Republican County Convention.

Falls City, Neb., July 8, 1905.

The republicans of Richardson county, Nebraska, are hereby requested to meet in convention in the opera house in Stella, Nebraska, on Tuesday, September 12, 1905, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination, a county treasurer, a county clerk, a county judge, a superintendent of public instruction, a sheriff, a county surveyor and a coroner. Also for the purpose of selecting twenty-one delegates to the republican state convention to be held in Lincoln, Nebraska, on September 14, 1905, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

The basis of representation being one delegate for each ten votes or major fraction thereof cast for the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt for president in 1904, the several precincts being entitled to the following delegates:

It is recommended the caucuses be held on Saturday September 9, 1905, at a place and hour designated by the several precinct committeemen, who are requested to make the necessary calls and arrange the details for holding the same.

Attest W. E. DORRINGTON,
J. L. CLEAVER, Chairman,
Secretary.

And after the picnic it rained.

There was but little doing in a business way last Saturday. The people have not as yet recovered from the street fair and the picnic.

The rain of Saturday night assured the maturing of the early corn, the late corn however, will require one or two more showers to reach the fulfillment of present promises.

Wouldn't it be in accordance with the eternal fitness of things to nominate V. G. Lyford for regent of the state university? Can you think of a man more eminently qualified for the position? Nearly every newspaper in southeastern Nebraska has commented favorably on his candidacy except a certain sheet in this city, but of course we can expect no assistance from that quarter, nothing in it for the gang, you know.

The entire editorial staff of The Journal drove to Verdon yesterday to attend the picnic. Early in the morning the family carriage, drawn by faithful "Old John," pulled up at the Journal office the passengers climbed aboard and in due time the Dam horse landed the whole Dam family safe and sound on the picnic grounds. The reason for this early start and this tumultuous impetuosity on the part of the aforesaid condemned family was due to the fact that C. F. Reavis was billed to deliver an address. Reavis didn't talk.

A COURAGEOUS OFFICIAL.

Hon. Norris Brown, attorney general for Nebraska, has commenced an action for injunction against the Nebraska grain dealers association and asking that the charter be revoked. Judge Barnes of the supreme court issued the temporary restraining order and the matter will be heard this fall. The grounds for the action are that the association is a trust, formed for the purpose of stifling competition and to fix the prices of the various grains sold by the farmers. The action is against some of the most prominent men of both parties in the state, and if it had been commenced a few years ago would have indicated that the attorney general was endeavoring to commit political suicide. The action is characteristic of Brown. He found an evil existing contrary to the laws of the state which laws he had sworn to enforce. Notwithstanding his action is against those who may be in a position to do him lasting injury, he is following his duty as he sees it, and doing it as gladly and cheerfully as one would lie down to his rest at night. What a glorious thing it is to have a public official who does not say, "if wrong is being done, let someone make a complaint to me." Brown says, "a wrong is being done, and under the law and my oath, I must suppress it." Consequently, he makes his own complaint, and there you have the difference between one who wants to do his duty, and one who does not. Norris Brown may be in danger of political retirement, but it occurs to us that he is in more danger of being made Governor or United States Senator than he is of being made a political corpse.

The News speaks of the Journal graft in charging $40.00 for the printing of the little two by six ballots required for the special congressional election. The Tribune printed the ballots for the last general election that were so large that no press in the state could print them, and it was therefore necessary to print them in two sheets and paste them together. If The Tribune had charged at the same rate the Journal did for the special election ballots our bill would have exceeded $400. Yet, when the county board allowed $200 for the work the Journal appealed from the allowance and has held The Tribune out of its money ever since. The case will be heard at the ensuing term of the district court and then we shall see what we shall see. Of course the Journal was actuated by proper motives in holding up the warrant, anyone who knows the unselfish gang of philanthropists behind the Journal would never question their motives. The outrageous charge made by the Journal and allowed by the board would demonstrate the fact that the Journal is in favor of saving the money of the dear people with a vengeance. The Journal has printed the ballots before and never, in a single instance, has it done so as cheaply as The Tribune did a year ago. These facts will be shown to the jury that tries the appeal case on The Tribune's warrant, and this "holier than thou" crowd shown up for what everybody knows them to be.

On Wednesday, August 16 at the Gehling the romantic melo drama "The Flaming Arrow," will be presented. This play is from the artistic hand of Lincoln J. Carter, America's foremost playwright and a man who has successfully written and staged more artistic plays than any man in America. It is now entering on its sixth season and has played all the large cities and larger towns in this country. Those who saw the attraction last year welcome it back for another run.

Maxims and Proverbs

Relating to the Virtue of Saving

Who's saying at twenty,
At forty has plenty.
By saving something every week you begin each week
richer.
Who saves something every week, has 52 increases of fortune
a year.
He'll never be slave
Who learns to save.
By once saving a dollar each month, Carnegie can now spend millions a month.
He who saves, ceases to serve.
Buy what thou hast no need of
and ere long thou shalt sell
the necessities.
Saving in youth
Pulls Poverty's tooth.

Not what you get but what
you hold,
Eases life's burden when you're old.

When the rainy day comes the bank book is the best umbrella.

Those who sneer at the saving man end by taking off
their hats to him.

Who hath money in the bank
has a nice, soft cushion to fall
on.

Fickle Fortune's fairest favors Are sure to fall among the savers.

One's never rich until he commences to keep ahead of his expenses.

If this bank is on your visiting list, you are in good society
THE FALLS CITY STATE BANK
Offers inducements to all interested in the art of saving.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Witmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale at Kerr's drug store.

A little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Anyone who makes it a rule to keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand knows this to be a fact. For sale at Kerr's drug store.

Dr. R. P. Roberts, dentist over King's Pharmacy.

Persistence is not Seasonable Like Fall and Summer Goods :: ::

We as merchants and you as customers know that success in anything depends upon careful and persistent industry at all times.

If you could buy a Spring Couch, Carpet or Bed Room Suit for less money in the Summer time it would be your duty to do it.

We know this and therefore want to inform you that the odds and ends in all our store have been marked down to a summer figure.

Our window is full of Rockers; good, beautiful and stylish that we have marked less than cost.

Next week we will display in the same window a full line of Couches. The price on these will astonish you.

Carpet Remnants in abundance.

Mattings cheap and lots of it.

Call on us these hot days. Our spacious room is cool and you would enjoy your visit whether you bought or not.

Closing out Sale of Clothing.

Our closing out sale of clothing still continues and we are still offering exceptional bargains. We would call especial attention to three hundred pairs of all wool worsted trousers and at the price, each pair is a bargain in itself. This is a genuine closing out sale, and as such it embraces high class goods at low class prices. Our fine line of clothing is being sacrificed and to miss this sale is to miss a splendid opportunity.—F. W. Cleveland.
