If You would be a Successful Teacher.
Be helpful.
Be unselfish.
Be generous.
Never worry and whine.
Study the art of pleasing.
Be frank, open and truthful.
Always be ready to lend a hand.
Be self-confident and not conceited.
Never monopolize the recitation with your own mouth piece.
Take a genuine interest in your pupils.
Always look on the bright side of conditions.
Take pains to remember the names and faces of your pupils.
Never criticize or say unkind things to them.
Look for the good in your pupils, not for their faults.

Forgive and forget their wrongs, but never forget their excellencies.

Rejoice as genuinely in your pupil's success as in your own. Always be considerate of the rights and feelings of your pupils and patrons.

Have a good time with your pupils, but never let fun degenerate into license.

Have a kind word and cheery encouraging smile for every pupil.

Learn to control yourself when trying to control your pupils.

Be respectful to your pupils and generous to a fault in your attitude toward them.

Meet the ups and downs of your school work like a man, and cheerfully endure what you can't cure.

Do not be too self-opinionated with your pupils, but listen with some deference to the opinions of your pupils and you may be wiser.

Because your pupils may be your inferiors is all the more the reason you should be courteous and agreeable.

The New Certificates.

One of the important conferences of the year was that held at the state superintendent's office in September. County and city superintendents met to decide the procedure under the new law for the certification of teachers.

They decided that all teachers should be required to take an examination in the five essential subjects, arithmetic, grammar, history, reading and geography, upon the expiration of the certificate now held. If passing grades are made in these subjects the old grades will be accepted in the other subjects.

This seems a very wise and fair arrangement. Teachers will not be overburdened with preparation. They can systematically and carefully review their work in these subjects with advantage to themselves and their schools. A review in five subjects is not an unreasonable task to set for teachers.

How can the review be best accomplished by the teachers who will have to renew their grades? State Supt. McBrien is planning to give direction for this preparation through the Nebraska Teacher. Each of the five subjects will be taken up by a specialist who will direct the teachers in their preparation and study, and will point out the essential and important phases of each.

The names of those who will prepare these discussions will be announced next month—Nebraska Teacher.

Scholarships For Eighth Grade Graduates.

A scholarship valued at $100 entitling the holder to a reduction of $25 per year for each of four years on tuition, during residence and pursuit of the regular college or academy courses of study, in any one of following named institutions will be given to the eight grade graduate who has the highest scholarship rank in the final examinations which will be given next spring: Bellevue College, Bellevue; Cotner University, Lincoln; Doane College, Crete; Grand Island College, Grand Island; Hastings College, Hastings; Nebraska Wesleyan University, Lincoln; and York College, York. If it is preferred such pupil may have a scholarship good for tuition for one year in the Wayne Normal College and worth $48.00 to the pupil. Otherwise the $100 scholarship will be given the pupil ranking first in the examination and the Wayne scholarship to the pupil ranking second.

Dist. 31, Ray E. Rockwell, teacher. Beginning Nov. 3, we shall have a four weeks vacation. Total enrollment 16, School is doing nicely.

Remember the next meeting of the Richardson county teacher's Association will be held in Falls City, Friday and Saturday November 10 and 11th.

November 1, 1894, Supt. J. A. Kuhlman, published, in book form, the names of the teachers of our county. Only seven of those teachers are teaching in our county today.

In 1885, our school census was 6400, with an enrollment in the public schools the following year of 4307; In 1890, 6787, 5224; 1895, 7014, 5424; 1890, 7034, 5777; 1891, 6987, 5494; 1902, 6762, 5394; 1903, 6689, 5317; 1904, 6464, 4983; 1905, 6166, 5023.

Dist. 78 Agnes Moran teacher. Enrollment 26. We have a new stove and a new book case. We hope for new desks soon. Our pupils did nicely with the first quarter's examination. The County Superintendent gave us a library of eight volumes last week.

