FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA

SEVENTH ANNUAL AUTUMN SALE. OCTOBER 7 TO 21, 1905

IN DIRECTING the attention of the thousands of our patrons to our many attractions for the Fall and Winter of 1905 we wish to again reiterate the fact that this is a store whose highest ambition is to serve you a little better than you have ever been served any where else. We never lose sight of our high ideals regarding store keeping. No flimsy devices for trade attracting; no inferior wares recommended for mere cheapness only high standard and sterling worth are tolerated. We have ever shared during one Special Sale legitimate profits by liberal price concessions. From the opening to the end of each season we are striving to improve in every detail. It is our pride to give to trifles such attention as will contribute to that perfection towards which we are striving. In every department we are exceptional in our facilities for owning goods at inside cost. We are fearless in our claim to be in every particular worthy of your patronage, as a firm standing for the best of everything in this community we have as your neighbors special claims upon you. Our stocks are more exhaustive in their assortments, our establishment more complete in its efficiency. We are growing in usefulness and commercial prestige. Come help us, that we may help you. This Annual Fall Sale has as its chief attraction special prices on items in every department, not baits, having only low price to commend them, but every day articles of substantial quality at a cost far below regular figures. We cannot guarantee to furnish those bargains beyond present stock on hand.
