Don't Trade.

It is probable that a word of warning to republicans is unnecessary, but for fear that the rank and file is not fully informed as to the true situation we desire to say bet a word. If the offer has not already been made to you comprehending a trade of candidates, it will very likely be made before the time comes to vote. The opposition is determined to elect certain of its candidates and if the local conditions here in Falls City are to be taken as indicative of anything, you may rest assured that some of the democratic candidates are to be sacrificed in the interest of others. The republican ticket is as good as elected right now. Don't accept any proposition to trade. There is no trading stock on the ticket. Every candidate deserves fair and honorable treatment at the hands of the members of the party. There is not one of the candidates that would accept such a proposition, and his friends should not do for him that which he would refuse to do for himself. No honorable man would ask an election at the expense of a fellow candidate. That certain democratic candidates are doing this or at least attempting to do it, is a matter that concerns them alone and about which the voters must draw their own conclusions. Don't trade.

Will Rieger as recorder has made a host of friends during the term he has held who will see to it that he is re-elected. Mr. Rieger has been a very accommodating officer and has been at his desk every working hour of the day. There seems no reason to doubt that his campaign will be successful even though he will be prevented from visiting all sections before election.

"Some newspapers may claim that they maintain an advertising rate, but when they give 3000 bills without extra charges along with an ad: what do you call it? There is a newspaper in Falls City that does its best every week to kill the business and its position is becoming more desperate each week. Do you know what paper it is? News. Not guilty. You may guess again.

One of the most prominent democrats in Falls City said to the writer Tuesday of this week, "I had intended to vote against Hossack until the last issue of the News, but, I am going to vote for him now if I vote for no other candidate. The day has gone by when men must be abused and maligned simply because they are running for office. I am opposed to such character of campaign and I don't care who knows it."

A Last Word With Republicans.

Before another issue of this paper is printed the election, with all of its labor and anxiety, will be over. The candidates have been true to the faith. They are deserving of your support. They represent those things for which you have labored. Vote for them. Every candidate on the republican ticket is a Roosevelt republican. They stand now as they have already stood as his friends and supporters. Richardson county is a republican county, it will become democratic only when rapublicans elect democratic candidates. The cries of machine, third term and similar campaign subterfuges mean only that the democrats are trying to beat republicans, and they say these things, not because of their truth or because they represent any party principle, but merely to use you for their own ends. You may permit yourself to be so used if you desire. You may contribute to the defeat of the best ticket ever nominated in Richardson County, taken as a whole; but after you have done so what then? You have put the control of this county into the hands of those who do not believe in your ideas of government. You have given the control of affairs to men who will use their positions to strengthen their own party at the expense of yours. You have, in the language of childhood "Cut off your nose to spite your face."

This is your privilege if you desire to exercise it. There is no power to prevent your doing so but your own judgment and your own horse sense. It is up to you and upon your decision depends the political supremacy of Richardson County.

The space man who writes under the caption "contributed" and the editor of the News should get together on the telephone question. Their wires were somewhat crossed last week.

The blow will almost kill father when the contributor of the News hears that John Hossack has been re-elected. We tender our sympathy in advance and trust that time will heal the wound. John Hossack is a bigger and better man than his traducer and has more friends to the square inch than "contributor" has to the mile.

The News speaks somewhat slightly of Reavis because of the telephone controversy, and wants to know why he has not done something or other about an elevator at Strausville, we don't understand just what. When these themes wear out why can't we take him to task because the Panama canal has not been completed or a successful air ship constructed?

Porter Stringfield is a man who would not sacrifice a principle for any office under the sun. He will not do those things in which he does not believe to secure the vote of any man. His ideas of right and wrong are not worn as a cloak to be removed when circumstances make it expedient to change. A man who is true to himself and his conscience when asking votes will be true after having received them. It is no wonder that the longer the campaign the stronger he becomes.

Will Rieger has put in a pretty busy week of it trying to make up for lost time. The best campaign so far as Will is concerned is the manner in which he has conducted his office for the past term. He has always been at his post of duty, and has been as anxious to accomodate and please those who have had business with the office as any one could possibly be. Our opponents have been shouting against a third term, by the same token they should be in favor of a second term. If so, permit us to recommend Mr. Rieger whose services have been very acceptable to the people and who now asks to be returned for a second term.

To the Falls City News: Reavis is not a candidate.

The matters of probate will be in good hands for the next two years. Judge Wilhite, the best probate judge the county has ever had, will be returned by a very large vote. Stick a pin in this and see how near we are to the truth in the prediction. The voters of this county are far too sensible to defeat the most competent man the office has ever known.

Does the fact that Jake Tanner is proud of his nationality furnish any reason why he should be defeated? The News objects somewhat strenuously because The Tribune referred to the fact that Jake is a German. The voters usually like to know anything concerning a candidate that in any way pertains to his qualifications. It is right they should be informed. We had no intention of offending when we referred to the fact that after Jake's election a German could transact his business with the county treasurer in his own language just as he has been permitted to do for the last four years.

Victor G. Lyford, a man in whom every citizen in the county may well feel a pride, should receive practically the unanimous vote of the county next Tuesday. He is certain of election as the state will probably go republican by 25,000, but an immense vote from his own county would be of great benefit to him and would speak the true sentiment of our people with regard to him. It is said that in his home county Fred Abbott will receive an exceptionally large vote as he stands well and his people want a regent. Mr. Lyford is as highly regarded by the voters of this county as Mr. Abbott can possibly be by the voters of Platte County. Put a cross after his name next Tuesday and show that you have some home pride.

For Sale

One hard coal burner, one soft coal burner, one large and one small wood burner for sale cheap.—O. J. McCall.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days time to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale at Kerr's Drug Store.