Four years ago, thirty-five of the schools in our county had libraries. We believe each school in the county now has a fairly good library. If this is not true of any school, please let the County Supt. know and he will send them a library. We are anxious to be able to say with truth, pride and emphasis that each school in Richardson County has a library.

"It is a kindness to make the way of the transgressor hard, every time, that he may not continue there in. To help him to place himself in harmony with the physical laws, the civic laws, the divine laws under which he is placed. The physical laws are unyielding, the statutes do not plead and the decalogue does not say please. There is an element lacking in the training that tolerates trifling with duty that allows self will to forget others."—C. F. Adams.

Central Dist. 85.—Blanch Lytle. Teacher. Our school closed Friday, Oct. 28 for a vacation of four or five weeks. The enrollment for the past two months, 23 and a larger attendance is expected when school begins again. We are quite proud of our work in drawing and writing and hope to have some good specimens of both studies by the end of the school year. We concluded the old saying "Better be out of the world than out of the style" is true so made a seed collection last month. Our school room is much improved in appearance by having white curtains and new pictures. The total number of visitors during the quarter seven.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that were sold in that market. Out of the entire list they found only one that they declared was entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had and it is with feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, droup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale at Keit's Drug Store.

Campaign Comment.
It was a fusion board of university regents that employed Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews whom the opposition organs now are maligning because he would not bow to the will of the fusion political leaders. It also was an honest fusion board of regents that inaugurated the secret sessions of the board at which large sums of money are voted for expenses of the school without the details of the expenditures being made public. The fusion press is very strong against these secret sessions now, although there still are fusion members on the board.

The campaign for regents of the university although it has been a quiet one nevertheless has been one of education. The republican candidates both are men of learning and ability fitted to direct the administration of a great college like the state university. V. G. Lyford of Falls City, the senior nominee, is a successful lawyer and business man, is prominent among the educators of the state. As a graduate of the university Fred Abbott is particularly fitted for a position on the board.

While the use of passes by office holders and candidates for public office is being discussed it is well to remember that Judge Hastings, the fusion candidate for supreme judge, is an old and confirmed user of the little pasteboard. In his speech of acceptance before the democratic state convention Judge Hastings stated that for many years he had been paid attorney of the railroads and had used passes. While promising to accept no more annuals from the roads Mr. Hastings neglected to state that he would return his present ones.

The Nebraska City Tribune puts it this way.
"The demopop regents are running on an anti-tainted-money platform. If it wasn't quite so comical it would be ridiculous. These two worthies have just awoken to the fact that it was a terrible thing to accept the fund given the state university by Mr. Rockefeller, although one of these se fsame gentlemen made a donation himself, the object of which was to nail fast Mr. Rockefeller's promise and secure the money he had offered. If a certain other sum was raised outside the promised gift of the oil magnate. Now the candidate says he didn't stop to think or he would no. (This fellow's only chance of being put at the head of the state university as a regent is that the people fail to stop and think—just one little think will do the business."

No republican should fail to go to the polls next Tuesday. It is the votes in the ballot box that count, not the votes that stay at home. Party principles can only be maintained by decisive vindication at the polls. Party workers should make an earnest effort to rally the full vote. Remember that every fusionist elected to a county office furnishes a nucleus from which the opposition puts its next year's fight. Wipe the slate clean and there will be no hereafter. Get out the vote.

The World-Herald, following its usual methods, and judging the sincerity of others by itself, and its party, is asking in characteristic scare headlines whether Judge Letton is using passes. If the World-Herald cared for the facts, it could readily learn from the sworn statement of expenses filed by Judge Letton in the office of the secretary of state, that he paid his fare to and from convention, and it should know that a plank in a republican platform and pledge of a republican candidate mean something. Can it say as much for democratic platforms and pledges of democratic candidates. Judge Letton stands squarely on the republican platform and is in sympathy with utterance, and long before the World Herald awoke from the knockout blow his nomination and the republican platform gave it, he had returned all free transportation of every kind held by him. What about Judge Hastings?
