The Verdon Reading Circle held an interesting meeting last Monday evening. The Reading Circle meets every week. All teachers in the vicinity of Verdon are earnestly and cordially invited to attend.

The Rulo Reading Circle meets every four weeks. The next meeting will be held November 25th in the school house at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. All teachers in the vicinity of Rulo are invited to attend.

There are 24000 newspapers in the United States and only 18000 in all the world besides. In this country we have a daily newspaper office for 30000 of our people, young and old. The rest of the world has a daily newspaper office for each million of people.

The Dawson Reading Circle meets every Monday night. Teachers in the vicinity of Dawson are invited to attend. Dawson has a Tennyson of sixteen members. They meet every two weeks. The Dawson basket ball teams came down to Falls City last Friday afternoon and played with the Falls City High School teams. Dawson won both games.

Press Notes.

The president was a stoker a portion of the time he was at sea. When it comes to getting up steam he is certainly a success. As a stoker on sea and a stoker on land he has none if any superiors.—Fremont Tribune.

If they would try dropping eggs instead of bombs into the Russian situation it would be much the better policy.—Fremont Tribune.

As Mrs. J. W. Ramel was engaged in domestic duties on Monday morning, she was surprised to receive a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Heck of Falls City. As she passed out to greet them she was still more surprised to see that they were accompanied by her brother, Christopher Wyant and wife of Port Washington, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Wyant are well pleased with Richardson county.—Verdon Vedette.

"The crop of 'I told you so's,' is not so great this week as is usually the case following an election. The election oracles, however, are slowly but surely becoming a thing of the past. That's something to be thankful for.—Verdon Vedette.

Quite a lively time occurred last Friday evening when the team of John Young and the horse driven by Ferdie Spaulding took fright at the engine of George Stiles' threshing outfit. The horses were pretty badly mixed up but no further damage resulted than a pair of broken shafts and a broken harness.—Dawson Newsboy.

One man in Nemaha county is a paragon of conscientiousness. He promised every candidate a vote and he delivered the goods.—Auburn Herald.

Whenever a young man comes up and says "it's mine," and takes up the white man's burden without protest, he is made up of the right kind of material. While it may be an indiscretion, yet it is nothing but natural.—Blue Spring-Sentinel.

On Hallowe'en night the Wichita police rushed by twenty-seven joints that are being operated in open violation of the law and arrested twenty-seven little boys for throwing corn.—Robinson Index.

One great proof that the farmers have practically quiet politics is the decay of the literary society. The time once put in there is now being spent in studying farm problems. Farming pays better than any office, and all the farmers asks is honest men in place and economical government.—Hiawatha World.

This is the time of year when a fellow can shuck 100 bushels of corn around a warm stove, but when he gets out in the country there is about 50 per cent shrinkage noticed.—Hiawatha World.

The Iowa man who wrecked a train, killing six persons, "just to see what would happen," has been sentenced to the penitentiary for life and wont get to see much else that happens.—Kansas City Journal.

James Gordon Bennett has offered a five-thousand-dollar cup to the airship contestants in Berlin. It is presumed that the survivor gets the cup.—Kansas City Journal.

An insurance paper defending the big three in New York claims the public has gone from hysteria to shysteria on the subject of life insurance abuses. Shysterphobia would perhaps be more nearly correct.—Lincoln Journal.
