication against said unknown heirs is made, as shown by order of the court granted in said cause and filed of record therein.

Unknown heirs of J. P. Lore, deceased, are therefore notified that according to the prayer of said petition, the judgment held by their ancestor, J. P. Lore, is alleged to be dormant and subject to the lien on the real estate owned by Addison N. Glenn in his life time and of which he died seized. And that unless said unknown heirs shall plead, answer or demur to this petition, as is hereinafter required, said judgment of J. P. Lore, deceased, in the District court of Richardson county, State of Nebraska, against the said deceased, Addison N. Glenn, will be held for naught, and decree entered accordingly.

And the said non-resident defendant, The International Harvester Company, is also alleged in said petition for foreclosure, to be the holder of some kind of judgment against the said Addison N. Glenn, which is alleged in said petition to be no longer a lien on the real estate described in said petition, and unless the said unknown non-resident defendants and each and all of them plead, answer or demur to said petition on or before the 5th day of June, 1905, the same will be taken as true and the decree therein prayed will be entered accordingly.

Legal Notice.

Belle Edwards, Plaintiff,
vs.
David Edwards, Defendant.
The defendant David Edwards will take notice that the plaintiff did, on the 2nd day of May, 1905, file her petition in the district court of Richardson county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to obtain a decree of divorce from said defendant on the grounds and for the reason that said defendant has without just cause been guilty of extreme cruelty towards this plaintiff, and has failed and refused to provide for her support though of sufficient ability to do so. The said defendant will plead to said petition on or before June 19th, 1905, or the same will be taken as true and the decree of divorce prayed for will be rendered.
