The division of the oil wells and the Miles will case will now divide the attention for the rest of the winter.

Will Rieger is a public spirited citizen. He is one who has made a success of life. His term as register of deeds has been marked with ability and faithfulness. His re-election is one of the things which may be taken for granted as a reward justly earned.

On the question of fitness, on the question of party loyalty, on every question which goes to the essentials of a good county treasurer Jake Tanner is not found wanting. He has no past that he fears, and no man can offer a single valid reason for opposing him.

Porter Stringfield is a product of Richardson county, having been born here 38 years ago. He has never known any other home. There is not an act of his 38 years of life that can be used against him. He is one of our best citizens and his candidacy is being welcomed by hundreds of his friends both republican and democrat as an opportunity to reward a man who is in every way deserving.

Prof. Hoff will serve the people of this county as well as it has ever been served. His qualifications are so far superior to those of his opponents that comparison would be odious. There is no truth in the statement that he is not a republican. He was a democrat until 1896 when he voted for McKinley and has been voting the republican ticket ever since. We are informed that the democratic candidate, Mr. Oliver was a republican until 1896 when he became a democrat. Hoff got right in '96 and has been right ever since. Oliver got wrong the same year and remains so to this day.

Jake Tanner is gaining strength with the passing of every day. Notwithstanding it is the policy of the opposition to concentrate their efforts on the head of the ticket the chances for Mr. Tanner's election are better today than they have ever been before. A gentleman prominent in state politics was in Falls City this week and he stated that the democrats were doing nothing for their state ticket, but were using all their efforts to gain control of the counties by slipping in a few of the county officers.

The republican who is deceived by cries of machine, third term and like subterfuges is permitting himself to be used as an instrument to destroy his own party.

A CRUEL ASSAULT.

In the last issue of the News it contained an editorial concerning John Hossack republican candidate for sheriff which we wish that every voter in the county might read. For downright brutality it is a gem and does credit to the character and reputation of its author. The News declines its authorship by saying it was contributed and that the editor does not believe in that kind of warfare. The denial of the News was unnecessary, no one would credit the News with it and everyone immediately guessed the writer.

There are men in the world who boast on the streets and in their places of business of the cruel and brutal things they have said of and to their acquaintances. There are men who will take your time by the hour, if you will submit to being bored that long relating the sharp and cutting words they have said for purpose of wounding the feelings of their fellow men, and consider such conduct an evidence of their smartness. Such men are always despised though their vanity does not permit them to discover the fact. Such a man wrote the article in the last issue of the News about John Hossack.

In it he is called a dead beat; he is accused of laziness, indolence and with having made a failure of life. Nothing that the writers fertile imagination could conjure up was omitted, and knowing its author, we have no doubt that he was very proud of his handiwork. From his standpoint he is entitled to be. It was a masterpiece. We have no intention to deny the charges made against Mr. Hossack, we have no desire to debate a proposition of abuse and slander with the writer. We are no match for the man who wrote the article in his chosen field. We are content to let him occupy it as the undisputed champion.

We will say this for Mr. Hossack however; he never intentionally wounded a man's feeling in his life. He has never refused to go to the assistance of the unfortunate who was unhappy or suffering. He has never taken an official obligation without fulfilling it and he has made one of the best sheriffs this county has ever had. He needs no defense at our hands, his life and character speak for themselves. We as the friends of Mr. Hossack would like to have every voter in the county read the article in the News. No fair man who knows the man who is so cruelly slandered will fail to register his protest against such conduct when the time comes to vote. There has never been a question as to Hossack's re-election, but the efforts of the man who wrote the News editorial has made certainty doubly certain. The opposition would better call him off.

Speaking of machines, how did it come that the Falls City News knew and published three weeks before the democratic county convention was held that John Hutchings was to be nominated for clerk, John Gagnon for judge and Lord for treasurer. Several men thought they were candidates for some of these offices and remained under that impression until the day of the convention. Is it possible that a machine had fixed the matter so long before the convention? If not, how did the News know they were to be nominated?

Don't worry about Judge Wilhite. The voters of this county appreciate a good official too highly to permit him to be defeated. There are many democrats who have had business with his office that are openly working for him and the republicans are too proud of his administration to be fooled by cries of third term. The prediction is freely made that he will lead the ticket, whether he will or not he will receive the vote of the majority of the voters of this county for the reason that he deserves it.
