TO THE ADVERTISERS.

You want the most for your money that you can obtain. That is natural and legitimate.

The question is, how and where can you get it?

The Tribune has been in existence a little more than a year. It seems a startling fact, but it is true, nevertheless, that 85 persons who lived in this county when they subscribed for this paper, have since moved away.

Let us submit a proposition for speculation.

If 85 of our subscribers have the paper sent to their present address, how many who once lived here but have since removed take, say the Journal for instance, that has been in existence for many years?

When a newspaper speaks of the number of its subscribers, it includes both home and foreign subscriptions.

Foreign subscribers are of no value to the local advertiser.

It is the home man that counts.

The Falls City merchant derives his trade very largely from the farming public around Falls City. Realizing this to be true we have made a special effort to enlarge and increase our circulation on the Falls City rural routes.

You remember that we have asserted that we have the largest circulation on these routes. We now repeat the assertion and stand ready to prove it.

An ad in The Tribune is the most valuable at the price to the local merchant.

The statement in the last issue of the Journal that many members of the Roosevelt club expressed the fear that Falls City could not properly care for the congressional convention, was not only ill advised, but it was also incorrect. No one attending the meeting of the club expressed any such sentiment. No representative of the Journal attended the meeting, and the mistake was doubtlessly occasioned by such fact. The committee, fearing that an erroneous impression might be created by the Journal article, wired the state papers that the town was making ample preparations for the convention, and that all visitors would be provided with entertainment.

We counted seventeen fishing rigs making for the river Sunday morning.

Quite a number were singing "in the cold gray dawn of morning after", on the morning following the installation of the Elks lodge.

We cannot recover from the idea of a band concert Saturday afternoons. It would be a treat to which the farmer and his family would look forward to and would be a great trade producer.

No one need stay away from Falls City June 1st for fear of inadequate accommodations. There will be provisions made for all of you, and an opportunity to witness one of most interesting conventions of years.

The Humboldt Enterprise speaks luminously and to the point on the question of factionalism within the republican party. No true republican can feel anything but regret over the condition. The remedy lies in the hands of the people, and while they are patient and long suffering, the time is nearing when the remedy will be applied.

All eyes will be upon Falls City June 1st. The congressional situation seems as much in the air as ever and no political prophet can foretell the result. The Lincoln papers say that the Lancaster county delegation will never vote for any man other than its own candidate. This should be a game that two can play. It may prove to be a waiting game and develop into a contest of endurance.

Saturday was one of the best business days Falls City has experienced this spring. The streets were crowded with buyers all day and the merchants and clerks welcomed the closing hour. Falls City is the best trading point in southeastern Nebraska. The local stores carry stocks which in quantity and quality are not equaled in any of the surrounding cities. A reasonable amount of judicious advertising would keep these facts before the people and would tend to increase the patronage already enjoyed.

To the Citizens of Falls City.

The assembling of the congressional convention here June 1st will tax our city for sleeping room. The undersigned committee on entertainment has been appointed to arrange for rooms for delegates and we earnestly request all persons who can furnish sleeping room for one or more delegate to report the same member of this committee at once. The committee recommend a maximum rate of fifty cents a person for lodging. Committee headquarters at P. S. Heacock's office.

P. S. HEACOCK, Chairman.

JOHN WILTSE, secretary.

The Caucuses.

The caucuses Saturday night were exceedingly tame. There was no contest, the following delegates being elected without opposition:

First ward—A. R. Scott, Geo. W. Holland, P. S. Heacock, Rev. Yoder, Sam Bain, Wm. Reiger, John Mosiman, jr., G. M. Barrett, John Wiltse, Fritz Herbster, Lou Beasley, Jas. Hillyard.

Second ward—G. J. Crook, Aaron Loucks, Ernst Werner, Norman Musselman, J. R. Wilhite, D. C. Kirkpatrick, R. G. Wills, V. G. Lyford, Fred Seabold, John Hossack, W. E. Dorrington, John L. Cleaver, Wm. Cade, J. J. Whitaker, Louis McPherson.

Third ward—Con Reagan, Jas. Nausler, J. A. McCormick, Carl Lippold, Martin Zook, O. Andrews, Frank Brenizer, Cal Everts, Chris Saylor, George Linsacum.

The probabilities are that C. F. Reavis will be given the delegation to the congressional convention without opposition.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A. writes, "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over, from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by Kerr's Drug Store.
